

Shabbat Shalom, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New/Renewed Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days according to the full moon as the start of His lunar months!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FUb6QjzvRXU>

Today is the 22nd day of our Creator's Tenth Lunar Month count, in which the year begins in the spring. It is also the authentic third lunar Sabbath of the month. It looks like 10-22-5994. It coincides with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary date of Sat, 01-24-2025.

Our Creator placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and the start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to Yahuah Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths and annual Feast Days, is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only Yahuah’s Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts “eyes to see and ears to hear.” Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you, and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

The Pearl of Great Price

By Kerrie French
TheCreatorsCalendar.com

The Pearl of Great Price spoken of in Scripture is much more than the title of a Mormon book or a literal gemstone as found on the ocean floor, but a sacred metaphor pointing to the costly pursuit of Truth as it is revealed in Yahusha haMashiach. It represents that singular revelation for which a wise seeker willingly relinquishes all lesser assumptions, traditions, and comforts in order to possess what heaven esteems as priceless. This pearl is not discovered by accident, nor inherited through custom; it is found by those who search diligently, measure carefully, and refuse to settle for substitutes once the genuine article has been revealed.

More precisely, this Pearl of Great Price encompasses the restoration of the Creator's original timekeeping knowledge, centered upon the full moon as the authentic New Moon, the appointed marker placed in the heavens from the beginning. In this light, the full moon stands not merely as a celestial phenomenon, but as a living icon of the Messiah Himself, radiant, complete, and faithfully reflecting the Father's sacred events at the appointed time. From one true New Moon to another, and from one lunar Sabbath to another, the work and authority of the Messiah are made manifest within the very rhythm Yah established for worship and remembrance. As declared in Isaiah 66:23, all flesh is summoned to come before Him according to this restored order, revealing that the Pearl of Great Price is nothing less than alignment with the Messiah's life, sacrifice, and reign, written not only in Scripture, but inscribed across the heavens themselves that it may dwell in the hearts of His betrothed bride.

Twelve Pearl Gates

The twelve whole Pearl Gates leading into the Kadosh (Holy) City are not random architectural features, but profound prophetic symbols. They correspond to the twelve Full New Moons that make their grand entrance through the East Gate each year, appearing as single, whole Pearl Gates, complete and undivided. Each gate marks an appointed moment in sacred time, declaring entrance not by human decree, but by the orderly witness of the heavens as established by the Creator Himself.

