

Shabbat Shalom, fellow lunar Sabbatarians!

Today, 08-21-2021, although coincident to the Roman Gregorian calendar solar Saturday, it is the authentic fourth lunar Sabbath of our Creator's Fourth Lunar Month. The full New Moon of the Fifth Month will be witnessed on the night of 08-22-2021, making New Moon Day 08-23-2021.

He placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to YAHUAH Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths, and annual Feast Days are not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does, in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only YAHUAH'S Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts "eyes to see and ears to hear." Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

"Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, YAHUAH. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness." Psalms 89:15-16

THE APOKALUPSIS (The Apocalypse)

By Jonathan Cahn

We were all sitting around the campfire, the teacher and I, along with several other students. But because I was sitting next to him, only I could hear his words as he read from the scroll in his hand.

“The dragon stood on the shore of the sea. And I saw a beast coming out of the sea. It had ten horns and seven heads, with ten crowns on its horns, and on each head a blasphemous name.’ It’s from the Book of Revelation, he said, “the apocalypse.”

“It definitely sounds apocalyptic.”

“Many fear the apocalypse. Do you?”

“I guess.”

“But do you know what the most apocalyptic of things is? . . . A wedding.”

“How could a wedding be apocalyptic?”

“The word apocalypse comes from the Greek apokalupsis, which in turn comes from two root words: apo, which means ‘away’ or to ‘remove,’ and kalupsis, which means a veil or covering. So the apocalypse is the removing of the veil. It speaks of the revealing, the opening of the vision concerning the end. But there’s another connection. When you get to the end of the Bible and to the end of the apocalypse, you find there a bride and a Bridegroom. You find a wedding.

In the ancient Hebrew marriage, on the day of the wedding, when the bride and groom, after their long separation, now stand face-to-face, the bride lifts the veil from her face – the removing of the veil, the apokalupsis, the apocalypse. So the two stand there, with no veils and no more separations, face-to-unveiled-face.

In the same way, there will come a day, a wedding day, when all veils will be removed and we will see Him as He is, and He will see us as we are, unveiled, face-to-face. You see,” said the teacher, “we are all heading to one apocalypse or another, the apocalypse of judgment or, in salvation, the apocalypse of the wedding. And if you are of the wedding, then you must even now come before Him and remove your veil and your coverings, with no more separations and nothing hidden. For only if you come as you are, can you know Him as He is. And only then will He be able to touch you as you must be touched and changed. Learn the secret of living as on the day of the wedding . . . even now . . . with no coverings . . . in the apokalupsis of the bride and groom . . . face-to-face . . . and beyond the veil.”

The Mission: Come to Alahim (God) today in the apokalupsis of the bride, unveiled nothing hidden, and nothing covered.

[Disclaimer: Please note that “The Book of Mysteries” is Jonathan Cahn’s notes from the lessons he received while spending a year under the tutelage of “The Teacher” in Yasharal (Israel). I have found many of these to be worthy to share and will make additional comments on them as needed. Those teachings not supported by Scripture that don’t meet the mark on any level are not shared or posted. We are not followers of Jonathan Cahn as there are many beliefs we don’t hold in common. However, these are shared that you too may be barakah (blessed) by the wisdom of “The Teacher.”]

As things in this world are cranking up to the FEAR-FACTOR level, it is a substance of peace and a constant expectation of HOPE to dwell upon that great and marvelous day when our Messiah returns for His bride. May each of us be counted worthy. May we all be clothed in the wedding garments. May we each awaken when the call goes out, “Behold the Bridegroom Comes, Go out to meet Him!” May our lamps be filled with oil, trimmed and burning bright. May we know when to enter at the door before it is closed. May this be our perpetual prayer.
