

Shabbat Shalom, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New/Renewed Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days according to the full moon as the start of His lunar months!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FUb6QjzvRXU>

Today is the 29th day of our Creator's Fifth Lunar Month count, in which the year begins in the spring. It is also the authentic fourth lunar Sabbath of the month. It looks like 05-29-5994. It coincides with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary date of Sat., 09-06-2025.

Note that the following day is our full New Moon Day, the first day of the Sixth Lunar Month.

Our Creator placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and the start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to Yahuah Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths and annual Feast Days, is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only Yahuah's Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts "eyes to see and ears to hear." Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you, and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

"Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, Yahuah. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness."
Psalms 89:15-16

THE SECRET OF THE BLESSED LIFE

By Jonathan Cahn

"What is a blessed life?" asked the teacher. "And how do you live it?"

"A blessed life is a life that's been endowed with Yahuah Alahim's favor and blessing."

"But if Yah blesses, why are some blessed and others are not? Why do some of His children live lives that are especially blessed, and others do not?"

The teacher led me to the well in the middle of the open square, where the students would often gather together. On the well's circular stone ridge, he placed two cups, one upside-down and the other right side up. He then lifted up a bucket of water drawn from the well and held it over the two cups. "The blessing," he said. He then poured the water over the two cups. Then he lifted the upside-down cup and turned it right side up. It was, of course, empty.

“The blessing was poured out on both cups,” he said, “but only one is filled with the blessing. The other is empty. Both were blessed...and yet only one is blessed. You see, there are two parts to being blessed and living a blessed life.” We began walking away from the well as he continued talking.

“Isaac was preparing to give a blessing to his firstborn son, Esau. But it was his other son, Jacob, who ended up receiving the blessing. He received the blessing because, more than his brother, he set his heart on receiving it.”

“But Jacob went about it the wrong way,” I said.

“He did,” said the teacher. “But his desire to receive the blessing, and his willingness to go to any length to receive it, was not wrong. You see, it is not just the giving of the blessing that was crucial, but the receiving. And so, there are two parts to a blessed life. Most people focus only on themselves, wanting the blessings to be given to them. But they miss the other part. You see, the blessing has already been given. It’s here. It’s pouring out from the wells of salvation, the wells of Messiah’s redemption. But who is the one who is blessed? The one who receives the blessing. And who is the one whose life is especially blessed? The one who especially receives the blessing, the one who values it so much that they go to any length to receive it. So if you want to live an especially blessed life, then make it your aim to become especially excellent at receiving the blessings of Yahuah your Alahim, and doing whatever you have to do to receive them. For a blessed life is not simply the life that has been blessed...but the life that has received it.

The Mission: The blessings of Yahuah and Yahusha are pouring down. Open your heart and life to receive them. Focus on receiving that which is already given. Genesis 27:15-29; Ephesians 1:3-12, 18-20.

Kerrie’s Korner:

I would like to thank those of you who reached out to me this past week regarding a website hack. When it first occurred, I had my computer guy working on some other things and had him look at it. He deduced that it was a WordPress problem. I have contacted SiteLock, my HostGator Security platform, which I pay for yearly. They informed me that this same problem is occurring on all hosting servers, not just my website or HostGator. They said they will clean up my website in 24-48 hours, but they believe the problem is with older WordPress plugins. They recommend that websites update to newer versions.

Again, thank you for your ongoing concern. I desire to restore the website as soon as possible.

It appears that it won't be worked on for two days yet. So, I recommend not using the website until it is repaired.

Some have asked for a progress report about my husband following his stroke in June. These are difficult things to talk about for me. He is up and around and can do many helpful things. He struggles with short-term memory and needs assistance with many things. He is doing quite well, but has two or three panic attacks a week. He tried to go back to work in August, but could not solve problems that had once been easy. I thought he could last a week, but it only took a day. It has been a very emotional road for him. We take one day at a time and pray through each. The Father has given him courage. He has needed a lot of attention from me to feel okay, which has impacted my time.

As a result of all of this, we are looking at all of our options regarding moving and downsizing from our home in the country. It is all occurring at once, which is the tricky part. I believe the worst of it is behind us now, as I feel I am finally coming up for air.

Prayer:

O Abba Yahuah, Giver of every good and perfect gift.

I thank You that Your blessings are already flowing from the wells of salvation through Yahusha, my Redeemer.

Teach me to turn my heart upright before You, like the open cup, ready to receive all that You have already poured out.

Forgive me for the times I have stood like the upside-down vessel, missing what was freely given because of doubt, pride, or distraction.

Give me the desire of Jacob, who longed above all else to inherit Your favor, and refine that longing to be pure, humble, and steadfast.

Open my eyes to recognize the blessings already surrounding me,
and grant me faith to walk in them
with gratitude and obedience.

May my life, O Father, be not only one that is blessed by Your hand, but one that receives, treasures, and overflows with Your blessing to others.

Barak hashem Yahusha haMashiach!
(Bless the name of Yahusha the Messiah!)
