

Shabbat Shalom, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days according to the full moon as the start of months!

Today is the 22nd day of our Creator's Tenth Lunar Month count that begins in the spring. It is also the authentic Third lunar Sabbath of the month. It is coincident with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary date of Sat., 01-28-2023.

He placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and the start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to YAHUAH Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths, and annual Feast Days is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does, in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only YAHUAH'S Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts "eyes to see and ears to hear." Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

“Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, YAHUAH. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness.” Psalms 89:15-16

KNOCKING AT THE DOOR!

"As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: Be zealous therefore and repent. Behold I stand at the door, and knock." — Revelation 3:19-20.

YAHUSHA, HAMASHIACH (the Messiah), KNOCKS at the door when His Judgments are on the earth. That YAHUAH, the MOST HIGH has arisen to shake mightily the earth is hardly doubtful. This is a day of YAHUAH of Hosts when judgments are abroad upon all that is proud and haughty, upon the cedars and the oaks, upon the high mountains and the uplifted hills. But it is at such a time that He draws near to reassure us (Isaiah 2:11-21 and Joel 3:16).

On the eve of the overthrow of the Cities of the Plain (Sodom, Gomorrah, and three others), He came to the door of Abraham's tent, partook of his hospitality, and gave promises of assurance to Abraham and Sarah which unfolded His Divine purposes. Standing before the MOST HIGH, Abraham was equipped for the tragedy of the morrow and was permitted an intimacy in which he seemed possessed by a passion for YAHUAH's rectitude and righteous dealing.

Do not fear the things that are coming, but open your heart to Him who knocks for admission. He has come to spend the dark hours in your fellowship, as a mother runs to her child's bed when a sudden thunderstorm sweeps the sky.

Yahusha, our Messiah, knocks when we are preparing for some great task. You are going forth on one of His errands, and expect misunderstanding and opposition, or you are uncertain as to your reception. Like Moses, you say: "Send by whom You will send, but let it not be by me." With Jeremiah, you plead: "I am a child, I cannot speak." Like the Apostles, you have to face a world up in arms. At such a time, He waits at the door to encourage and inspire. On the night following the upheaval in the Sanhedrin, where Paul was nearly torn to pieces, Yahuah, the Most High stood by him, and said: "Be of good cheer!"

Our Messiah knocks when bereavement enters our homes. We all know what it is to be full of longing "for the beloved ones, whom we cannot reach by deed or token, gesture or kind speech." The ship's masts have sunk below the rim of the horizon, in the sunset, and we turn back to homes out of which all light has gone. It is then that you may surely expect a gentle knock at the door, and He who came to Bethany when Lazarus died, that He might mingle His tears with those of the sisters, will certainly come to the door of your heart, and knock for admission that He may bring help and comfort.

OUR PRAYER

Come nearer to us FATHER than the nearest. Enter our hearts, saying "Fear thou not; for I am with you. Be not dismayed, for I am your Alahim/Elohim (God). I will strengthen you. Yea, I will help you. Yea, I will uphold you with the right hand of my righteousness." Isaiah 41:10 HalleluYAH!

Kerrie responds to the televised interview with Pope Francis this week and his thoughts on Sodomy and the LGBTQ community.

In an interview this week, Pope Francis stated:

Pope Francis condemned “unjust” laws that criminalize homosexuality in an interview with The Associated Press that was published Wednesday, adding that the Roman Catholic Church should do more to put an end to such legislation and that bishops should welcome LGBTQ people into the church, especially in those countries where such laws exist.

“Being homosexual isn’t a crime,” Francis said in the interview, adding that God loved all his children just as they are. He also called on bishops who support laws that punish or discriminate against the LGBTQ community, which exist in more than five dozen countries worldwide, to undergo a “process of conversion” and instead apply “tenderness,” he said, “as God has for each one of us.”

