

Shabbat Shalom, fellow lunar Sabbatarians!

Today, 11-04-2021, although coincident with the Roman Gregorian calendar solar Thursday, it is the authentic second lunar Sabbath of our Creator's Seventh Lunar Month count that begins in the spring. In addition, today is the first day of the annual seven-day FEAST OF TABERNACLES.

He placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to YAHUAH Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths, and annual Feast Days are not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does, in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only YAHUAH'S Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts "eyes to see and ears to hear." Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

"Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, YAHUAH. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness." Psalms 89:15-16

CAMPING IN HEAVEN

By Jonathan Cahn

It was Sukkot, the Feast of Tabernacles. The students were sleeping outside in sukkahs—tabernacles of branches, wood, and fruit. I was one of them. During the night the teacher paid me a visit. We sat and talked through the night.

“This is how it looked,” he said, “in Jerusalem, in the days of the Temple. The Holy City was filled with tabernacles inside of which the people of Israel lived for the seven days of the festival. They were to dwell as they did when they journeyed through the wilderness to the Promised Land, as a commemoration and memorial of that event. Is there anything strange about that?”

“They were camping out in their homeland, living in the Promised Land as if they were still living in the wilderness.”

“And what does the Promised Land ultimately represent? Heaven! And what does the wilderness represent? The journey to heaven...our days on earth. So if those in the Promised Land are living in tabernacles to remember how Yahuah Alahim (God) guided and protected them when they journeyed in the wilderness, will not we in heaven remember our days on earth and give thanks to Him for His keeping us through our journeying there? You see, in the Feast of Tabernacles, the two realms, the Promised Land and the wilderness, come together. And that joining bears witness of a mystery: The realm of heaven and the realm of earth are joined. What you do in the earthly realm touches the realm of the heavenly. And what is done in the heavenly realm touches the earthly. While on earth, you are to store up treasures in heaven. And what you bind on earth is bound in heaven. When you pray, you are to pray that as it is in heaven, it will be on earth. And as you pray on earth, you are to enter the heavenly throne of Yahuah Alahim (God). Messiah is the mediator between the two. He is the joining of the heavenly with the earthly. So those who live trusting in the Messiah and walking as He walked, are to live in both realms, in the joining together of two realms. You see, in the realm of salvation, heaven is not only there and then, but it is also here and now.”

“Learn the mystery of the Feast of Tabernacles (Sukkot) and the secret of living in the realm of the heavenly even now. For if those in the Promised Land can dwell in the tabernacles of the wilderness, then we on the wilderness journey can dwell even now...in the tabernacles of heaven.”

The Mission: Learn the secret, while living in the earthly realm, to dwell in the heavenly realm. Live in the realm of heaven and earth as one. Leviticus 23:40-43; Ephesians 2:6; Revelation 7:9

[Disclaimer: Please note that “The Book of Mysteries” is Jonathan Cahn’s notes from the lessons he received while spending a year under the tutelage of “The Teacher” in Yasharal (Israel). I have found many of these to be worthy to share and will make additional comments on them as needed. Those teachings not supported by Scripture that don’t meet the mark on any level are not shared or posted. We are not followers of Jonathan Cahn as there are many beliefs we don’t hold in common. However, these are shared that you too may be barakah (blessed) by the wisdom of “The Teacher.”]

Comments by Kerrie French

This short presentation by Jonathan Cahn lays a magnificent foundation for understanding Sukkot (Feast of Tabernacles). When we celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles it signifies that we desire to be saved and enter the Promised Land. But secondly, it defines us as THE SAVED who are looking back on our earthly wilderness experience and giving all the GLORY, HONOR, and PRAISE to YAHUSHA haMashiach for His tender leading and the ETERNAL FATHER’S forgiveness. How many times have we made a mess of things only to receive pardon?

The redeemed now all dressed in white raiment, living in the abundant blessings where there is no death and the trees, grass, and flowers are in perpetual bloom. The Tree of Life yields its variety of fruit each lunar month. The leaves and fruit are for the healing of the SAVED unto ETERNAL LIFE.

“And he showed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding from the throne of Alahim (God) and of the Lamb.

In the middle of its street, and on either side of the river, was the tree of life, which bore twelve fruits, each tree yielding its fruit every month. The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

And there shall be no more curse, but the throne of Alahim and the Lamb shall be in it, and His servants shall serve Him.

They shall see His face, and His name shall be on their foreheads.

There shall be no night there: They need no lamp nor light of the sun, for Yahuah Alahim (God) gives them light. And they shall reign forever and ever.”

