

Shabbat Shalom fellow lunar Sabbatarians!

Today, 01-27-21, although coincident to the solar Roman Gregorian calendar Wednesday, it is the authentic fourth lunar Sabbath of our Creator's Tenth Lunar Month.

He placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to YAHUAH Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children, and His patience in restoring His long lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths, and annual Feast Days are not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does, in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only YAHUAH'S Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts, "eyes to see and ears to hear." Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His.

THE COHANIM CONFESSION

By Jonathan Cahn

"I was wondering," I said. "When the priests performed the Semikhah, placing the sins of the people onto the sacrifice, they had to lay their hands on the sacrifice, but they also had to confess their sins over it. They had to do both. Otherwise, the sacrifice couldn't die for those sins. But when Messiah was taken by the priests the night before His death, the priests laid hands on Him, but there was no confession of sin."

"Come," said the teacher. "Let's see what we find."

He led me into the Chamber of Scrolls where he retrieved from a high shelf a scroll of medium size, laid it on the wooden table, unrolled it to the place he was looking for, and began translating it out loud: “At that Caiaphas tore his clothes and said, ‘He has spoken blasphemy...’ to which those in the council agreed that He was guilty and deserving of death.”

“They condemned Him to death on false charges.”

“In the Semikhah, the priest confessed the sins upon the sacrifice. Was the sacrifice guilty of those sins?

“No. The sacrifice could only die for those sins if it wasn't guilty of them.”

“Correct. Therefore, for the Semikhah to be performed on the sacrifice, on Messiah, the high priest had to speak over Him sins he was not guilty of. So what sin was it that they spoke upon Him? The sin of blasphemy. But the sin that’s spoken upon the sacrifice is not the sin of the sacrifice, but the sin of those who speak it. So the blasphemy was not the sin of the Messiah. It was the sin of the high priest and of the priesthood. They judged the Son of Yahuah (God) of blasphemy against Yahuah, the Eternal Father. To judge the Son of Yahuah, who is the reflection of His Father, of blasphemy, is itself blasphemy. The priests were confessing their own sin. But it wasn’t their sin alone. The priests represented Israel, and Israel represented the world. So the priests were confessing the sin of man...the sin of the world...in the Semikhah of the sacrifice for man, which was the first sin, and the beginning of all sins, ‘You shall be as Yahuah Alahim (God)...blasphemy.’”

“And,” said the teacher, “Caiaphas confessed your sins upon the Messiah, the sacrificial Lamb of Yahuah, who takes away the sins of the world.” As it is written, ‘He made Him who knew no sin to become sin for us...that we...that you...might become the righteousness of Yahuah Alahim the Father.’”

The Mission: He became sin, your sin that you would become righteousness, His righteousness. Life today as the righteousness of Yahuah and His Son, Yahusha the Messiah. Genesis 3:5; Leviticus 16:21; Mark 14:63-64; 2 Corinthians 5:21

[Disclaimer: Please note that “The Book of Mysteries” is Jonathan Cahn’s notes from the lessons he received while spending a year under the tutelage of “The Teacher” in Yasharal (Israel). I have found many of these to be worthy to share and will make additional comments on them as needed. Those teachings not supported by Scripture that don’t meet the mark on any level are not shared or posted. We are not followers of Jonathan Cahn as there are many beliefs we don’t hold in common. However, these are shared that you too may be barakah (blessed) by the wisdom of “The Teacher.”]

FOR IF THERE WAS:
NO PATHWAY OF PROMISE,
NO FULL NEW MOON RISING IN THE EAST,
NO DOOR/GATE TO ENTER INTO THE PATH/WAY,
NO 14TH DAY FROM THE FULL NEW MOON;

THERE WOULD BE:
NO SHEPHERD, NO LAMB,
NO MESSIAH, NO PASSOVER,
NO KOHEN PRIEST, NO FORGIVENESS,
NO TORAH IN OUR MOUTH, NO KING OF KINGS,

AND NO ETERNAL LIFE!

The pathway of PROMISE is one of forgiveness and restoration. It is found only through the time-centric SPRING FULL NEW MOON DOOR/GATE, which identifies the true MESSIAH AND HIS PATHWAY OF PROMISE.

It appears that those who pass this test of loyalty on earth, they will be celebrating Passover from year to year by eating the bread and drinking of the fruit of the vine along with their Messiah who redeemed them.

Every year Passover will be kept as a Kadosh (set-apart) reminder of what our sin, which began in Eden, cost our loving and compassionate Creator, both the Eternal Father and Son.

HALLELUYAH!!!!
