

Shabbat Shalom, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New/Renewed Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days according to the full moon as the start of His lunar months!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FUb6QjzvRXU>

Today is the 29th day of our Creator's Sixth Lunar Month count, in which the year begins in the spring. It is also the authentic fourth lunar Sabbath of the month. It looks like 06-29-5994. It coincides with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary date of Mon., 10-06-2025.

Our Creator placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and the start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to Yahuah Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths and annual Feast Days, is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only Yahuah's Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts "eyes to see and ears to hear." Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you, and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

“Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, Yahuah. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness.”

Psalms 89:15-16

THE WINGS OF MESSIAH

By Jonathan Cahn

He led me into the Chamber of Garments. There he found a prayer shawl, white with blue stripes, and draped it over his head.

“Do you know what this is?” he asked.

“A prayer shawl,” I replied.

“It’s called a tallit. The most important part of the tallit is its corners and the fringes of its corners. Look,” he said as he pointed to the cloth. “In the Torah Law of Sinai, it was commanded that the children of Yasharal (Israel) were to wear fringes on the corners of their garments. The corner itself is called the kanaf. And the fringes on the corners are called the tzitzit. In the New Covenant accounts, there are no physical descriptions of the Messiah. We don’t know what He looked like. But we do know what He wore. He wore on His garments the kanaph and the tzitzit. In one of the most famous of the Gospel [Besorah = good news] accounts, a woman touches the hem of the Messiah’s garment and is instantly healed of her infirmity. This was not a one-time miracle. In fact, it’s recorded that everyone who touched the hem of His garment was healed. But they didn’t just touch the hem of His garment. The word in Greek for what they touched is kraspedon. This word is a translation of the two Hebrew words kanaf and tzitzit.”

“So they weren’t just touching the hem of His garment; they were touching the sacred corner and fringe of His garments as ordained in the Torah Law.”

“Exactly! And at the very end of the Hebrew Scriptures is an amazing verse. It is written, ‘The sun of righteousness shall arise with healing in His wings.’ But in Hebrew, it doesn’t say wings. It says, ‘The sun of righteousness shall arise with healing in His kanaf,’ the very word that also means the corner and fringe of His garment. So they touched the kanaf, the corner, the fringe, of the Son of Righteousness, Messiah, and they found ‘healing in His wings.’ Therefore, never be afraid to reach out and touch Him yourself. If our Messiah puts fringes on His garment, it means He is touchable. He is not afraid to be touched. So touch Him with your infirmities, your wounds, your uncleanness, your sins, with the darkest part of your life, and you will be changed. For the Son of Righteousness will arise as the sun, with healing in His wings, with healing in His kanaf.”

The Mission: Touch Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah) today with the darkest, most painful, most ungodly part of your life that you might find healing in His wings. Numbers 15:38-40; Malachi 4:2; Matthew 9:20-22; Matthew 14:35-36.

Disclaimer: “The Book of Mysteries” by Jonathan Cahn presents a series of lessons he attributes to “The Teacher” in the land of Yasharal (Israel). While we do not affirm all of Cahn’s interpretations or theological positions, we welcome the insights that harmonize with Scripture.

Kerrie’s Korner

It is from Malachi 4:2 where we discover that the long promised righteous Messiah was to arise as the sun, the LIGHT OF THE WORLD, with healing for all people, not just in His day, but past, present, and future, and for all time to come. This means His kanaf remains available for you and me to touch and be healed, and restored into His image.

Then in Matthew 9:20-22 is the story familiar to all, of the infirmed woman who worked her way through the crowd and secretly touched the kanaf (corner) of Yahusha haMashiach’s garment and was made whole. And in Matthew 14:34, the entire Gennesaret region of sick and infirmed were brought to Him and sought only to touch the kanaf (corner) of His garment, and were healed.

“When they had crossed over, they came to the land of Gennesaret. And when the men of that place recognized Him, they sent out into all that surrounding region, brought to Him all who were sick, and begged Him that they might only touch the hem of His garment. And as many as touched it were made perfectly well.” Matthew 14:34-36

Only the long promised Yahusha haMashiach is the authentic Messiah, and Son of Yahuah Alahim. He alone can be called the sun of righteousness. He alone has healing in His kanaf (wings) because He was sent from on high for this purpose and more. He heals the sick, feeds the poor and hungry, raises the dead, but most of all grants pardon and forgiveness of sins that He may restore you and me back to His Father to abide with them for all Eternity.

And this He can only accomplish because in His compassion He was and is TOUCHED BY OUR INFIRMITIES. But not only was He touched by them, He who had no sin, took ALL of these upon Himself and died to abolish them forever, and then rose again fresh and clean, without sin. He returned to His Father, where He continues as our High Priest in the work of our advocate before His Father, forgiving those who humbly seek Him, that we too by faith may be made white in the FULL LIGHT OF HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS.

