

Shabbat Shalom, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New/Renewed Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days according to the full moon as the start of His lunar months!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FUb6QjzvRXU>

Today is the 15th day of our Creator's Sixth Lunar Month count, in which the year begins in the spring. It is also the authentic second lunar Sabbath of the month. It looks like 06-15-5994. It coincides with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary date of Mon, 09-22-2025.

Our Creator placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and the start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to Yahuah Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths and annual Feast Days, is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only Yahuah's Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts “eyes to see and ears to hear.” Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you, and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

“Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, Yahuah. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness.”
Psalms 89:15-16

THE SCAPEGOAT AND THE LAND OF GEZARAH

By Jonathan Cahn

We were sitting on the ridge of a mountain we had often visited and gazing out into the far distance. The teacher was holding a parchment.

“This is the command concerning the scapegoat, how it was to be led out into the wilderness.”

He began reading it.

“He shall send away the goat by the hand of a man who stands in readiness into the wilderness. And the goat will bear upon himself all the iniquities to a land not inhabited...”

“So where did the goat go?” asked the teacher.

“To a ‘land not inhabited.’ It’s this,” he said, as he pointed to one of the words on the parchment. “It’s the word gezarah. The scapegoat had to led to the land of gezarah.”

“What’s the land of gezarah?”

“Gezarah comes from the root word gazar. Gazar means cut off, excluded, or destroyed. So the land of gezarah means a place that is cut off, excluded, uninhabited, a place where no one can dwell.”

“No one except the scapegoat.”

“Yes,” he replied. “And when Isaiah prophesied of the Messiah’s death, he used the same word. He said, ‘He was cut off out of the land of the living for the transgression of My people to whom the stroke was due.’ The words cut off are a translation of gazar, as in the land of gezarah.”

“So then, in some way, the Messiah goes to a land cut off, excluded, destroyed, uninhabited, and where no one can dwell.”

“As the scapegoat carries the sins of the people to the land of gezarah.”

“So then, Messiah carries our sins to the land of gezarah.”

“And what does that mean,” asked the teacher, “that He carried your sins to the land of gezarah?”

“It means...my [CONFESSED] sins are cut off. And no one can go to where they are.”

“Yes,” said the teacher, “they are where no one can dwell. No one can visit them...not even you. So, you can never go there to visit them or to dwell with them. They’re gone, taken away, excluded, and cut off...forever...in the land of gezarah.”

The Mission: Say goodbye to your sins, to your guilt, to your past, and to all that has been removed. Let it go and cut it off forever in the land of gezarah.

Leviticus 16:21-22; Psalms 103:12; Isaiah 44:22 and 53:8.

Disclaimer: “The Book of Mysteries” by Jonathan Cahn presents a series of lessons he attributes to “The Teacher” in the land of Yasharal (Israel). While we do not affirm all of Cahn’s interpretations or theological positions, we welcome the insights that harmonize with Scripture.

Kerrie's Korner:

The Day of Atonement

Lev 16:1 And Yahuah spake unto Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they offered before Yahuah, and died;

Lev 16:2 And Yahuah said unto Moses, Speak unto Aaron thy brother, that he come not at all times into the holy place within the vail before the mercy seat, which is upon the ark; that he die not: for I will appear in the cloud upon the mercy seat.

Lev 16:3 Thus shall Aaron come into the holy place: with a young bullock for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering.

Lev 16:4 He shall put on the holy linen coat, and he shall have the linen breeches upon his flesh, and shall be girded with a linen girdle, and with the linen mitre [shaped like a full moon] shall he be attired: these are holy garments; therefore shall he wash his flesh in water, and so put them on.

Lev 16:5 And he shall take of the congregation of the children of Israel two kids of the goats for a sin offering, and one ram for a burnt offering.

Lev 16:6 And Aaron shall offer his bullock of the sin offering, which is for himself, and make an atonement for himself, and for his house.

Lev 16:7 And he shall take the two goats, and present them before Yahuah at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

Lev 16:8 And Aaron shall cast lots upon the two goats; one lot for Yahuah, and the other lot for the scapegoat.

Lev 16:9 And Aaron shall bring the goat upon which Yahuah's lot fell, and offer him for a sin offering.

Lev 16:10 But the goat, on which the lot fell to be the scapegoat, shall be presented alive before Yahuah, to make an atonement with him, and to let him go for a scapegoat into the wilderness.

