

Shabbat Shalom, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New/Renewed Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days according to the full moon as the start of His lunar months!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FUb6QjzvRXU>

Today is the eighth day of our Creator's Seventh Lunar Month count, in which the year begins in the spring. It is also the authentic first lunar Sabbath of the month. It looks like 07-08-5994. It coincides with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary date of Tues, 10-14-2025.

Our Creator placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and the start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to Yahuah Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths and annual Feast Days, is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only Yahuah's Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts "eyes to see and ears to hear." Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you, and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His throne for all eternity.

“Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, Yahuah. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness.”

Psalms 89:15-16

Kerrie's Korner:

As we draw near to the Feast of Tabernacles, beginning in just one week, may our hearts be mindful of its profound symbolism. This sacred festival reminds us that we are but sojourners, dwelling in temporary shelters as our forefathers did, while we await the ultimate fulfillment of the promise, the earth renewed and restored as our eternal home. It is a time to rejoice in the sustaining presence of our Creator, who shelters His people beneath the shadow of His wings until all things are made new.

Yet, as we prepare for this appointed time, we are reminded of a deeper call to prayer, a dimension that is not often recognized. Prayer is not merely petition or praise; it is abiding fellowship, the conversation between the indwelling Ruach haKodesh and the heart that has made itself a living sukkah. Just as ancient Israel dwelt in temporary tents surrounded by the Presence of Yahuah's glory in the wilderness, so prayer becomes the vehicle to meet with Yahuah Alahim in His Tabernacle in Heaven. Each sincere prayer lifted heavenward enters the Holy of Holies, through the blood of the Lamb.

Thus, it is that prayer is not confined to words spoken but lived out through awareness of His nearness. Every act of thanksgiving, every moment of quiet reflection, and every breath of dependence becomes an expression of worship within the temporary dwelling of our mortal frame. Through prayer, the soul learns to dwell continually in His Presence, anticipating the day when we will tabernacle with Him forever in the world made new.

THE MISHKAN

(Dwelling in Yahuah's Tabernacle)

By Jonathan Cahn

We were looking into the distance at a solitary brown tent. It sat in the middle of an open expanse in the foreground of a range of desert mountains. I thought he would say something about the tent, but instead he spoke of prayer.

“How would you define prayer?”

“Prayer is a talk to Yahuah Alahim (God),” I said, “to bring to Him your needs and requests.”

“That’s a part of prayer,” he said. “But it’s more than that. The Tabernacle was Israel’s central place of prayer. But it was never called the Tabernacle.”

“What then was it called?”

“The mishkan.”

“What’s a mishkan?”

“It comes from the Hebrew root word shakan. Shakan means to dwell. So mishkan means the dwelling. The mishkan was the tent or tabernacle that would allow Yahuah Alahim to dwell in the midst of His people. It was also the central place of prayer. So prayer is linked to...”

“The dwelling of Yahuah Alahim.”

“But the mishkan wasn’t only the dwelling place of Yahuah Alahim. It was also called the Tent of Meeting. It’s where Yahuah Alahim and man met together. You see, prayer is not just an action; it’s a meeting, an encounter. The mishkan was not only where Alahim dwelt, but man. Prayer is not primarily about saying words or performing an act. Prayer is a mishkan. Prayer is about dwelling. It’s the dwelling of Yahuah Alahim and man together. So the deepest part of prayer is that of dwelling in the dwelling of Yahuah Alahim...being present in the presence of the Most High. And to dwell is more than just saying the words of a prayer or singing the words of a song and then being finished with it. Prayer is to dwell in the presence of Alahim (God). And the word mishkan also means the remaining, the continuing, the abiding, and the inhabiting. What then is the heart of prayer?”

“It is to abide in His abiding.”

“To rest in His resting.”

“To remain in His remaining.”

“To dwell in His dwelling.”

“And to inhabit His habitation.

“To know what prayer truly is, you must go deeper...you must enter the mishkan.”

The Mission: Today, seek to practice the secret of shakan, to dwell in His dwelling, to remain in His remaining, and to abide in His habitation, His tabernacle in heaven.
Exodus 33:9-10; Psalms 16:11; 61:4

Disclaimer: “The Book of Mysteries” by Jonathan Cahn presents a series of lessons he attributes to “The Teacher” in the land of Yasharal (Israel). While we do not affirm all of Cahn’s interpretations or theological positions, we welcome the insights that harmonize with Scripture.

Prayer:

O loving Father Yahuah, as we draw near to the Feast of Tabernacles, teach our hearts to find their home in You, to dwell
in Your Mishkan, the secret place of Your Presence.

May every prayer we lift become more than words,
but a meeting between heaven and earth,
where Your Ruach haKodesh
communes with our spirit.

Cause us to abide in Your abiding, to rest in Your resting, and to dwell continually beneath the shadow of Your wings.

Let our lives become living sukkot, humble tabernacles that house
Your light and reflect Your glory

in this world.

And when our earthly tents are folded away, may we awaken to dwell forever in the eternal Tabernacle You have prepared for Your redeemed.

Barak hashem Yahusha haMashiach!
(Bless the name of Yahusha the Messiah!)

“Wireless communication is nothing new.
I’ve been praying for 75 years!”

Every day, when you pray, you have a private meeting
with the Creator of the Universe.

What a privilege!

*YAH, help me to focus on TRUTH
instead of the trials.*

*Help me to GIVE THANKS
instead of giving into fear.*

*Help me to choose JOY
instead of anger.*

Help me to TRUST in your power instead of my plan.

Help me to elevate YOUR SACRED NAME of YAHUAH and YAHUSHA HAMASHIACH instead of my own.