“For we have not a high priest [Yahusha haMashiach], who cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. Hebrews 4:15

Soon Yahusha haMashiach is COMING AGAIN to put an end to sickness, death, and sin for all time.

The promise is that the forgiven, who honor the Torah Law and seek Him daily as their only hope unto salvation, and reach out to touch the hem of His garments, the kanaf and tzitzit, will be saved. HalleluYAH!!!

The Seventh Lunar Month begins tomorrow, 07-01-5994 (10-07-2025) at sunrise. How do we know? Because the lesser light (Full Moon, New Moon, or Renewed Moon) (Genesis 1:16; Psalms 136:709; Jeremiah 31:35-36; Revelation 12:1) rules with the stars tonight along the east-west time continuum. Refer to the article: The East-West Time Continuum.

NEW MOON DAY (ROSH CHODESH)

Announced by the Full Moon

The most conclusive sign that the New Moon Day, announced by the full moon, has truly occurred, and that the new lunar month (Rosh Chodesh) has begun, occurs on the first morning when the full moon visibly greets the rising sun from opposite horizons. Because the Scriptural day starts at sunrise (Gen. 1:14-16; Lam. 3:23; Ps. 113:3; Gen. 8:22; Mal. 1:11; Ps. 110:3; Ps. 50:1-2; John 11:9), the visible full moon crossing the night sky belongs to the last day/night cycle of the previous month. This is evidence that the new day, month, and year all begin at sunrise. Thus, the Creator's own design affirms that the true sign of a new month is not hidden in the night, but revealed at sunrise, when the full moon nods to the rising sun from opposite horizons.

This method relies on the consistent east-west orientation of the trinity of lights, sun, moon, and stars, ordained by the Creator as the natural boundaries of time. For this sign to be valid:

1. The brilliant full moon must arise on the eastern horizon at sunset with the stars and make their way together until moonset in the west at sunrise, visibly opposite the rising sun.
2. This alignment confirms that the line of opposition, the invisible syzygy extending from the sun, through the earth, to the full moon, has been crossed. A lunar eclipse is a visible confirmation of this.
3. The moon's full brilliance (G#4582 selēnē), ruling with the stars all night, testifies to its appointed role (Genesis 1:14-16; Psalm 72:5-9; Jeremiah 31:35-36; Revelation 12:1).
4. Only this first morning, when the full moon sets as the sun rises, marks the start of the new month. The following morning is too late, as the moon is too high.

This visual confirmation, sun and moon on opposite horizons at sunrise, serves as a divine witness from both lights that a new lunar month has begun. For this reason, we honor this full moon sign as the most reliable testimony of the Creator's original time measuring, synchronizing heaven's worship rhythm with the biblical record (Is. 28:16-19).

On the first day of this Seventh Lunar Month, we celebrate Yom Teruah, the Feast of Trumpets.

This marks the day of our Messiah's Return for His faithful on this same date, the first day of the Seventh Month in the near future. Those who seek a relationship with their Messiah and His promise of an eternal home will not neglect celebrating each Feast Day. These signify in their order the preordained Plan of Salvation.

Song: Yahuah Will Provide (Genesis 22:14) Messianic Worship Song

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=InnKEwnOZh8>

Prayer:

Abba Yahuah, we come before You in awe of the Son of Righteousness, Yahusha our Messiah, who still stretches out His tallit, His healing wings, for all who will reach out in faith.

We thank You that just as the woman touched the fringe (tzitzit) of His garment and was made whole, so too we may bring our wounds, sins, and hidden pain to Him without fear.

Cover us, Father, in Your mercy, and teach us to find our refuge under the sacred tallit of Messiah's compassion.

Let every touch of faith draw down healing, forgiveness, and restoration, so that we may rise in the fullness of His righteousness.

And may our lives, cleansed and renewed, become living testimonies that there is still healing in His wings today.

Barak hashem Yahusha haMashiach!
(Bless the name of Yahusha the Messiah!)

"Thus declares the Almighty Yahuah, "the gate of the courtyard interior facing the east shall be shut six days for work, and in the day of the Sabbath it shall be thrown open, and in the day of the New Moon it shall be thrown open wide. But come unto the exalted one, upon the perch of the temple gate without, and stand before the threshold of the gate and observe the Kohenim's symbolic firstborn offering and symbolic Apeh and Tav peace offering. The Kohenim shall prostrate themselves in the threshold of the open gate, and shall enter and come out, but the gate shall not be shut until sunset. And so shall I strip the people of the land at the entrance way of the same gate, in the Sabbaths and in the New Moon Days, before the face of Yahuah." Ezeziel 46:1-3
