

Shabbat Shalom, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) Lunar New Moons and Sabbaths!

Today, 04-01-2022, although coincident with the Roman Gregorian calendar solar Friday, it is the authentic second lunar Sabbath of our Creator's Twelfth Lunar Month count that begins in the spring.

He placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to YAHUAH Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths, and annual Feast Days is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does, in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only YAHUAH'S Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts "eyes to see and ears to hear." Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

"Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, YAHUAH. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness."
Psalms 89:15-16

The Bride in Waiting

As things in this world are cranking up to the FEAR-FACTOR level with war and rumors of war, it is a substance of peace and a constant expectation of HOPE to dwell upon that great and marvelous day when our Messiah returns for His bride the second time. May each of us be counted worthy? May we all be clothed in the wedding garments? May we each awaken when the call goes out, “Behold the Bridegroom Comes, Go out to meet Him!” May our lamps be filled with oil, trimmed, and burning bright? And finally, may we know when to enter at the door before it is closed. May this be our perpetual prayer?

We will open this most momentous subject with an introduction from the "Teacher," as recorded by Jonathan Cahn.

The Bride in Waiting

“Behold the CALAH,” said the teacher, as he drew my attention to a young woman in the tent village. “It’s how you say ‘the bride’ in Hebrew. Do you remember when the bridegroom made his visit? It was for her, His beloved.”

“And yet she’s still here,” I said. “She’s the bride but not yet married.”

“In the Hebrew wedding, the bridegroom journeys to the house of the bride. There in that house, or tent, the covenant is made. They are from that moment on considered bride and groom, husband and wife. But the bridegroom must then leave the bride and her house and journey back to where he came from. The two are joined in the covenant of marriage. But they don't see each other until the day of the wedding. They spend their time preparing for that day."

"But for the bride, it seems as if nothing's changed. She still lives with her family in that tent. She's still doing her daily chores. Her surroundings are the same. Her life is the same. She's married, but what's changed?"

"She's changed," he said. "She is now the calah (the bride)!"

"I don't understand."

"Two thousand years ago the Bridegroom journeyed to the house of the bride. Our Messiah journeyed to this world, to our house, into our lives. And, likewise, the purpose was to make a covenant.

According to the mystery, the bridegroom must leave the bride's house and return home. So Messiah then left this world to return to His heavenly home. So these now are the days of the separation. The Groom is in His house, in heaven. And we, as the bride, are in our house, this world. And if you've said "YES" to the Bridegroom's covenant, you are as she is. You're still in the same tent, this present world ... waiting. Things around you may look the same and feel the same. Your life, your circumstances may look unchanged. But something very big has changed...you. It is not the tent that has changed, or your world, but you.

And so you are no longer of the world. You're in the world, but no longer of it. You no longer belong to your circumstances, nor to your past, nor to your sins and limitation. No longer are you bound to these things. You don't belong to the world. You belong to the Bridegroom!

You're free from this world, because you're the beloved and chosen calah (the bride) of YAHUSHA haMashiach!" "Book of Mysteries," The Bride in the Tent, by Jonathan Cahn, pg. 93

The Bridal Covenant

It is still true, that two thousand years ago, the long promised Messiah, by His Hebrew name, YAHUSHA haMashiach, made His way to earth, the house of His Bride. While here, He displayed His eternal love for His beloved, in that He laid down His life for her on Passover, the 14th day counted from His original and authentic full New Moon. All are invited to enter into the covenant as the adored and beloved bride. But alas, only a handful, 144,000 will say “YES” to His covenant agreement and will be SEALED and then spend their time set-apart, in waiting, preparing themselves for that great day. Note: Last Sabbath’s message entitled “The Song of the Stone” introduced the concept of the Seder (Passover meal), as being one and the same as the Last Supper. Historically, the Jewish tradition referred to as the Passover Seder always occurred upon the 14th of Abib, as counted from the New Moon in the spring. But the question often arises as to when was the Last Supper? And how could these be the same thing? So I invite you to read an article I prepared on this subject that will help explain them. Barak hashem YAHUSHA haMashiach! (Bless the name of YAHUSHA the Messiah!)