Lev 16:11 And Aaron shall bring the bullock of the sin offering, which is for himself, and shall make an atonement for himself, and for his house, and shall kill the bullock of the sin offering which is for himself:

Lev 16:12 And he shall take a censer full of burning coals of fire from off the altar before Yahuah, and his hands full of sweet incense beaten small, and bring it within the vail:

Lev 16:13 And he shall put the incense upon the fire before Yahuah, that the cloud of the incense may cover the mercy seat that is upon the testimony, that he die not:

Lev 16:14 And he shall take of the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it with his finger upon the mercy seat eastward; and before the mercy seat shall he sprinkle of the blood with his finger seven times.

Lev 16:15 Then shall he kill the goat of the sin offering, that is for the people, and bring his blood within the vail, and do with that blood as he did with the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it upon the mercy seat, and before the mercy seat:

Lev 16:16 And he shall make an atonement for the holy place, because of the uncleanness of the children of Israel, and because of their transgressions in all their sins: and so shall he do for the tabernacle of the congregation, that remains among them in the midst of their uncleanness.

Lev 16:17 And there shall be no man in the tabernacle of the congregation when he goes in to make an atonement in the holy place, until he come out, and have made an atonement for himself, and for his household, and for all the congregation of Israel.

Lev 16:18 And he shall go out unto the altar that is before Yahuah, and make an atonement for it; and shall take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the goat, and put it upon the horns of the altar round about.

Lev 16:19 And he shall sprinkle of the blood upon it with his finger seven times, and cleanse it, and hallow it from the uncleanness of the children of Israel.

Lev 16:20 And when he hath made an end of reconciling the holy place, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and the altar, he shall bring the live goat:

Lev 16:21 And Aaron shall lay both his hands upon the head of the live goat, and confess over him all the iniquities of the children of Israel, and all their transgressions in all their sins, putting them upon the head of the goat, and shall send him away by the hand of a fit man into the wilderness:

Lev 16:22 And the goat shall bear upon himself [H#853 - אָלֶפֶת - Aleph & Tav] all their iniquities unto a land not inhabited: and he shall let go the goat in the wilderness.

Here, I would like to pause and consider the meaning of the two goats in the Levitical atonement service. The first goat, slain as the sacrifice, unmistakably points to Yahusha haMashiach, our Redeemer, who gave His life as the atonement for sin. Yet much confusion has surrounded the identity of the second goat, the so-called scapegoat. For generations, many churches—including the one I was affiliated with for fifty years—have taught that this goat represents Satan, upon whom the sins of the people were ultimately placed before being led away into a desolate wilderness.

But I would suggest a different view, one more consistent with the central role of the Messiah. The second goat is not Satan at all because he has no part in bearing our sins. Instead, it appears to represent another dimension of Yahusha's redemptive work. First, He offered Himself as the substitutionary sacrifice for sin. Then, as the living scapegoat, He carried away every confessed transgression, removing them to a place uninhabited—a place of final obscurity and death. Just as the scapegoat was led into the wilderness to perish apart from the camp, so our confessed sins were taken with Him, never to return.

In this way, the two goats serve as a metaphor for the twofold reality of Messiah's triumph: His death as the sacrificial offering, and His bearing away of confessed sins into ultimate destruction as He died the Second Death in our place, all alone. The priest could not sacrifice the second goat because it would ruin the metaphor of the Messiah's single sacrifice. Also, as highlighted in yellow above, the [Aleph & Tav] Hebrew words are written next to the part about "the goat shall bear upon himself

[H#853 - אח - Aleph & Tav] all their iniquities.” This is a direct reference to the Messiah. Four times in Revelation, Yahusha the Messiah refers to Himself as the Alpha and Omega, which, translated into Hebrew, means Aleph and Tav. In other words, it could say: “And the goat shall bear upon himself [which is Yahusha the Messiah] all their iniquities unto a land not inhabited...” ***

Song: Create in Me a Clean Heart (Psalm 51:10) Prayer Song ~ miYAH

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FCuhvGBWS6o>

Prayer:

Heavenly Father, Yahuah, in the name of your Son, Yahusha, we thank You for revealing the mystery of the two goats and the land of Gezarah.

We praise You for sending Yahusha, our Messiah, who not only died as the sacrificial offering but also carried our sins away into the uninhabited place.

Thank You that in Him our transgressions are not merely covered but cut off, excluded, and destroyed forever.

We rejoice that our guilt and shame cannot be revisited,
for they have been taken to a land where no one can dwell.

Grant us faith to release every confessed sin into His keeping,
never to return to them again.

May we live in the freedom of Your forgiveness, knowing the scapegoat has borne them away beyond our reach.

Teach us daily to say goodbye to the past and walk in the victory of Messiah's atonement.

We give You glory, O Father, for the wonder of redemption accomplished in the land of Gezarah.

Barak hashem Yahusha haMashiach!
(Bless the name of Yahusha the Messiah!)
