Word for Word Comparison

All word studies utilize two or more lexicon sources to ensure accuracy.
 Missing words, overt errors in translation are highlighted in red.
 * Represents a reversal of word order between a noun and its adjective.
 (P and S denote the prefix and suffix in the Hebrew text column.)
 Hebrew is read from R – L, and the part underlined is the portion that perfectly matches the Strong's word choice, with the remainder as the prefix and suffix.

Verse by Verse Comparison of Zechariah 14:6-7

	New King James Translation	The Creator's Calendar New Restored Interlinear Text
Verse 6	It shall come to pass in that day that there will be no light; the lights will diminish.	And it shall come to pass in the process of time that none of the luminaries (the sun, moon, or stars) shall be valued as having weighty influence, and shall be dismissed and changed by a formal decree.
Verse 7	It shall be one day which is known to the Lord, neither day nor night. But at evening time it shall happen that it will be light.	And it shall come to pass, day one, which is distinguished for acknowledgement to Yahuah, will be neither the [correct] day nor the [correct] night, but the beacon for time at sunset shall beacon LIGHT.