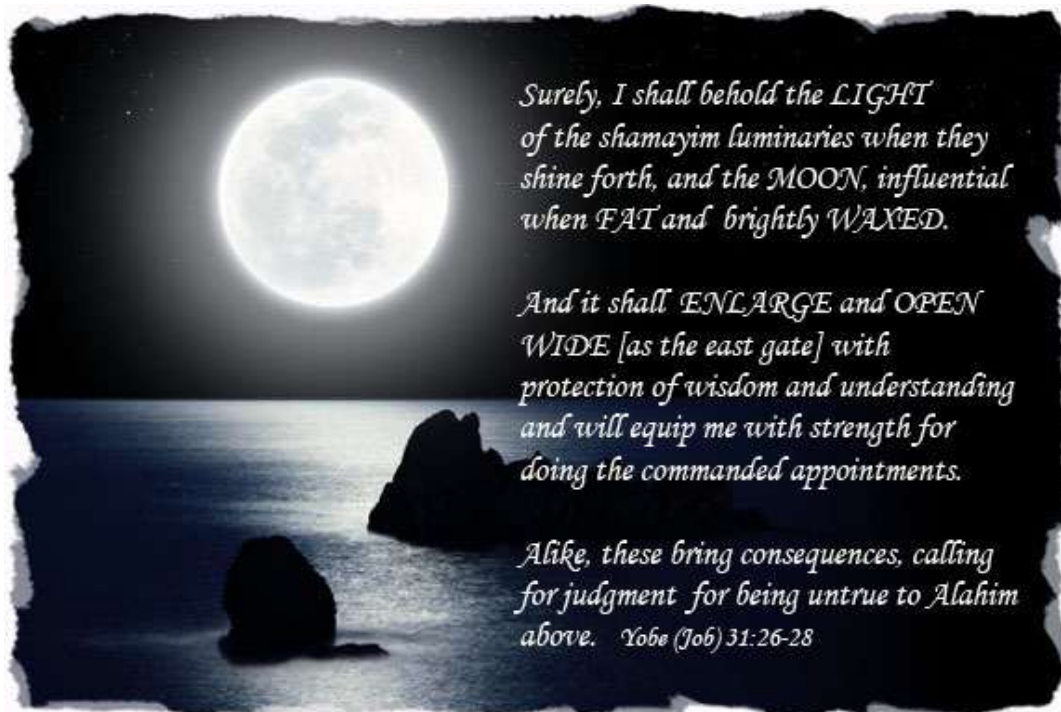

The Full Moon Honored

The Full Moon was granted the highest honor among the heavenly lights, appointed to beacon not only the beginning of lunar months, but also the commencement of years, weeks, appointed Feast Days, and lunar Sabbaths. In this way, the moon functions as the Creator's visible and recurring witness, synchronizing sacred time with worship, remembrance, and covenantal obedience. This integrated system formed the original and divinely designed Key of Time-Measuring, by which all sacred appointments were to be rightly discerned.

“ It shall be established forever like the moon, even like the faithful witness in the sky.” Psalms 89:37

Yet this knowledge did not fade by accident. It was intentionally obscured and set aside, culminating in A.D. 358, when a joint convergence of Roman authority and Rabbinic Jewish leadership formalized a shift away from the full-moon New Moon.

In its place, they adopted the dark conjunction New Moon and the Roman continuous weekly cycle, complete with the names and structure of foreign gods. This decisive change fractured the Scriptural harmony between heaven and earth, severing worship from the celestial markers Yah Himself had ordained.

May Yahuah and Yahusha extend mercy and illumination to each of us as we continue to seek the full restoration of sacred time, humbly laying aside inherited traditions and returning to the original order written in Scripture and displayed faithfully in the heavens.

“In AD 351-352, Roman persecution flared, and the Jews revolted. They were soon crushed. Many Jewish towns were destroyed, and decrees issued against the local authorities and against Judaism. The privileges of the head of the Sanhedrin and the freedoms of the Sanhedrin itself were curtailed. Roman pressure to conform “Jewish” TIME to Roman TIME had reached crisis level. ibid

Under this pressure, Hillel II agreed to limit the functions of the head of the Sanhedrin, as well as the Sanhedrin itself, with respect to proclaiming the New Moon, setting festival dates, and employing intercalation [inserting the 13th lunar month]. With the decline of the Jewish power base in Israel, the Jewish community in Babylon had been rising in influence to fill the vacuum. Hillel II published details informing all Jews of the methods of the [new] calculated calendar developed in Babylon. From that time on, the Sanhedrin in Judea ceased to function or to maintain calendar experts. Hillel II is thus given the credit for the present fixed Rabbinical calendar, but in reality it originated in Babylon and was just the starting point of the development of the Rabbinical calendar in use today.

Encyclopedia Judaica, s.v. "Hillel".

“The arrangement of the Jewish calendar as used in the time of Christ is no longer operative. Modern Jews are divided into two classes. The Karaite Jews, whose numbers are small, reject tradition and the Talmud, observe their feasts and festivals more nearly with those of Christ's time as regards the true season. The larger number of Jews follow the Rabbinical Calendar, the product of Rabbi Hillel II and others, about 353 A.D. These incorporated into it many of the ancient rules of calculation, but begin their year, and feasts and festivals a month earlier in the season than the Karaites. We have in 1844 the atonement by the Rabbinical Calendar would be September 23rd, while by the Karaites it was about that time in October. By the Rabbinical calendar the First day of Nisan is always between March 12 and April 11, and is always one of four days, Sunday, Tuesday, Thursday or Saturday the first one after the new moon for that month.”

Creation Centered in Christ, by H.G. Guinness, D.D., page 276. Also from Approximate Chronology, H. H. Perry, p. 21-22.