Francis quoted the catechism of the church, which teaches that LGBTQ people should not be marginalized but instead welcomed. But he also made clear that he stood by Catholic teaching which believes that homosexual acts, which the Catholic Church considers “intrinsically disordered,” were a sin.

“It’s not a crime,” Francis said of homosexuality during the 75-minute interview conducted Tuesday in Santa Marta, the Vatican hotel he calls home, and even though the church might consider certain relations a sin, he added, “first let’s distinguish between a sin and a crime.”

“It’s also a sin to lack charity with one another,” Francis added.

The pope has made outreach to the LGBTQ community one of the pillars of his papacy. Only a few months after his election in 2013, he famously said, “Who am I to judge?” when asked during a papal flight from Brazil about priests who might be gay. In a 2020 documentary, he appeared to endorse same-sex civil unions. The Vatican later clarified that the pope believed that gay couples deserved civil protections, including legal rights and health care benefits, but that his comments had not marked a change in church doctrine.

In 2021, many in the LGBTQ community took Francis to task for a ruling issued by the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith banning priests from blessing same-sex unions, calling any such blessing “not licit.” The ruling had been issued in response to questions from some pastors and parishes that sought to be more welcoming and inclusive of gay couples.

This article originally appeared in The New York Times.

Problem #1: Pope Francis calls for church leaders and parishioners to welcome LGBTQ folks into the churches and religious assemblies. While it sounds like he is simply calling for kindness and love, in reality, it is all about calling for the acceptance of their alternative sexual and self-identifying choices. In harmony with Biblical principles, it has been said that “the church is not a shrine of saints but a hospital for sinners,” but this does not apply in this case. The reason is because of the Pope’s corrupt view of “a hospital for sinners,” in that while he desires their honorable admittance, he has removed both their ailment and their remedy. And more than that, he would like church and assembly leaders to see the homosexual and LGBTQ community as without sin, meaning he seeks to establish them as “enshrined saints” in need of nothing. This is exactly the opposite of the call for sinners to humbly ask for forgiveness and then turn away from their sins, trusting in the sacrificial merits of their Messiah to give them a new life free from the previous sin.

Problem #2: Two times in The New York Times article, above, Pope Francis swears that “Homosexuality is not a crime.” He knows this is the pivotal issue. If he can only convince lawmakers, he will be victorious in undermining morality worldwide.

Problem #3: The Pope distinguishes between sin and a crime by comparing his lie about “sin” with an obvious truth about charity (love). Yet, according to Biblical principles, “we are to love the sinner and hate the sin.” But Pope Francis desires that the churches and lawmakers not only “love the sinner but also love the sin.” Those who seek to trust the Pope at his word, and are led by popular opinion and peer pressure, rather than seek the truth in Scripture with all their hearts, will be deceived.

The Problem and the Remedy

According to Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach’s (the Messiah’s) great love and compassion for the people of this world, they will perpetually seek passage, standing at the door of our hearts and knock. Yet, each person has the choice as to whether they will open the door and let them in. And despite their great omnipotent love, the door to your heart will never be forced open. This is not a new plan, but the one ordained from the beginning. It applied to all the pre-flood world, as well as to those of the post-flood era, both before and after Yahusha haMashiach paid the price for sin (transgression of the law) by His sacrificial death. The result of refusing to open the door, and rejecting the Most High Creator and His only begotten Son into one’s heart and its corollary free gift of salvation (His death in your place), stipulates that you must pay the price for your own debt – die your own eternal death and be damned from Eternal Life. Although many believe all will be forgiven for sin and for rejecting both the Father and Son, this is not the reality that is supported by Scripture.

