

Shabbat Shalom, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New/Renewed Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days according to the full moon as the start of His lunar months!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FUb6QjzvRXU>

Today is the 16th day of our Creator's Eleventh Lunar Month count, in which the year begins in the spring. It is also the authentic second lunar Sabbath of the month. It looks like 11-15-5994. It coincides with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary date of Mon, 02-16-2026.

Our Creator placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and the start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to Yahuah Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths and annual Feast Days, is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only Yahuah's Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts "eyes to see and ears to hear." Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you, and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

“Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, Yahuah. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness.” Psalms 89:15-16

Rosh Hashanah and Passover

Rosh Hashanah (New Year's Day) is coincident with Thurs, Apr 2, and Passover will occur on Apr 15. As a result, all the following Sabbaths for the month will occur on Thurs. You will find the new calendars being populated over the next week.

THE MYSTERY OF THE PURPLE ROBE

Jonathan Cahn

The teacher was holding a purple cloth and running it through his fingers as if inspecting it. He then placed it in my hands.

“The color purple,” he said. “It was woven throughout the Tabernacle, on the veils and curtains, even in the garments of the priests. Now look at the cloth I gave you. It’s purple. It should be made up of purple threads, but it’s not. If you look closely, you won’t find any.”

So I examined it. And as he had said, I was unable to find in the cloth a single purple thread. Instead, it was made up of tiny blue and red threads finely woven together.

“Purple is the joining of blue and red. And if you looked at the veils of the Tabernacle, you would find the colors blue, purple, and red. The colors appear in the instructions for building the Tabernacle over and over, the same three colors and in the same order ‘blue, purple, and scarlet.’”

“Why?”

“The Tent of Meeting was the place of the joining, the reconciliation, the meeting of two realities, Yahuah Alahim (God) and man.”

“And so the colors represented both Yahuah Alahim and man?”

“Blue is the color of the sky, the heavens ...representing the heavenly, Yahuah Alahim (God). So the blue is first.”

“And the color red ...scarlet?”

“In Hebrew, the word for man is Adam. Adam comes from the Hebrew word for red. Red is the color of the Middle Eastern earth from which man came. And scarlet red is the symbol of sin and guilt. Red is the color of man.

“So then what is purple?”

“Purple is the joining of blue and red. So it speaks to the mystery of the joining of Yahuah Alahim (God) to man. Heaven joined earth. But for purple to exist, it must be a total joining, an intertwining of all that is holy to all that is not, all of Yahuah Alahim to all that is us, to all that is you ...so totally joined that Yahuah Alahim (God) will appear as sin. And as that total joining drew near, the Anointed Messiah, the Son of Yahuah Alahim, was beaten and mocked and made to wear a crown of thorns and was covered with a robe. And do you know what color that robe was? It was a purple robe. A purple robe to cover the ONE in whom heaven and earth, Yahuah Alahim (God) and man, blue and red, become one, forever symbolized by the color purple.”

The Mission: Today, join all that is red to all that is blue. Join all that is ungodly to Yahuah Alahim, so much so that all becomes purple.

Exodus 26:31; John 19:1-6; Philippians 4:5-7; 1 Timothy 1:15

Kerrie’s Korner:

In harmony with this beautiful theme, you (a child of Adam – red) are warmly invited to consider the profound significance of drawing near to YAHUAH Alahim and His Son, YAHUSHA haMashiach (blue), through the reverent use of Their sacred and original Hebrew names. From this day forward, may there arise within the heart a thoughtful and intentional desire to honor both the Eternal Father and His Son as They revealed Themselves, setting aside all substituted forms that history and tradition have layered over time.

For many centuries, the Eternal Name was gradually concealed within religious practice. Rabbinic tradition chose to replace the Divine Name with substitute expressions, believing this would guard against misuse of the Third Commandment. Yet, as the attached article carefully explores, this practice invites deeper reflection and reexamination.

Likewise, during the Roman era, particularly under Emperor Constantine in the fourth century, significant linguistic and cultural shifts shaped the transmission of the Messianic writings. As the faith spread into a Gentile world, Hebraic identity, including sacred names, was increasingly softened or replaced. Understanding these historical movements helps illuminate not only what changed, but what may now be thoughtfully restored.

Today, you are invited to step through a doorway into a renewed perspective, one that encourages a deeper appreciation for the set-apart Names of the Eternal Father and His Son. May this journey open the heart to the beauty, reverence, and gravity of restoring what is sacred, past, present, and future.

I AM YAHUAH!

This is my Name from Everlasting to Everlasting

יהוה

I AM YAHUAH – This is My name from time everlasting! The Eternal Father is calling His people to the ostentatious significance of restoring His set-apart name “YAHUAH” (#3068 – יהוה). It also applies to the name of His Son “YAHUSHA” (H#3091 – יהושע) haMashiach (the Messiah), wherever either are referred to in Scripture as the “Lord God, Adoni, and Jesus Christ.” Only then will the nations of earth know that He is the supreme Alahim/Elohim (sovereign).

Song: Create in Me a Clean Heart (Psalm 51:10) Prayer Song ~ miYAH

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FCuhvGBWS6o>

Prayer:

O Yahuah Alahim, Eternal Father of Light,
we come before You in humility,
offering all that is red within us,
our weakness, our earthliness,
and our need,
asking that through Your mercy
You would weave us together
with the blue of heaven,
that our lives may become
a living testimony of reconciliation.

Through YAHUSHA haMashiach,
who bore the purple robe of suffering and love,
join what is broken to what is holy,
that heaven and earth may be united within our hearts,
and that we may walk in peace,
redemption, and truth.

Let Your presence quiet our fears,
restore what has been lost, and clothe us in the mystery of Your divine union, until all that we are reflects
Your glory and Your everlasting love.

Barak hashem Yahusha haMashiach!
(Bless the name of Yahusha the Messiah!)
