

Shabbat Shalom, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days!

Today is the 29th day, the authentic fourth lunar Sabbath of our Creator's Second Lunar Month count that begins in the spring. It is coincident with the Roman Gregorian calendar 06-13-2022 and its solar Monday.

He placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to YAHUAH Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths, and annual Feast Days is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does, in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only YAHUAH'S Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts "eyes to see and ears to hear." Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

"Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, YAHUAH. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness." Psalms 89:15-16

THE HOUSE OF BREAD

By Jonathan Cahn

It was a mystery that had the added benefit of a midday snack. We were sitting on the desert sand and the teacher offered me some bread, which I accepted.

“Lechem,” he said. “It’s Hebrew for bread. The word is used in Jewish (Yahudim) prayers to represent food and sustenance. Why do you think bread is so important?”

“Because it’s ‘the staff of life.’ It’s a basic necessity. It sustains us. It keeps us alive. It’s what we need for growth.”

“That’s correct,” he said. “In Hebrew, the word for place, house, and dwelling, is beit (or beth). When you put the beit together with lechem, you get beit lechem, which would mean...”

“The place of bread or the house of bread.”

“And what would you expect to find in the house of bread?”

“Bread...of course.”

“You’d expect to find bread, the staff of life in the house of bread. You’d expect to find that which sustains you, what you need above all things.”

“I don’t understand.”

“Only because you don’t recognize it yet.”

“Recognize what?”

“Beit lechem, the house of bread. You already know it. It’s Bethlehem.”

“Bethlehem!” I said. “The house of bread! And so it’s there that we find the bread, that which we need most, that which sustains us, our most basic necessity, the staff of life... in Bethlehem!”

“Yes,” said the teacher, “so if what we needed most was money, if money was the bread of our lives, then what we’d find in Bethlehem, the house of bread, would be money. If what we needed most was success, then we’d find success there. Or if it was acceptance or pleasures or substances or careers or possessions or any other thing we desired. If any of these were what we needed most, then that’s what we would have found in Bethlehem. But we didn’t find any of those things there. What is it that we find in Bethlehem?”

“Him”

“Yes, Him. We find the Messiah [Yahusha], who has come down from heaven to the place, the house where we dwell. So what does this reveal?”

“That more than anything else...we need HIM.”

“Yes. What we find in the house of bread...is the Bread of Life.”

The Mission: Stop filling your needs and desire with that which is not bread. Fill your heart with the love, the presence, and the fullness of your true bread—[Yahusha haMashiach] the Messiah. Micah 5:2; John 6:32-35

Kerrie’s Comments

Every year the Christian churches celebrate the birth of “Jesus Christ,” born in Bethlehem, one day only on “Christmas,” the reality is that we need bread (lechem) for sustenance every day. This is so often overlooked.

Additionally, when we substitute His sacred name with that of another, and celebrate at any appointed time other than His preordained appointed time, it creates an entire disconnect. Meaning we are not really celebrating with Him nor meeting His appointment. Stunningly, His true birthday is revealed in Scripture, but those who have bought the Roman holiday paradigm for Christian celebrations, will never find it. However, “And the times of this ignorance, Alahim/Elohim winked at; but now commands all men everywhere to repent.” Acts 17:30

Today is an opportunity to know when Yahusha haMashiach was born, that we may celebrate this lunar appointed time with Him at its set time in a few months. His preordained Holy Days (Feast Days) were provided as the pathway, His only ordered Holy days (Feast days) unto Salvation. So it is that every day, and all day long, our greatest need is for Him to abide and dwell (beit or beth) in our hearts, His house.

“Know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost [Ruach], which is in you, which ye have of Yahuah Alahim, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price. Therefore glorify Yahuah in your body, and in your spirit, which are Yahuah’s.” 1 Corinthians 6:19-20.
