

Shabbat Shalom, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New/Renewed Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days according to the full moon as the start of His lunar months!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FUb6QjzvRXU>

Today is the 29th day of our Creator's Ninth Lunar Month count, in which the year begins in the spring. It is also the authentic fourth lunar Sabbath of the month. It looks like 09-29-5994. It coincides with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary date of Fri. 02-02-2025.

Our Creator placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and the start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to Yahuah Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths and annual Feast Days, is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only Yahuah's Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts "eyes to see and ears to hear." Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

“Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, Yahuah. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness.”
 Psalms 89:15-16

THE SERPENT'S BLOOD

By Jonathan Cahn

“Do you see it?” asked the teacher.

“Behind the rock,” I replied.

It was a snake, brown and black, and slithering in the desert sand.

“What do you know about snakes?” he asked.

“I know to avoid them.”

“Nothing more?”

“Not much.”

“What you should know is that snakes are cold-blooded.”

“Why is that important?”

“You’re warm-blooded. And because you’re warm-blooded, you can run and keep running. But a snake, being cold-blooded, is limited in its ability to endure, to keep going. Therefore, you can outlast it.”

“That’s good to know,” I replied.

“In the Scriptures, the serpent is a symbol of Satan and evil.”

“Why is that?”

“Not because snakes are evil in themselves, but because they provide a representation of evil. They often move by twisting. And so the nature of evil is to twist. A lie is the twisting of the truth. The impure is the twisting of the pure. And evil, itself, is the twisting of the good.”

“So then if snakes are cold-blooded, then, so, in some way, is evil?”

“Yes,” said the teacher. “Evil is cold-blooded. What that means is this: Though evil may have its day, its victories, its time to move and strike—it remains cold-blooded. Therefore, it can never endure. No matter how powerful the evil may appear, no matter how triumphant and unstoppable it may seem, it cannot last. Deception is cold-blooded. Hatred is cold-blooded. Slander is cold-blooded. Oppression is cold-blooded. All evil is cold-blooded. And so the power of evil is only for the short-term and the momentary. Its days are always numbered. And in the long run, it always fails.”

“But the good is not cold-blooded,” I said.

“Yes,” he said. “So, in the end, the good will outlast the evil. Therefore, persevere in the good, keep focused on what is good and true, keep standing for what is right, and you will overcome and prevail in the end.”

The Mission: In the face of whatever evil, trouble, attack, or sin you’re dealing with, don’t give in. Don’t give up. But press on in the good and in truth. Isaiah 54:17; Matthew 24:13; John 1:5.

Disclaimer: “The Book of Mysteries” by Jonathan Cahn presents a series of lessons he attributes to “The Teacher” in the land of Yasharal (Israel). While we do not affirm all of Cahn’s interpretations or theological positions, we welcome the insights that harmonize with Scripture.

Kerrie’s Korner

Adam and Eve were deceived by the serpent in the earliest days of human history, at a time when deception was unknown, and trust was untested. They had no prior experience with lies, no record of evil, and no written instruction to warn them. Yet, they had been warned by their Creator verbally and in real and present time, in ways that should have sent alarms blaring when they first entered too close to the tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil. They should have fled at once when the serpent began speaking to them, beguiling them to come nearer and taste the forbidden fruit. Thus, thousands of years later, with all that has been revealed and recorded about the adversary, the father of lies, we must honestly ask ourselves whether we still have an excuse.

We live in an age saturated with knowledge and testimony. We have the Scriptures in our hands, a divinely given owner's manual for living in a world where deception exists, where falsehood often masquerades as truth, and darkness presents itself as light. The Bible does not merely recount history; it trains the discernment of the heart, exposing the methods of deception and calling us to test every spirit, every tradition, and every claim against the unchanging standard of truth.

Just like the first couple, we have been warned. We have all the testimony from the past generations. We know the tactics of the enemy, the subtle blending of truth with error, the appeal to comfort, tradition, and familiarity. The question before us is no longer one of ignorance, but of willingness: will we heed what has been revealed, or will we, like some foolish before us, choose what is easy and familiar over what is true? In a world filled with competing voices, Scripture remains the lamp to our feet and the light to our path, leaving us not without guidance, but without excuse.

Song: By the Full Moon Light We Return to You ~ Hampton and Samantha Hensley <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=p312gwIxo-A>

New Moon Day occurs on the day after Sabbath beginning the Tenth Lunar Month. I will not be sending out a New Moon Message. So I will include the Tenth Month Calendar here.

Prayer

Most High, Heavenly Father,
 We come before You with grateful hearts, acknowledging that You have not left us unaware or unguarded in a world where deception seeks to twist what is good and true.
 Thank You for revealing the nature of evil and for reminding us that, though Satan may strike and threaten, he is cold-blooded and cannot endure.
 Strengthen us to persevere in righteousness, to keep running in the warmth of Your truth when lies would seek to slow us down or weary our souls.
 Grant us discernment to recognize what masquerades as light and the courage to reject what is familiar but false.

Teach us to cling to Your Word as our lamp and our guide, testing every voice and every path against Your unchanging truth.
And when the struggle feels long, remind us that goodness outlasts evil, light overcomes darkness, and those who endure in You will prevail in the end.

Amen.

Barak hashem Yahusha haMashiach!
(Bless the name of Yahusha the Messiah!)
