

Shabbat Shalom, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New/Renewed Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days according to the full moon as the start of His lunar months!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FUb6QjzvRXU>

Today is the 8th day of our Creator's Lunar Month count, in which the year begins in the spring. It is also the authentic first lunar Sabbath of the month. It looks like 08-08-5994. It coincides with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary date of Wed, 11-12-2025.

Our Creator placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and the start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to Yahuah Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths and annual Feast Days, is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only Yahuah's Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts “eyes to see and ears to hear.” Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you, and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

“Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, Yahuah. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness.”
 Psalms 89:15-16

Giants in the Land

“But Alahim (God) chose what is foolish in the world to shame the wise; Alahim chose what is weak in the world to shame the strong; Alahim chose what is low and despised in the world, even things that are not, to bring to nothing things that are, so that no human being might boast in the presence of Alahim.” 1 Corinthians 1:27–29

The Test of Faith and Measure of Trust

Throughout Scripture, the presence of giants serves as more than a record of great stature or physical strength; it symbolizes the overwhelming challenges that confront the people of Yahuah in every generation. From the sons of Anak who terrified Israel’s spies (Numbers 13:33) to Goliath of Gath, who defied the armies of the living Alahim, these towering figures represent the intimidation of unbelief, pride, and rebellion that dares to stand against divine authority. They loom large not only in the ancient land but also in the spiritual landscape of our own lives, giants of fear, compromise, and deception that test who we truly trust.

In the story of David and Goliath, Yahuah reveals that no enemy, however mighty, can prevail against the heart that is fully surrendered to Him. The battle in the Valley of Elah was not simply between a shepherd and a soldier but between faith and presumption, light and darkness, trust in divine strength and reliance on human might. This account reminds us that the greatest victories are born in the valleys where the giants roar, for it is there that Yahuah's power is made perfect in weakness. As David once proved, and as every believer must rediscover, the battle is never ours, it is Yahuah's.

1Sa 17:1 Now the Philistines gathered together their armies to battle, and were gathered together at Shochoh, which belongeth to Judah, and pitched between Shochoh and Azekah, in Ephesdammim.

1Sa 17:2 And Saul and the men of Israel were gathered together, and pitched by the valley of Elah, and set the battle in array against the Philistines.

1Sa 17:3 And the Philistines stood on a mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on a mountain on the other side: and there was a valley between them.

1Sa 17:4 And there went out a champion out of the camp of the Philistines, named Goliath, of Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span.

1Sa 17:5 And he had a helmet of brass upon his head, and he was armed with a coat of mail; and the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of brass.

1Sa 17:6 And he had greaves of brass upon his legs, and a target of brass between his shoulders.

1Sa 17:7 And the staff of his spear was like a weaver's beam; and his spear's head weighed six hundred shekels of iron: and one bearing a shield went before him.

1Sa 17:8 And he stood and cried unto the armies of Israel, and said unto them, Why are ye come out to set your battle in array? Am I not a Philistine, and ye servants to Saul? Choose a man for you, and let him come down to me.

1Sa 17:9 If he be able to fight with me, and to kill me, then will we be your servants: but if I prevail against him, and kill him, then shall ye be our servants, and serve us.

1Sa 17:10 And the Philistine said, I defy the armies of Israel this day; give me a man, that we may fight together.

1Sa 17:11 When Saul and all Israel heard those words of the Philistine, they were dismayed, and greatly afraid.

1Sa 17:12 Now David was the son of that Ephrathite of Bethlehemjudah, whose name was Jesse; and he had eight sons: and the man went among men for an old man in the days of Saul.

1Sa 17:13 And the three eldest sons of Jesse went and followed Saul to the battle: and the names of his three sons that went to the battle were Eliab the firstborn, and next unto him Abinadab, and the third Shammah.

1Sa 17:14 And David was the youngest, and the three eldest followed Saul.

1Sa 17:15 But David went and returned from Saul to feed his father's sheep at Bethlehem.

1Sa 17:16 And the Philistine drew near morning and evening, and presented himself forty days.