“The Babylonians, at a very early period, divided their months into seven-day cycles. . .” Ancient History, Hutton Webster, p. 20

So while it was the Romans who pressured the Jews to give up the original Creator's Calendar, in doing so, they were actually adopting the ancient Babylonian Calendar System. Our Messiah knew this all along; it is just that we have taken 1,700 years to figure it out and turn this mess around. This is why it says in Revelation:

“And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.” Revelation 14:8

And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. Revelation 18:4

Admission with a White Stone

Are you aware that in the induction ceremony of some secret societies, such as the Freemasons, a voting system of new inductees transpires in which the voting members cast their votes by utilizing either a black or white stone sphere?

A black stone sphere indicates that the door or gate is closed, and one is not granted admittance into the organization. This is where the phrase “blackballed” came from.

A white stone sphere signifies that the door or gate is flung open, and one is granted admittance into the organization. Admittance occurs only if there is a unanimous vote of white stones. If even one black stone is found in the ballot box, either another round of votes occurs until all are white, or the candidate is ultimately rejected.

It must not be assumed that this is an ancient pagan practice, simply because we recognize secret societies as objectionable groups who often mix truth with error.

But what do the Scriptures say about this voting method?

“He who has an ear, let him hear what the Ruach (Spirit) says to the ecclesia [called out ones]. To him who overcomes, I will give some of the hidden manna to eat. And I will give him a white stone . . .”

Revelation 2:17

This verse declares that the gate of the New Jerusalem will be flung open for the overcomers, the redeemed of earth, who receive the white stone. These alone will be granted admittance into the sacred city. This is the voting model used by the ETERNAL KING OF KINGS with reference to the saved and the lost.

Yahuah made provision that all mankind may receive a white stone sphere. But if sin prevails and one has not confessed all sin and been covered by the blood of Yahusha the Messiah, thereby receiving His robe of righteousness, even one black stone cast by Satan will be counted against him. Thus, he will be counted unworthy and not be admitted.

Make no mistake, the white stone sphere signifies the open gate/door to the pure, perfect LIGHT OF TRUTH, as revealed by the brilliant full New Moon, the eternal symbol of the Messiah. Whereas, the black stone sphere signifies darkness, sin, and rejection, as revealed by the occulted conjunction moon, the symbol of Satan, who himself was ultimately blackballed from the New Yarushalom, and who will stop at nothing to blackball you as well.

The East Gate, the Full Moon, and Worship

So, as you can see, it is not a stretch to identify a latent fact that every single whole pearl makes up one of the twelve gates of the New Jerusalem. Each is representative of the tie between the full New Moon and the east gate being open for worship. Only the full moon rules together with the stars along the east-west time continuum the entire night (Genesis 1:16; Psalms 136:7-9; Jeremiah 31:35-36; Revelation 12:1). As a result, there is no guesswork as to which lunar phase is the true New Moon. A single whole pearl is the description given by John the Revelator of what he saw in vision. Each pearl was a most appropriate and beautiful description of our Creator's marvelous full New Moon.

Might it be that until that great day when the redeemed of earth are united in the New Yarushalom after our Messiah's Second Coming, that we have entrance by way of acceptance and practice of keeping the true full New Moon? Might it also be that aligning the rhythm of our worship to His is the only way we actually accept the gift of His white stone? <http://www.thecreatorsalendar.com/twelve-gates-are-twelve.../>

Egyptian and Roman Captivity

This one-dollar bill presents a profound illustration of Israel's two most well-known captivities. It identifies the pyramid of Egypt as their first captivity and the final captivity by the Roman Empire. But nothing is hinted at as to their ultimate restoration to their Alahim (God) or sovereignty.

From the Exodus to their entrance into the Promised Land, Israel spent forty years restoring Yahuah's truths, including His Full New Moons, lunar Sabbaths, and kadosh Feast Day calendar, so they might enter the land synchronized with His worship order. The same occurred during Nehemiah's time following the Babylonian captivity.

Yet strikingly, no comparable restoration followed Israel's Roman captivity, which began in A.D. 70. Under intense political and religious pressure, the people gradually adopted Babylonian methods of timekeeping, including the dark conjunction and first visible crescent New Moons for determining Feast Days, along with the Roman planetary continuous week and Saturday as the Sabbath. In doing so, they departed from Yahuah Alahim's appointed order of sacred time. As a result, the full restoration to Yahuah's truths has not yet occurred, and His people have remained bound to Babylonian and Roman calendar systems rather than the original covenantal rhythm He established with Abraham.

