Verse 1	A Psalm of David. The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament shows His	A Psalm of David. The shamayim (abode of the sun, moon, and stars) accurately records the handiwork.	majesty of Alahim and the handiwork of His power from the conspicuous expanse of the firmament.

Verse 2	Day unto day utters speech, and night unto night reveals knowledge.	Day unto day gushes forth promises and night unto night demonstrates knowledge.
Verse 3	There is no speech nor language where their voice is not heard.	Without promises and without provision their voice shall not be heard, understood, nor obeyed.
Verse 4	Their line has gone out through all the earth and their words to the end of the world. In them He has set a tabernacle for the sun,	Through all the earth proceeds forward their measuring line, and in the end of the world their topic will be that the EAST was fixed and ordained for Yahuah’s tabernacle.
Verse 5	which is like a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoices like a strong man to run its race.	And Himself like a bridegroom shall proceed forth from His canopied chamber. He shall rejoice as a mighty warrior to hasten along the well-worn pathway.
Verse 6	Its rising is from one end of heaven, and its circuit to the other end; and there is nothing hidden from its heat.	From the border of the shamayim His going forth is in the EAST, and His revolution—a circuit of time in space, because of the end, and nothing shall be hidden from His wrath!