1Sa 17:17 And Jesse said unto David his son, Take now for thy brethren an ephah of this parched corn, and these ten loaves, and run to the camp to thy brethren;

1Sa 17:18 And carry these ten cheeses unto the captain of their thousand, and look how thy brethren fare, and take their pledge.

1Sa 17:19 Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel, were in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines.

1Sa 17:20 And David rose up early in the morning, and left the sheep with a keeper, and took, and went, as Jesse had commanded him; and he came to the trench, as the host was going forth to the fight, and shouted for the battle.

1Sa 17:21 For Israel and the Philistines had put the battle in array, army against army.

1Sa 17:22 And David left his carriage in the hand of the keeper of the carriage, and ran into the army, and came and saluted his brethren.

1Sa 17:23 And as he talked with them, behold, there came up the champion, the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name, out of the armies of the Philistines, and spake according to the same words: and David heard them.

1Sa 17:24 And all the men of Israel, when they saw the man, fled from him, and were sore afraid.

1Sa 17:25 And the men of Israel said, Have ye seen this man that is come up? surely to defy Israel is he come up: and it shall be, that the man who killeth him, the king will enrich him with great riches, and will give him his daughter, and make his father's house free in Israel.

1Sa 17:26 And David spake to the men that stood by him, saying, What shall be done to the man that killeth this Philistine, and taketh away the reproach from Israel? for who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the armies of the living God?

1Sa 17:27 And the people answered him after this manner, saying, So shall it be done to the man that killeth him.

1Sa 17:28 And Eliab his eldest brother heard when he spake unto the men; and Eliab's anger was kindled against David, and he said, Why camest thou down hither? and with whom hast thou left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know thy pride, and the naughtiness of thine heart; for thou art come down that thou mightest see the battle.

1Sa 17:29 And David said, What have I now done? Is there not a cause?

1Sa 17:30 And he turned from him toward another, and spake after the same manner: and the people answered him again after the former manner.

1Sa 17:31 And when the words were heard which David spake, they rehearsed them before Saul: and he sent for him.

1Sa 17:32 And David said to Saul, Let no man's heart fail because of him; thy servant will go and fight with this Philistine.

1Sa 17:33 And Saul said to David, Thou art not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him: for thou art but a youth, and he a man of war from his youth.

1Sa 17:34 And David said unto Saul, Thy servant kept his father's sheep, and there came a lion, and a bear, and took a lamb out of the flock:

1Sa 17:35 And I went out after him, and smote him, and delivered it out of his mouth: and when he arose against me, I caught him by his beard, and smote him, and slew him.

1Sa 17:36 Thy servant slew both the lion and the bear: and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of them, seeing he hath defied the armies of the living God.

1Sa 17:37 David said moreover, YAHUAH that delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, he will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine. And Saul said unto David, Go, and YAHUAH be with thee.

1Sa 17:38 And Saul armed David with his armour, and he put an helmet of brass upon his head; also he armed him with a coat of mail.

1Sa 17:39 And David girded his sword upon his armour, and he assayed to go; for he had not proved it. And David said unto Saul, I cannot go with these; for I have not proved them. And David put them off him.

1Sa 17:40 And he took his staff in his hand, and chose him five smooth stones out of the brook, and put them in a shepherd's bag which he had, even in a scrip; and his sling was in his hand: and he drew near to the Philistine.

1Sa 17:41 And the Philistine came on and drew near unto David; and the man that bare the shield went before him.

1Sa 17:42 And when the Philistine looked about, and saw David, he disdained him: for he was but a youth, and ruddy, and of a fair countenance.

1Sa 17:43 And the Philistine said unto David, Am I a dog, that thou comest to me with staves? And the Philistine cursed David by his gods.

1Sa 17:44 And the Philistine said to David, Come to me, and I will give thy flesh unto the fowls of the air, and to the beasts of the field.

1Sa 17:45 Then said David to the Philistine, Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a shield: but I come to thee in the name of YAHUAH of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom thou hast defied.

1Sa 17:46 This day will YAHUAH deliver thee into mine hand; and I will smite thee, and take thine head from thee; and I will give the carcasses of the host of the Philistines this day unto the fowls of the air, and to the wild beasts of the earth; that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel.

