

Shabbat Shalom, fellow lunar Sabbatarians!

Today, 08-07-2021, although coincident to the Roman Gregorian calendar solar Saturday, it is the authentic second lunar Sabbath of our Creator's Fourth Lunar Month that begins in the spring.

He placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to YAHUAH Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths, and annual Feast Days are not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does, in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only YAHUAH'S Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts "eyes to see and ears to hear." Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

"Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, YAHUAH. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness." Psalms 89:15-16

THE MYSTERY OF THE PLURALITIES

Jonathan Cahn

We stood on the flat top roof of one of the school buildings from which we took in a vast panorama of the surrounding desert landscape.

"Today," said the teacher, "we bring together the pluralities...those mystery words of Hebrew that can only be expressed in the plural. Tell me what you remember of them.

“Elohim (Alahim),” I said, “the word for the Creator God.”

“God, who transcends all things and all that we think He is.”

“Chayim, the word for life,”

“That life is more than this life and, in Alahim, it is unending.”

“Rachamim, the love of Alahim, His mercy and compassion.”

“That there is no limiting of His mercy and no end of His love.”

“Shamayim, the word for heaven.”

“That there’s always more to heaven than you think there is.”

“Jerusalem...Yerushalayim, the City of Alahim.”

“That there are always two Jerusalems, that which you see and that which is beyond seeing, that which is, and that which is yet to come.

“Do you see any pattern,” he asked, “anything that binds them all together?”

“They all bear the property of transcendence.”

“They do,” he said. “And together they bear another revelation. Chayim, life everlasting. Where will we spend it? In Shamayim, heaven. Where specifically? Yerushalayim, in the New Jerusalem, the Jerusalem above, which is yet to come. And what will be flowing in that city? Mayim, yet another of the pluralities, the river of living waters. And what will fill up the New Jerusalem? The Panim, the Face of Alahim. And what will be the essence of heaven and that which fills up its every moment? Rachamim, the infinite, overflowing, never-ending love of Alahim. And what will it all center on? It will all center on Alahim (God). For what are all the pluralities about? That which is beyond. And so they will all be part of the beyond. And they tell us that the things of Alahim are beyond containing and beyond the end. Alahim is beyond all that is spoken of Him, beyond all that is thought and imagined of Him, and beyond all the praises that are lifted to Him. He is beyond even the beyond. For His love to us...His love to you...has no limits and no end. It is beyond all things from everlasting to everlasting.”

The Mission: Take time today to meditate and dwell on where you will dwell forever, and on all its never-ending and everlasting pluralities. 1 Corinthians 2:9; Ephesians 3:2-21; Revelation 22:1-5.

[Disclaimer: Please note that “The Book of Mysteries” is Jonathan Cahn’s notes from the lessons he received while spending a year under the tutelage of “The Teacher” in Yasharal (Israel). I have found many of these to be worthy to share and will make additional comments on them as needed. Those teachings not supported by Scripture that don’t meet the mark on any level are not shared or posted. We are not followers of Jonathan Cahn as there are many beliefs we don’t hold in common. However, these are shared that you too may be barakah (blessed) by the wisdom of “The Teacher.”]
