

Happy Rosh Hashanah (New Year's Day) and New Moon Day, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) Lunar New Moons and Sabbaths!

Today, 04-17-2022, although coincident with the Roman Gregorian calendar solar Easter Sunday, it is the authentic Rosh Hashanah, (New Year's Day) of the year 5991, and New Moon Day of the First Lunar Month of our Creator's Spring to Spring Year. It is an awe-inspiring sight to watch the full moon arise in the East by night and make its way along the east-west time continuum under our Creator's tireless care and direction on this last night of the year. Then to see with your own eyes that moment when the sun's first rays shine forth to greet the descending full moon. They greet each other with a nod and agreement that indeed, this moment, while together visible from opposite coordinates, marks the start of the NEW YEAR and New Lunar Month. HalleluYah!

“Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, YAHUAH. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness.”
Psalms 89:15-16

And YAHUAH spake unto Moses, saying...

“The sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow the trumpets, and these shall be to you as an ordinance forever throughout your generations.”

“When you go to war in your land against the enemy who oppresses you, then you shall sound an alarm with the trumpets, and you will be remembered before Yahuah your Alahim, and you will be saved from your enemies.”

“Also in the day of your gladness, in your appointed feasts, and at the beginning of your months, you shall blow the trumpets over your burnt offerings and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings; and they shall be a memorial for you before your Alahim (God): I am Yahuah your Alahim." Numbers 10:8-10

INFINITY IN A JAR

By Jonathan Cahn

It was morning. The teacher came to my room holding a little clay jar. A question” he said. “Can that which is little contain that which is big?”

“No,” I answered.

“Can that which is finite encompass that which is infinite?”

“No,” I said again.

“But it can,” he replied.

“How?”

He lifted the jar and removed the cap from its top.

“It can,” he said. “It can if it’s an open vessel. A closed vessel can never contain anything larger than its own size. But an open vessel has no limitations. It now can contain the blowing of the wind or the outpouring of the rain. It could even contain the flowing of a river.”

“It would take a long time to contain a river.”

“It could take forever, but the principle is the same.”

“And the reason you’re showing me this...”

“Which is larger, that which you know or that which you don’t know?”

“That which I don’t know, I would think.”

“So then, it’s only wise that you seek that which you don’t know.”

“I guess.”

“But how do you contain that which is bigger than you... that which is bigger than your ability to comprehend?”

“By becoming an open vessel,” I said.

“Yes,” said the teacher. “Only by opening yourself up can you come to know that which you don’t already know. And only by becoming an open vessel can you contain that which is greater than yourself. The truth is always greater than our knowing. Your mind and heart are finite, clay jars. But the truth has no end. Yahuah Alahim (God) has no end. The Eternal is infinite...always flowing.”

“Like a river,” I said.

“Yes,” he said, “but when the jar opens itself, it becomes unlimited. It can contain the waters of the river... So open now your mind, your heart, and your life. For it is only the open vessel and an open heart that can contain the infinity of Yahuah Alahim.”

The Mission: Today, on this FIRST DAY OF THE NEW YEAR (Rosh Hashanah) open your mind, your heart, and your life to that which you don't yet know, that you might contain that which is greater than yourself. Isaiah 55:1-9; Jeremiah 33:3; 2 Corinthians 4:7
