

Shabbat Shalom, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New/Renewed Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days according to the full moon as the start of His lunar months!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FUb6QjzvRXU>

Today is the 15th day of our Creator's Seventh Lunar Month count, in which the year begins in the spring. It is also the authentic second lunar Sabbath of the month. It looks like 07-15-5994. It coincides with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary date of Tues, Oct. 21, 2025.

Our Creator placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and the start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to Yahuah Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths and annual Feast Days, is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only Yahuah's Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts "eyes to see and ears to hear." Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you, and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

“Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, Yahuah. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness.”
 Psalms 89:15-16

THE WELLS OF YAHUSHA (Salvation)

By Jonathan Cahn

He led me to the school's well. It was built of angular stones, each of a light beige color that matched the desert landscape that surrounded it. We sat down on its perimeter where he began the teaching. “During Sukkot, the Feast of Tabernacles, a unique ritual took place called the Water Drawing Ceremony. During the ceremony, a solemn procession led by a priest would go down to the Pool of Siloam, draw water into a golden pitcher, and then ascend the Temple Mount where he would pour out the water at the altar while a verse from Isaiah would be read: ‘And in joy, you shall draw water from the wells of salvation.’” He paused to lower an empty bucket into the well.

“The Water Drawing Ceremony,” he said, “was a central part of the feast, as water, or the lack of it was a matter of life or death in a Middle Eastern land. So on every day of the Feast of Tabernacles, the ceremony was performed.”

The teacher then pulled up the bucket, which was now filled with water.

“Messiah spoke of water,” he said. “One of the most famous statements He ever made began with the words, ‘If anyone is thirsty . . .’”

“I’ve heard it.”

“Most believers have. But most have little understanding of its context.”

“And what is its context?”

“The Feast of Tabernacles,” he replied, “and its focus on water, with its drawing water during which these words from Isaiah would be proclaimed: ‘And in joy you shall draw water from the wells of salvation.’ But in Hebrew, it’s not the wells of salvation. It’s the wells of Yahusha.”

“Which is like saying the name of Yahusha,” I said, “which is the [real] name of Jesus. So it’s like saying ‘you will draw water from the wells of Yahusha.’” “Exactly. And it is recorded that He stood up during the Feast of Tabernacles and cried out, ‘If anyone is thirsty, let him come to Me and drink. He who believes in Me, as the Scripture has said, out of his innermost being shall flow rivers of living water.’”

“And we shall draw water,” I said, “from the wells of Yahusha.”

“And He was speaking the Spirit [Ruach]. So as much as they needed water to stay alive, we need the waters of the Spirit [Ruach haKodesh] to stay alive in God [Alahim]. Therefore, you must draw of it every day of your life . . . and in joy . . . from the wells of Yahusha.”

The Mission: Today, come to the wells of Yahusha, and in joy, draw forth and partake of the rivers of the living waters of the Spirit of God [Ruach of Alahim].

Disclaimer: “The Book of Mysteries” by Jonathan Cahn presents a series of lessons he attributes to “The Teacher” in the land of Yasharal (Israel). While we do not affirm all of Cahn’s interpretations or theological positions, we welcome the insights that harmonize with Scripture.

Kerrie's Korner

As we humbly prepare our hearts, minds, and daily choices for the upcoming Feast of Sukkot (Tabernacles), may we do so in faithful obedience to all that Yahuah and Yahusha have called their people to uphold. In this sacred season of remembrance and rejoicing, let us also recognize that our Heavenly Father has equipped us with the discernment to distinguish truth from error and light from darkness. Therefore, we hold no allegiance to the traditions of men, whether from modern Judaism or Roman decree, that turn hearts away from the living truth of Scripture. Instead, we rejoice that He has granted us eyes to see and ears to hear His call to rise up, to restore, and to rebuild the ancient paths of His eternal design, for it is at the Well of Yahusha that true restoration springs forth, reviving the soul, renewing our covenant, and refreshing all who thirst for His righteousness.

Prayer:

O Yahuah, Fountain of Living Waters, we come before You in joy and reverence, seeking to draw deeply from the wells of Yahusha, our Salvation and Life.

As the priest once poured water upon the altar in the days of Sukkot (Feast of Tabernacles), so we pour out our hearts before You, thirsting for the fullness of Your Ruach haKodesh to flow within us.

Quench our spiritual drought, O Father, and let Your living waters cleanse, restore, and renew every weary soul.

May the words of Your Son echo within us, "If anyone is thirsty, let him come to Me and drink,"
until our innermost being overflows with rivers of praise and life.

In gratitude and joy, we draw daily from these eternal wells, rejoicing that in Yahusha HaMashiach all thirst is satisfied and every heart made whole.

Barak hashem Yahusha haMashiach!
(Bless the name of Yahusha the Messiah!)

THE FEAST OF TABERNACLES

Sukkot

Shemoth 29: 46

"And they shall know that I am יהוה their Alahim, who brought them up out of the land of Mitsrayim,
to dwell in their midst.
I am יהוה their Alahim."
