

Happy New Moon Day to all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set apart) Lunar New Moons and Sabbaths!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FUb6QjzvRXU>

Today is Day One of the Creator's authentic Seventh Lunar Month, in which the year begins in the spring. But it is also the Feast of Trumpets, according to Leviticus 23:23-25. It looks like 07-01-5994. It coincides with the Roman Gregorian solar calendar Tues, 10-07-2025.

Each month, it is awe-inspiring to watch the full moon rise in the East and make its way along the east-west time continuum under the Creator's tireless direction. Then, see with your own eyes that moment when the sun's first rays shine forth to greet the descending full moon before it sets in the west. They greet each other with a nod and agreement that this moment, while visible from opposite coordinates together, marks the start of the new lunar month. Honoring His New Moons, as declared from His sacred Torah Law, shows Him who desires to enter through the pearly gates of His Eternal Kingdom government. I hope to see you there! HalleluYah!

“Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, YAHUAH. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness.” Psalms 89:15-16

THE FEAST OF TRUMPETS

By Jonathan Cahn

We stood on the ridge of a high mountain. The teacher had in one hand a tallit, the Hebrew prayer shawl, and in the other a shofar, the ram's horn. It was the Feast of Trumpets [the first day of the Seventh lunar month].

“Later on,” he said, “we’ll observe it with the rest. But I wanted to share of it now with you. It is written: ‘You shall have ...a reminder by the sounding of trumpets, a holy convocation ...’ the Feast of Trumpets.”

“I have a question about that,” I said. “Why is it that the holy days [Feast Days] of Israel appear, in one form or another, in the New Testament ... except for one, the Feast of Trumpets? Why is the Feast of Trumpets missing?”

“It’s not,” he said. “You just didn’t see it. When in the sacred Hebrew year does the Feast of Trumpets take place, at the beginning or the end? At the end. So, then its mystery doesn’t focus on the beginning of the age, but the end. The Feast of Trumpets announces the closing of the sacred cycle. So too it will announce the closing of the age. And what is it that you find in Scripture when you look at the prophecies concerning the end of the age? Trumpets. The trumpets of Israel announce the coming of kings and kingdoms, the approaching of armies. So it is prophesied that when the trumpet sounds, the kingdom of Yahuah Alahim (God) will come.

The trumpets called the people of Israel to gather before Alahim (God). So it is prophesied that at the sound of the trumpet, His people will be gathered up to His presence. The sound of the trumpet was a wake-up call. So, it is foretold that it was the sound of the trumpet that announced the beginning of a king's reign. So, it is foretold that when the trumpet sounds, the reign of the King will begin, and the kingdom of this world will become the kingdom of Yahuah Alahim. The Feast of Trumpets and the holy days [Feast Days] of autumn are just as much a part of the new covenant as are the holy days of spring. They tell us that our faith is not only in what was, but in what is yet to come...THE RETURN OF OUR MESSIAH. We live from salvation and yet to redemption, and we are, above all, a people of hope.”

At that, he covered his head with the tallit, lifted the shofar to his mouth, and blew. The sound echoed throughout the wilderness. He then turned to me.

“So, live confident and in hope of what is yet to come ... and ready for that day .... The Day of Trumpets.”

The Mission: Live this day in confidence and hope of the Messiah's RETURN as KING OF KINGS. Leviticus 23:24; Matthew 24:31; 1 Corinthians 15:52; 1 Thessalonians 4:16.

Disclaimer: “The Book of Mysteries” by Jonathan Cahn presents a series of lessons he attributes to “The Teacher” in the land of Yasharal (Israel). While we do not affirm all of Cahn's interpretations or theological positions, we welcome the insights that harmonize with Scripture.

Kerrie's Korner

Yes, the Feast of Trumpets is profoundly rich with prophetic significance. It is not merely a memorial of past events, but a rehearsal of what is soon to come, the sound that awakens the sleeping, gathers the faithful, and announces the arrival of the true King. The shofar is more than a trumpet blast; it is a divine summons, echoing from Sinai to the clouds where our Messiah will appear in all His glory at His Second Coming. HalleluYAH!!!

Yes, we are a people who live between the already and the not yet, anchored in the hope of the Messiah's return. How beautiful and sobering that we are called to be ready, to keep our lamps trimmed, our hearts watchful, and our ears attuned to the call of the shofar. Indeed, may we live each day in joyful expectation of the great Day of Trumpets.

Prayer:

O Yahuah, Eternal Father of Light, we stand in awe at the sound of the shofar, which calls our hearts to awaken and our eyes to look toward the eastern sky in hopeful anticipation.

As Your sacred calendar turns to the first day of the Seventh Month, we remember the promise of redemption and the return of our Messiah, the King of Kings.

Let our souls be stirred with reverent joy, for we are not left in darkness but called into Your marvelous light.

Prepare us to be gathered to You, sealed in faith,
walking in purity, and steadfast in trust
until the final trumpet shall sound.

May we live each day in readiness, clothed in righteousness, and burning with the hope of Your soon-coming reign.

Barak hashem Yahusha haMashiach!
(Bless the name of Yahusha the Messiah!)
