

Shabbat Shalom, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days according to the full moon as the start of months!

Today is the 29th day of our Creator's Seventh Lunar Month count that begins in the spring. It is also the authentic fourth lunar Sabbath of the month. It is coincident with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary Mon., 11-06-2022.

He placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and the start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to YAHUAH Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths, and annual Feast Days is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does, in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only YAHUAH'S Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts "eyes to see and ears to hear." Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

"Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, YAHUAH. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness." Psalms 89:15-16

THE STRANGER AT THE WELL

By Jonathan Cahn

We were sitting on the same hill and overlooking the same camp where we had previously seen several women converge on a well in the late afternoon. But it was now midday. And there was no one at the well but a single woman with a clay pitcher in her hand. She was standing there as if lost in thought.

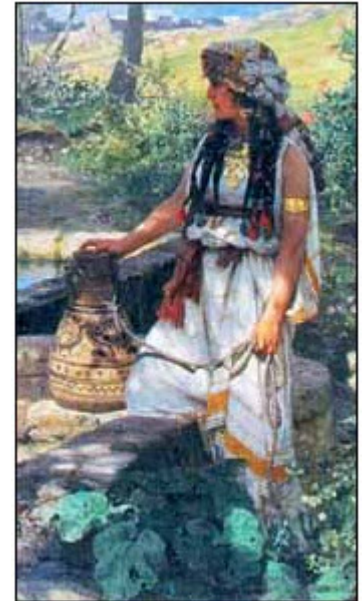

“Did you ever wonder why Rebekah met Abraham’s trusted servant at the well,” asked the teacher?

“It would make sense,” I replied. “The women would go there to draw water, just as would Abraham’s servant after a long journey to draw water for his camels.”

“Yes, but YHUH (Yahuah Alahim) planned the encounter from the beginning. And did you know that meeting the bride at a well is a theme in Scripture? Isaac’s wife was found at the well, Isaac’s son Jacob would find his wife Rachel also at a well, and even Moses would find his wife, Zipporah, at a well. The bride is found at the well.”

“And why is that?”

“A well is the place where the thirsty come to drink, a place where needs are fulfilled. Remember what Abraham’s servant represented, the Ruach or presence of Yahuah Alahim, as the Servant of the Father. Why at a well? Because the Father’s Servant always meets the bride at a well. That’s where the Ruach haKadosh (holy Presence of Yah) meets us, at a well, in our place of need, thirst, and emptiness. It’s in our need that we’re most open. That’s when most people meet Yahuah Alahim, receive the Ruach, and become the bride.

You see, need is not a bad thing, nor is emptiness. It’s what you do with it that matters. Everyone has needs, everyone thirsts, and every heart knows emptiness. But that’s where the Ruach will meet you, at the well, in your place of need and emptiness. And so it becomes a holy place. And He will meet you there not just once, but all the days of your life. So don’t despise your needs. Don’t try to extinguish the thirst of your soul or fight the emptiness of your heart. In Yahuah Alahim, such things become sacred. Let them instead fulfill their purpose, to bring you closer, to the Bridegroom, and to the filling up of those needs with the waters of the Spirit.

So the next time you find yourself thirsting, longing, and feeling the pangs of emptiness, bring your thirst to His waters. And there you will find a stranger, a sacred Guest, and a holy Visitor who has come to meet you at the well.”

The Mission: Take every need, want, emptiness, desire, or longing and direct it away from the world, to the Ruach and the heavenly. Genesis 24:11-28; Isaiah 12:3; Isaiah 55:1; John 4:7-14.

Kerrie's Comments: For those up for a challenge I submit to you a video put out by Atheists declaring "The Real Truth About Religion and the Origin of Christianity and Jesus Christ." I have identified many errors with the presentation. Please know that this is not meant to cause anyone to lose their faith, but to challenge you to identify the many problems and errors that in turn bolsters your faith. It is not meant for children to watch as it would be disturbing. Feel free to list the problems and send them to me if you wish. You may discover some that I didn't.

First Century Historians

None of the following 1st Century A.D. Historians have made mention of anyone by the name of Jesus.

Aulus Perseus (60 AD)	Plutarch (46 AD - 119 AD)
Columella (1st cent. AD)	Pomponius Mela (40 AD)
Dio Chrysostrom (40 - 112 AD)	Rufus Curtius (1st cent. AD)
Justus of Tiberius (80 AD)	Quintilian (35 - 100 AD)
Livy (59 BC - 17 AD)	Quintus Curtius (1st cent. AD)
Lucanus (63 AD)	Seneca (4 BC - 65 AD)
Lucius Florus (1st - 2nd cent. AD)	Silius Italicus (25-101 AD)
Petronius (66 AD)	Statius Caelicius (1st cent. AD)
Phaedrus (15 BC - 50 AD)	Theon of Smyrna (70-135 AD)
Philo Judaeus (20 BC - 50 AD)	Valerius Flaccus (1st cent. AD)
Phelgon (1st cent. AD)	Valerius Maximus (20 AD)
Pliny the Elder (23 - 69 AD)

There are three historians who refer to Christ:

Pliny the Younger (61 - 113 AD)... refers only to "Christ."

Setonius (1st cent. AD) ... refers only to "Chrestus."

Tacitus (56 - 120 AD) ... refers only to "Christus."

In each case Christ is a reference only to the "Anointed One" (Messiah), which is not a name but a title. His name (Hebrew or Greek version) is not mentioned.

The only historian who refers to Jesus Christ is Flavius Josephus (37 - 100 AD). But this has been challenged for hundreds of years by those claiming the name "Jesus" to be a forgery. Meaning, if or when there was a Messiah, He was known by a different name. There is evidence that the "Correctories of Rome," while claiming to improve errors, actually altered historical facts to support their Christianized agenda in opposition to all things Hebrew. So we are left with the following options:

1. Christ or Messiah by any name has never existed to Redeem mankind.
2. The Messiah does exist, but did not come under the name "Jesus," but had a different name (Yahusha, which was later changed by the Correctories of Rome.
