

Shabbat Shalom fellow lunar Sabbatharians!

Today, 07-02-21, although coincident to the Roman Gregorian calendar solar Friday, it is the authentic first lunar Sabbath of our Creator's Third Lunar Month that begins in the spring.

He placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to YAHUAH Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children, and His patience in restoring His long lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths, and annual Feast Days are not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does, in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only YAHUAH'S Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts, "eyes to see and ears to hear." Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

"Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, YAHUAH. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness."

Psalms 89:15-16

JACOB'S PARADOX

(The Impersonator)

By Jonathan Cahn

“JACOB'S PARADOX,” said the teacher. “Jacob was blessed for doing everything he could to receive the blessing. And yet because of the way he went about receiving the blessing, the blessing could never be received... until later. When his father, Isaac, was about to give his blessing to whom he thought was his first born so Esau, he said, ‘Who are you...?’ Jacob replied, ‘I am Esau.’ So Jacob didn't say who he was (Jacob), but who he wasn't (Esau). And by doing so, he supplanted his brother, and thus became ‘the one who supplants.’”

“Why is that a paradox?”

“Because the name Jacob, or Yakov, means the one who supplants. So by not representing himself as Jacob, the supplanter, he became exactly that, Jacob the supplanter. By not confessing his name, he became the very thing his name confessed he was: the supplanter.

Now if he received the blessing intended for someone else, how could the blessing ever truly be received? Jacob went on to spend the next part of his life struggling, striving, and running away... until finally coming face-to-face with the truth on the night he wrestled with Alahim (God) and begged Yahuah Alahim to give him the blessing.”

“In the same way he sought his father's blessing years before?”

“Yes. And it was then that Yahuah Alahim asked him, ‘What is your name?’”

“Just as his father, before blessing him, had asked him the same thing?”

“Yes. But this time was different. This time he answered, ‘I am Jacob/Yakov.’”

“Which was a confession, ‘I am the supplanter.’ But as a result of his answer, this time he wasn't the supplanter.”

“The second paradox,” said the teacher, “the reverse paradox. By coming as who he was, Jacob, the supplanter, he ceased to be the supplanter, Jacob. And it's only then that Yahuah Alahim said, 'Your name shall no longer be called Jacob/Yakov, but Yasharal (Israel).' Only when Jacob comes as Jacob can he cease to be Jacob and become Yasharal (Israel)... and the blessing be complete. You see, you can never be blessed by coming as what you are not, but only as what you are, even when what you are is not what you were meant to be or become. Yahuah Alahim (God) cannot bless a righteous impersonator. But He can bless an authentic sinner. So if you would receive your blessing, you must come to Him as you are, with all your sins and failings, with no pretense of a self-indulged counterfeit covering. Only then will you be free and no longer bound to who you were. And your blessing will be given, and your name... well, your name shall no longer be called Jacob/Yakov, the supplanter.

The Mission: Today, come to Yahuah Alahim as you are, with no covering or pretense, confess what you must confess. Then receive your blessing. Genesis 27:18-19; 32:27-28; Psalms 32:1-6; Hebrews 4:16; James 4:8.

[Disclaimer: Please note that "The Book of Mysteries" is Jonathan Cahn's notes from the lessons he received while spending a year under the tutelage of "The Teacher" in Yasharal (Israel). I have found many of these to be worthy to share and will make additional comments on them as needed. Those teachings not supported by Scripture that don't meet the mark on any level are not shared or posted. We are not followers of Jonathan Cahn as there are many beliefs we don't hold in common. However, these are shared that you too may be barakah (blessed) by the wisdom of "The Teacher."]

Further Sabbath Reading includes more on the subject of counterfeits and impersonators.

Being a Berean - There are two defining characteristics of the Bereans that will be adopted by all those who seek a heavenly home with their Messiah and Savior. These are 1) being willing to "HEAR" something that is otherwise foreign to them, and 2) "SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES DAILY to see if these things are so." While these Bereans are often honored for what they did, most folks today fall short of their example. Why? Because of their deep-seated views and long-honored Reformers, Rabbi's, Pastor's, presumed Prophets, and church doctrines. Then all things seemingly new, are judged by these. Here is the problem. Our Eternal Father is now and will continue vetting all who seek an eternal home. All are judged in part by what they believe, but mostly by whether they hear the voice of the Father & Son speaking to them directly today. If they are not able to hear His voice, because their allegiance is to another, even if they believe that person or organization speaks for Him, they will not receive admittance. It is only those who hear His still small voice and are willing to walk in the light of the truths who will be granted admission. He has saved for the end of time many precious truths to restore among His obedient and trusting followers. All others will be found miserably, poor, blind, and naked

Constantine's Creation of Jesus Christ

YAHUAH will deliver us from this Luciferian Technocratic Dictatorship.

15 My eyes are ever on YAHUAH,
for only he will release my feet from the snare.

16 Turn to me and be gracious to me,
for I am lonely and afflicted.

17 Relieve the troubles of my heart
and free me from my anguish.

18 Look on my affliction and my distress
and take away all my sins.

19 See how numerous are my enemies,
and how fiercely they hate me!

20 Guard my life and rescue me;
do not let me be put to shame,
for I take refuge in you.

21 May integrity and uprightness protect me,
because my hope, YAHUAH, is in you.

22 Deliver Yasharal [your faithful], O Alahim,
from all our troubles!

(Tehilim/Psalm 25:15-22)
