

Shabbat Shalom, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New/Renewed Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days according to the full moon as the start of His lunar months!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FUb6QjzvRXU>

Today is the 22nd day of our Creator's Fifth Lunar Month count, in which the year begins in the spring. It is also the authentic third lunar Sabbath of the month. It looks like 05-22-5994. It coincides with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary date of Sat., 08-30-2025.

Our Creator placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and the start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to Yahuah Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths and annual Feast Days, is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only Yahuah's Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts “eyes to see and ears to hear.” Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

“Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, Yahuah. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness.”
Psalms 89:15-16

HEAVEN'S LOOM

By Jonathan Cahn

The teacher took me inside one of the tent camps of the desert dwellers. No one seemed to mind. We sat down beside a woman who was working on a loom made of sticks and strings. Into the loom she wove threads of red, black, purple, and yellow into a pattern that appeared both ancient and elaborate.

“Notice how carefully she goes about her weaving,” he said, “how meticulously she works...how intricate the pattern.”

We continued to watch as more and more of the pattern emerged.

“When judgment came on Israel in 586 BC, it seemed as if the plans Yahuah had for the Jewish people were finished. The Promised Land was in ruins and Yah’s people in exile. It was then that He gave this word to His fallen and broken people: ‘I know the plans I have for you, plans of shalom (peace) and not of calamity, to give you a future and a hope.’”

“A beautiful word,” I said. “After everything, after all their failures and sins, and after all their calamities, it must have been a beautiful thing for them to hear.”

“Yes,” said the teacher. “Even though He should have been finished with them, He was not finished. His love was greater.”

“Is there a reason,” I asked, “that you’re telling me this as we watch the woman weave?”

“There is,” he said. “You wouldn’t see it in the translation, but in the original language, it is a Hebrew word that appears in one form or another no less than three times in that promise. The word is makhashabah. It’s translated as “plan.” But it means much more than a plan. Makhashabah speaks of the careful, skillful, intricate weaving of a fabric. Thus, it could be translated as, ‘I know the meticulously woven purposes that I am skillfully, carefully, and intricately weaving together for your future.’ You see, Yahuah Alahim (God) is the Master Weaver, not only of the cosmos (sun, moon, and stars), but of the lives of His children. And the plans He has for your life are not only good and beautiful, but intricately woven plans, already worked out. And He will take every thread of your life...every joy, every mistake, every failing, every victory, every defeat, every gain, every loss, every regret, every wound, and every question, every thread. He will knit them all together carefully, skillfully, and meticulously to become a perfect tapestry of woven love, restored in His image.

The Mission: Consider how Yahuah Alahim (God) has woven the threads of your life together for good. Take confidence that with the present threads, He will do the same. Jeremiah 29:11; Ephesians 1:4; 2 Timothy 1:9.

Prayer:

Create in Me a Clean Heart (Psalm 51:10) Prayer in Song | Elul - Teshuvah

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FCuhvGBWS6o>

Wash me!
Whiter than snow.
Pour Your oil, calm my soul.
Now is the time for restoration,
With repentance with transformation.
Father, prepare me for the times to come,
Counting the days till the Bridegroom returns.
Prepare me for your mo'edim.
Prepare me for your, my Elohim.

Create in me a clean heart, Oh Yah!
I return to You ~ Teshuvah.
Fill me with your Ruach,
Open my heart to see,
And renew a right spirit within me.

With the sound of your shofar,
Awaken my soul, wash me clean,

Whiter than snow.
You, my King are in the field,
I draw near while you're close.
Your mercy and lovingkindness
Are forever my hope.
Father prepare me
For the times to come.
Counting the days till the Bridegroom returns.
Prepare me for your mo'edim,
Prepare me for you, my Elohim.

Create in me a clean heart Oh Yah.
I return to you ~ Teshuvah.
Fill me with your Ruach,
Open my heart to see,
And renew a right spirit within me.
Renew a right spirit within me
