

Happy New Moon Day, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) Lunar New Moons and Sabbaths!

Today is Day One of the Creator's authentic Fifth Lunar Month although coincident with the Roman Gregorian calendar solar Friday, 08-12-22. His years are measured from spring to spring. Each month, it is an awe-inspiring sight to watch the full moon arise in the East and make its way along the east-west time continuum under our Creator's tireless direction. Then to see with your own eyes that moment when the sun's first rays shine forth to greet the descending full moon. They greet each other with a nod and agreement that indeed, this moment, while together visible from opposite coordinates, marks the start of the new lunar month. Honoring His New Moons as declared from His sacred Torah Law shows Him who desires to enter in through the pearly gates of His Eternal Kingdom government. I Hope to see you there! HalleluYah!

“Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, YAHUAH. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness.” Psalms 89:15-16

THE TALEH

By Jonathan Cahn

He took me through a ravine that opened up into a valley. In the valley, a boy was tending a flock of sheep and lambs. One of the lambs had wandered off in our direction.

“Look,” said the teacher, “a lamb, the most defenseless of creatures, so defenseless it needs a boy to protect it. And yet it is of cosmic importance.”

“How?” I asked.

“The lamb is the master theme of Yahuah’s Word. In Genesis, a boy asks his father, ‘Where is the lamb...?’ That’s the question of Scripture. On Passover, it is the lamb that dies to save the firstborn son of each house. The nation of Yasharal (Israel) is saved by the blood of the lamb. Then in the Temple of Jerusalem, lambs are offered up in sacrifice every day of every year. And then, in the fifty-third chapter of Isaiah, it prophesied that a man will give His life as a sacrificial lamb, ‘as a lamb to the slaughter,’ and by His death, we will find healing, forgiveness, blessing, [and eternal life]. Do you see the theme?”

“The lamb is the life given to save, bless, [and restore mankind back to the Eternal Father, Yahuah].

“Yes, and to cover our sins. In Hebrew, taleh means lamb. And from taleh also comes the word that means covering. The Lamb will be our covering. So who is the Lamb? In all of world history, is there anyone known above all for giving His life, as an offering, as a sacrifice, that we might be saved, [and covered with His robe of righteousness]?”

“There’s only one I know of,” I replied. “And wasn’t He called ‘the Lamb’?”

“Yes said the teacher, “Messiah, the Lamb of God, the Taleh of Alahim. It was all about the Lamb from the beginning, the answer was always linked to the Lamb. But why a lamb in the first place?”

“I don’t know.”

“What the lamb means is this: There will be One who is entirely pure, innocent, without blemish, without evil...and this One will give His life to save those who are not innocent. But what is without blemish, what is entirely pure and good? What is the mystery of the lamb?”

“Tell me.”

“The mystery of the lamb is all about the love of Yahuah, the Eternal Father for us. The mystery is that He gave His only begotten Son, the Lamb, to save us. For Yahuah is Love! And the nature of love is to give of itself. The Taleh, the Lamb... is the most beloved Son of our Eternal Father.

The Mission: Today, live in the spirit of the Lamb. Let everything you do be done in love. And live to make your life a blessing to others. Genesis 22:1-18; Isaiah 53:7; 1 Peter 1:18-19; Revelation 5:6-13.

Kerrie's Comments: The Lamb sacrificed for mankind, is the mystery that reveals the heart of our Creator and His Son. Who can fathom that kind of love? It permeates every story in Scripture and is the only method whereby mankind may be forgiven and restored through His Grace, so that we may live eternally with Him.

While Jonathan Cahn's teacher utilizes Taleh for the lamb, I could not find it in the Hebrew Dictionary. I did find two other words for lamb. 1) (H#7716 - שֶׁה - seh); 2) (H#3532 - כֶּבֶשׂ - kebes). I believe the most important one highlights the very name of our Messiah so that no one would miss the meaning. While the Father's name is YHUH (Yahuah), the Son's name is YHUSH (Yahusha). Notice that the Son's name begins as the Father's but ends with an added "sh" sound.

This "sh" comes from the Hebrew word (H#7716 - שֶׁה - seh). But it has been manipulated. The dot over the "sh" has been moved from the right side to the left above the ש. In contrast, it should look like this שׁ which gives it the "sha" sound. Most folks are not aware that there has been an exerted effort by the Romans and Jews alike over the last 1,700 years to eliminate any evidence of the Messiah's true name, and that Yahusha the Messiah has already come and laid down His life as the Lamb slain, the promise from the beginning. So even though all of the Hebrew Dictionaries illustrate the word (H7716 - שֶׁה - seh). It still means the lamb.

Strong's Hebrew Dictionary

H7716

śeh śêy

Last night the full moon rose in the east and made its way across the night sky ruling in the fifth constellation (commonly referred to as Aquarius). It was a beautiful sight. A time to blow the shofar. (I blow it when it rises, and then again in the morning.) Then this morning at sunrise the setting full moon in the west and the rising sun in the east greeted each other above the horizon for all to see. These are the two witnesses that announce the new month has begun. Isn't it marvelous how simple it is to know when each month begins along with the count days and weeks.

I Enter the Holy of Holies ~ Paul Wilbur

Hoshiana ~ Joshua Aaron

(As I sing along, it has become my habit to change out all the replacement names for Yah, Yahuah, Yahusha, or Alahim as the song requires.)

Barak hashem YAHUSHA haMashiach! (Bless the name of YAHUSHA the Messiah!)
