

Shabbat Shalom, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days!

Today is the 22nd day of our Creator's Third Lunar Month count that begins in the spring. It is also the authentic first lunar Sabbath of the month. It is coincident with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary Wed., 06-22, 2022.

He placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to YAHUAH Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths, and annual Feast Days is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does, in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only YAHUAH'S Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts "eyes to see and ears to hear." Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

"Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, YAHUAH. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness." Psalms 89:15-16

THE ROAD TO ZION

By Jonathan Cahn

We walked a wilderness path that was at times rocky and winding, and at a few points, treacherous. At the other times it became wider, more even, and easier, as when it traversed valleys and plains. At one point in the journey, the teacher asked me, “How would you name this road?”

“The rocky Road,” I replied.

Then, as the terrain changed, he asked again, “And now what would you call this road?”

“The Sandy Road,” I replied.

This went on throughout the journey every time there was a dramatic change in scenery. There was no shortage of names I gave it: “the Winding Road,” “The Open Road,” “the Valley Road,” “the Treacherous Road,” “the Dark Road,” and on and on – until we reached our destination.

“Every time I asked you what you would call the road,” said the teacher, “you came up with a name based on what the road looked like or how it felt. And many roads are so named. But in the Holy Land, it’s different. The most famous roads in Israel are not named for what they look like or feel like, nor on their condition. Instead, they have names like the Road to Bethlehem, the Damascus Road, Emmaus Road, and the Jericho Road.”

“So the most famous roads in Israel are named for places.”

“Not just places, but their destinations. Their names come not from what they look like but where they take you. This is the secret of the roads that lead to Zion,” said the teacher. “So too in the journey of your life, you will find the road to be at times rocky, at times smooth, harder, easier, dangerous, pleasant, unbearable, and joyful. But you must never make the mistake of judging the road of your life by what it looks like or feels like. A pleasant road may lead off a cliff. And a hard and rocky road may lead to the Holy City. A pleasant road may lead to hell, and a hard and difficult way may lead to blessing and eternal life. Always look to the end of your course, to where it’s taking you. And if you’re on the right road, don’t get discouraged by the terrain. Never give up. Keep pressing forward to your destination. Because it is the end that matters most. And your road, and the journey of your life, will not be known by its terrain, but by the place to which it brought you.”

The Mission: Today, take your eyes off your circumstances and focus on your destination. Press on to the good, the highest, and the heavenly.

[Disclaimer: Please note that "The Book of Mysteries" is Jonathan Cahn's notes from the lessons he received while spending a year under the tutelage of "The Teacher" in Yasharal (Israel). I have found many of these to be worthy to share and will make additional comments on them as needed. Those teachings not supported by Scripture that don't meet the mark on any level are not shared or posted. We are not followers of Jonathan Cahn as there are many beliefs we don't hold in common. However, these are shared that you too may be barakah (blessed) by the wisdom of "The Teacher."]