1Sa 17:47 And all this assembly shall know that YAHUAH saves not with sword and spear: for the battle is YAHUAH'S, and he will give you into our hands.

1Sa 17:48 And it came to pass, when the Philistine arose, and came and drew nigh to meet David, that David hasted, and ran toward the army to meet the Philistine.

1Sa 17:49 And David put his hand in his bag, and took thence a stone, and slang it, and smote the Philistine in his forehead, that the stone sunk into his forehead; and he fell upon his face to the earth.

1Sa 17:50 So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and smote the Philistine, and slew him; but there was no sword in the hand of David.

1Sa 17:51 Therefore David ran, and stood upon the Philistine, and took his sword, and drew it out of the sheath thereof, and slew him, and cut off his head therewith. And when the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, they fled.

Parallel Lessons from David and Goliath

1. The Valley of Decision

Both armies stood upon mountains with a valley between them (1 Samuel 17:3). This valley represents the place of testing, where belief must become action. Just as David descended into the Valley of Elah, every believer must descend from the high ground of theory into the valley where faith is proven. It is here, in the low places of life, that courage and trust are revealed, not in our words, but in our walk.

Yahuah often leads us into valleys so that His strength may be displayed against the backdrop of our weakness. The mountain represents what we know; the valley reveals who we trust.

“Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me.” (Psalm 23:4)

2. The Five Smooth Stones – Weapons of the Spirit

David chose five smooth stones, not jagged, not freshly broken, but stones that had been worn smooth by the flowing water of time. This imagery beautifully mirrors the Word refined through trial and meditation. Each stone could represent a principle of divine warfare:

1. Faith – Confidence in Yahuah’s promises.
2. Obedience – Willingness to move when He says, “go.”
3. Humility – Refusing man’s armor for the simplicity of trust.
4. Courage – Running toward the giant, not away.
5. Praise – Declaring His name before the battle is won.

David didn’t pick up weapons forged by man but tools refined by the hand of the Creator, stones from the brook, symbolizing truth shaped by the Living Water (Yahusha, John 4:14). Likewise, our weapons are not carnal but mighty through Alahim to the pulling down of strongholds (2 Corinthians 10:4).

3. The Unproven Armor

Saul’s armor represents the strength of human systems, religion without power, protection without presence, ritual without relationship. David wisely refused what was not “proven.” We cannot fight spiritual battles wearing someone else’s armor, borrowed traditions, borrowed faith, or borrowed understanding. Yahuah calls us to walk in our own proven relationship with Him, tested in the secret pastures of obedience.

Just as David had faced the lion and the bear before facing the giant, our smaller trials prepare us for greater ones. Each test in life is a rehearsal for a future victory.

4. The Defiant Giant

Goliath is not merely a man; he is the embodiment of defiance against Yahuah, the voice of intimidation that shouts morning and evening for forty days (symbolic of testing and probation). The giant's armor of brass and iron speaks of worldly strength and oppression, while David's sling of trust speaks of spiritual liberty. Every believer encounters such "giants" voices that mock faith, circumstances that appear immovable, or fears that defy the promise of Yahuah. Yet the battle cry remains the same:

"The battle is Yahuah's." (1 Samuel 17:47)

5. The Stone that Struck the Forehead

The stone lodged in Goliath's forehead, his seat of reasoning, reveals that the Word of Yahuah conquers not through brute force but by striking at the mind's rebellion. The living Word penetrates false reasoning, bringing down lofty thoughts that exalt themselves against the knowledge of Alahim (2 Corinthians 10:5).

In this way, David's victory prefigures Yahusha the Messiah, the rejected Stone who became the chief Cornerstone (Psalm 118:22). He, too, struck the enemy in the head, fulfilling Genesis 3:15: "He shall bruise your head."

6. The Aftermath – Glory to Yahuah Alone

When David triumphed, he took no glory to himself. The boy with the sling became a living testimony that deliverance comes not by sword or spear but by the Spirit of Yahuah. Likewise, our victories are designed to make His name known "that all the earth may know there is a God in Israel" (1 Samuel 17:46).