In rejecting the promised Messiah, they rejected the very One for whom they had been set apart as a chosen people. The election of Israel was never an end in itself, but a calling through which the Messiah would come for the salvation of the world. Yet in the centuries that followed, many turned away from the plain testimony of the Torah and the Tanakh, choosing instead to elevate Oral Traditions, later codified in the Talmud, to a position of authority that often overrides the written Word of YAHUAH.

This departure is seen most strikingly in the treatment of the sacred Shem (Name) of YAHUAH Alahim. Though Scripture repeatedly records YAHUAH declaring His Name and commanding His people to call upon it, rabbinic tradition forbids its vocalization. In its place, substitute titles such as Adoni are used, a term linguistically and historically linked to pagan nomenclature, thereby obscuring the personal covenant Name by which YAHUAH Alahim and YAHUSHA haMashiach desire to be known.

Furthermore, critical prophetic passages within Isaiah and Daniel that clearly identify the timing, mission, and suffering of the Messiah have long been marginalized, restricted, or discouraged from open examination. Yet these very texts, preserved within Israel's own manuscripts, testify that the Messiah would come precisely when YAHUSHA did, and that His mission was to redeem the lost and restore covenant truth. Thus, the issue is not a lack of evidence, but a resistance to its implications. The tragedy lies not in ignorance, but in the suppression of truths that, if embraced, would lead to restoration, healing, and the fulfillment of YAHUAH's redemptive purpose for His people and for the nations.

The Promise

“He that hath an ear, let him hear what the RUACH (power, presence, and provision of Yahuah) said unto the called out ones. To him that overcomes will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a WHITE STONE, and in the STONE a new name written, which no man knows except he that receives it.” Revelation 2:17

YAHUSHA'S WHITE STONE, the Pearl of Great Price, as the Full New Moon, is a sign of the Bridal Covenant and faithfulness to Him. It is awarded as a kind of entrance ticket into the New Yahushalom, through one of the twelve whole pearl GATES.

Conclusion: The Cost of the Pearl

The Pearl of Great Price has never been about novelty, convenience, or popular acceptance. It has always carried a cost. To obtain it requires the humility to test long-held assumptions, the courage to depart from inherited systems of time and worship, and the willingness to realign one's life with the visible witnesses Yah Himself placed in the heavens. What has been set before the reader is not a theory, but a call to restoration. The full New Moon, the twelve whole Pearl Gates, the East Gate of worship, and the white stone of admission all converge upon a single truth: Yahusha has never altered His covenantal rhythm. He has only waited patiently for His Bride to rediscover it.

History confirms that the displacement of the Creator's Calendar was not accidental, Scripture reveals that its restoration is foretold, and prophecy warns that Babylon's counterfeit systems would intoxicate the nations. Yet mercy still speaks. The invitation to "come out of her" is also an invitation to come back in, to enter by the full moon gate Yah has appointed, at the time He has sanctified, bearing the white stone of reconciliation and obedience. The Pearl of Great Price, then, is nothing less than alignment with Truth itself. Those who find it will find that it opens the gate, restores worship, and prepares the Bride for the soon appearing of her King.

May we be among those who recognize the Pearl when it is revealed, count all else as loss, and enter joyfully through the gate that shines with the faithful witness in the sky (Psalms 89:37).

Prayer:

Heavenly Father Yahuah,
we come before You with humbled hearts, asking for eyes to see and ears to hear all that pertains to the Pearl of Great Price.

You have placed before us the Truth revealed in Yahusha haMashiach and written in both Your Word and the heavens.

Forgive us for the traditions we have inherited or embraced that have obscured Your sacred rhythm of time, Your lunar appointed times of worship, and the fullness of Your Bridal covenant.

Draw Your people out of confusion and bondage, restore us to the light of Your Name, Your calendar, and Your worship, and clothe us in the righteousness of Your Son.

Prepare us as Your faithful Bride to accept and honor the Pearl that you have revealed and to count all else as loss, and to enter through the gate that You have ordained with joy, obedience, and love.

Barak hashem Yahusha haMashiach!
(Bless the name of Yahusha the Messiah!)