Revelation 22:1-5

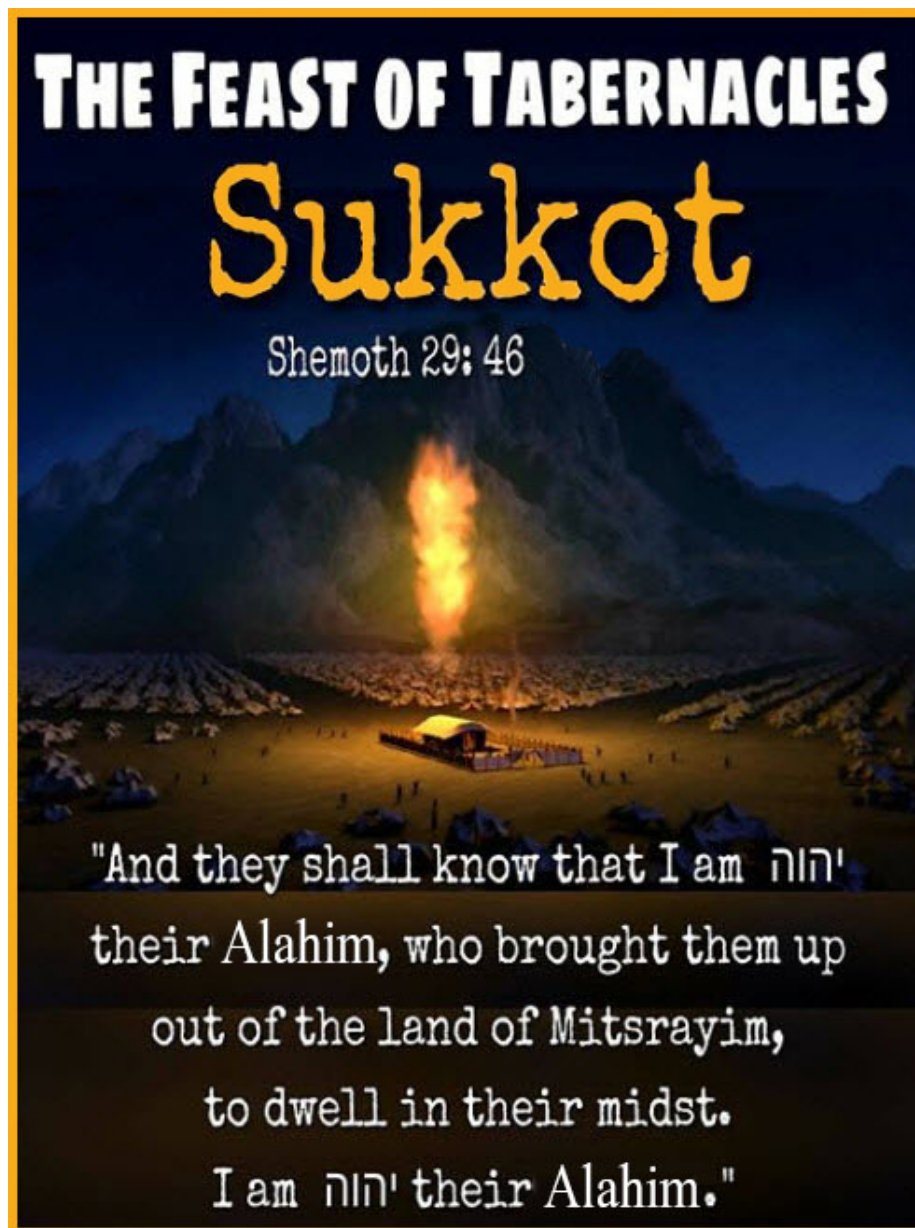

Stunningly, through all eternity the SAVED from the earth will be going up from year to year to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles in the middle of the Seventh Lunar Month. With the GREATEST of JOY and ADDULATION, they will try to recount the great struggles and hardships but then declare “HEAVEN IS CHEAP ENOUGH.” “O death, where is your sting? O grave, where is your victory? 1 Corinthians 15:55

The church that I was raised in taught that the only reminder of sin, suffering, and the events of earth, will be the nail prints in the hands and feet of our Messiah. I believe these will be visible, and forever the most significant signs of YAHUAH’S and YAHUSHA’S GREAT LOVE, just as He had presented them to doubting Thomas in the upper room. But additionally, there will be the iconic annual Feast Days repeated in their order and in their preordained LUNAR APPOINTED TIMES that will for all ETERNITY bring RAPTUROUS PRAISE to both YAHUAH ALAHIM and His SON, YAHUSHA haMashiach as we recount their tireless work of SALVATION to FORGIVE, GUIDE, and RESTORE US, their FAITHFUL and OBEDIENT, back to themselves.

HalleluYAH!!!

SONG: Sukkot Song - by MiYah (Music is not as good as the videography, consider turning off the sound.)

Resting Place – Sukkot Special [Hebrew Worship Sessions]

Barak hashem YAHUSHA haMashiach! (Bless the name of YAHUSHA the Messiah!) Have a blessed Feast of Tabernacles (Sukkot). HalleluYAH!!!

Kerrie French

TheCreatorsCalendar.com