Each trial, each battle, each valley is a stage upon which Yahuah displays His majesty, not merely to save us, but to reveal Himself through us.

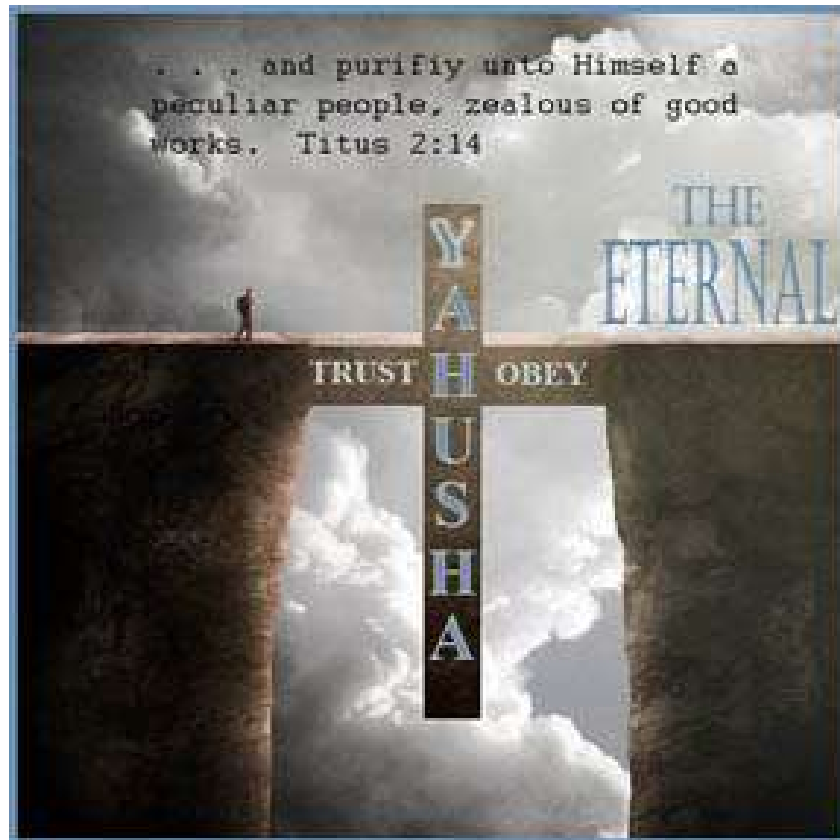

Conclusion: The Battle Still Belongs to Yahuah

Every believer faces giants of fear, doubt, loss, or conflict. Yet our calling remains as David's: to meet the enemy not in our strength but in His name. The sling of trust still works. The smooth stones of His Word still bring down every high thing that exalts itself against His truth.

"Be still, and know that I am Alahim." (Psalm 46:10)

“Thanks be to Yahuah, who gives us the victory through our Master Yahusha the Messiah.” (1 Corinthians 15:57)

So take heart, your valley is not a defeat, but an invitation for Yahuah to display His power once again. Stand firm, for the same One who guided David’s stone will guide your faith to its mark.

In the chaos around us, let us never forget that the battle is Yahuah’s ... He is in CONTROL of everything!

Behold, Yahuah’s hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither His ear heavy, that it cannot hear, Isaiah 59:1.

Be still, and know that I am Alahim: I will be exalted among the heathen; I will be exalted in the earth. Yahuah of hosts is with us; the Alahim of Jacob is our refuge, Psalm 46:11.

But thanks be to Yahuah, who gives us the triumphant success through our Master, Yahusha the Messiah. 1 Corinthians 15:57

Prayer

O Yahuah, Mighty One of Israel, teach my heart to trust
You, as David, did in the valley of fear.

When giants rise before me, let me not see their size but Your greatness, and remember that the battle belongs to You alone.

Strip me of every armor forged by human strength, that I may stand clothed only in faith and obedience.

Place in my hand the smooth stones of Your Word and guide my aim through the power of Your Spirit.

May every victory in my life bring glory to Your name, that all may know there is none like You.

Barak hashem Yahusha haMashiach!
(Bless the name of Yahusha the Messiah!)
