

Shabbat Shalom fellow lunar Sabbatarians!

Today, 04-18-2021, although coincident to the Roman Gregorian calendar solar Sunday, it is the authentic third lunar Sabbath of our Creator's Thirteenth Lunar Month.

He placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to YAHUAH Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children, and His patience in restoring His long lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths, and annual Feast Days are not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does, in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only YAHUAH'S Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts, "eyes to see and ears to hear." Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His.

"Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, YAHUAH. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness."
Psalms 89:15-16

HE WHOSE NAME IS LIKE OIL

By Jonathan Cahn

The Teacher was sitting inside one of the school's gardens, surrounded by a variety of plants, bushes, and trees all enclosed by a small stone wall. He had requested I meet him there. As I entered the garden, I noticed a small scroll in his hands that he was studying. As I drew nearer, I could hear him translating its contents.

“Your name is oil poured forth...” said the teacher. “It’s from the Song of Solomon, the love song of the Scriptures. It’s about a bride and a groom. But at its highest level, it’s about the Most High and us. He is the Bridegroom and we, the bride. And here, at its very beginning, the bride says of the Bridegroom, ‘Your name is oil poured forth...’ What do you think that means?”

“The bride is in love. And when you’re in love, your beloved’s name is beautiful.”

“That’s right,” he said. “And the ancient oils would carry the scent of spices, sweet fragrances. So the bride is saying that her beloved’s name is like pouring oil, beautiful, flowing, and filled with sweet fragrance. But if the Song of Solomon, at its highest level, is about the Most High, and us, then what does it mean?”

That the bride should be in love with the Bridegroom. That we should be in love with Yahuah Alahim, the Most High, so much so that just hearing His Name would give us joy that to us His Name would be like pouring out sweet oil.”

“And could it reveal even more than that? The bride says, ‘Your name is oil.’ Therefore, the name of the Bridegroom, the Beloved, will be like oil. Is there anyone whose name is oil?”

“I don’t know what you mean.”

“Is there anyone known in human history whose name is like oil? There is one,” he said. The name Mashiach (the Messiah) is linked to oil. It means the Anointed One, the One anointed with oil.”

“He whose name is like oil...the Bridegroom.”

“Therefore, He is the Beloved. And if we’re the bride, then we are to be so in love with Him that His Name becomes to us...as pouring out sweet oil.”

The Mission: Delight today in the name of your Beloved. Let it pour forth from your lips, your mind, and your heart. Song of Solomon 1:3; John 1:41

[Disclaimer: Please note that “The Book of Mysteries” is Jonathan Cahn’s notes from the lessons he received while spending a year under the tutelage of “The Teacher” in Yasharal (Israel). I have found many of these to be worthy to share and will make additional comments on them as needed. Those teachings not supported by Scripture that don’t meet the mark on any level are not shared or posted. We are not followers of Jonathan Cahn as there are many beliefs we don’t hold in common. However, these are shared that you too may be barakah (blessed) by the wisdom of “The Teacher.”]

I pray each of you have a blessed prayer and praise today as we give all glory to both the Father and Son, Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach for all they have done to prepare a way for us among the living for all eternity. Halleluyah!!!

For extended Sabbath reading we continue on in the theme of the love of our Creator and Messiah for mankind in preparation for Passover.