“For all have sinned, and come short of the honor of Yahuah Alahim. Being justified freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Yahusha haMashiach. Whom Yahuah Alahim has set forth to be a propitiation through faith in His blood [sacrifice], to declare His righteousness for the remission of past sins, through the forbearance of Yahuah Alahim. To declare His righteousness, that he [alone] is just, and the justifier of those who relies on Yahusha the Messiah.” Romans 3:23-26 The Creator’s Calendar Translation

All humanity, as descendants of Adam and Eve, are born sinners, falling short of Yahuah Alahim’s compatible coexistence. His greatest desire is to restore fallen sinners back to Himself through His Plan of Salvation and Divine mechanism. This is accomplished through the blood sacrifice of His Son and celebrated through the preordained divine appointments that mankind may commune and worship Him, aligning our soul temples with His and according to the sacred rhythm of His choosing. Remember, too that He winks in times of our ignorance, not counting things against us that we have not been privy to (Acts 17:30).

“My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge because you have rejected knowledge, I will also reject you, that you shall not be a priest to me, seeing you have forgotten the LAW of your Alahim, I will also forget your children.” Hosea 4:6

Question: What is law?

Answer: According to the Strong's Bible Dictionary and Brown-Driver-Briggs, it means – (#H8451 – Torah - תּוֹרָה = a precept, statute, instruction, direction, a body of legal directives, codes in right doing, a body of prophetic teaching).

Question: What is sin?

“Whoever commits sin transgresses also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law.” 1 John 3:4

Answer: Sin is the transgression of the law of the Most High Yahuah Alahim, our Creator, but sin is also breaking of civil law, which is an offense against our fellow mankind. According to Strong's Bible Dictionary and Brown-Driver-Briggs “sinner” means – (H#2400 – chatta - חַטָּאת = criminal, accounted guilty of breaking the law, offender of the law, sinful). Therefore sinning is specifically criminal behavior.

Question: What is transgression?

Answer: Transgression according to Strong's Bible Dictionary means – (#G458 – anomia = illegality, violation of the law, wickedness, iniquity; unrighteousness). For more clarity, this would include breaking the law, criminal activity, and the opposite of right doing.

Question: What is a crime or criminal activity?

Answer: The term “crime” is only found in the Old Testament Tanakh. According to Strong's Bible Dictionary and Brown-Driver-Briggs “crime” means – (H#2154 – zammah - זָמָה = heinous crime, bribery, mischief, destroy the poor, lewdness, wicked mindedness, evil-doing, incest, licentiousness, adultery, idolatry, harlotry).

Question: What is wickedness or wicked-mindedness?

Answer: To be wicked is to be predominantly evil. According to Strong's Bible Dictionary and Brown-Driver-Briggs “wicked” means – (H#7451 – rahah - רָעָה = evil, doing wickedness, adverse, bad, harmful, hurtful, naughty, wretched, wrong).

“But the men of Sodom were wicked and sinners before YAHUAH Alahim exceedingly.” Genesis 13:13

This means that Sodomy (homosexual acts) and other LGBTQ sexual alternatives are likewise wicked and sinful. Those who promote, celebrate, and act out these alternative behaviors according to Scripture, Strong's Bible Dictionary, and Brown-Driver-Briggs are predominantly evil, criminal, wretched, and hurtful. But as stated above, the principle laid out for us in Scripture is that “we love the sinner, and hate the sin.” Through this method, it is even possible to reach many of these folks and draw them to the foot of the cross/stake to seek forgiveness. HalleluYAH! Something the Pope will never do.

Anyone, and in this case, the Roman Catholic Pope, who has put his own spin on what constitutes “sin,” sets himself up as greater than Yahuah Alahim, the Most High Creator. His statements promoting the acceptance of homosexual sinful activity, and the LGBTQ lifestyle among churches and other assemblies, identify him as a false prophet, a liar, a blasphemer, a sinner, and a criminal, especially in light of his claim to represent Yahuah Alahim (God) on earth.

Sin is the breaking of the Torah Law of Yahuah. And the law of Yahuah is above all other laws of the land. His laws are the very substance from which all civil and moral laws are established. All legitimate laws that bring health, wellness, love, and joy to all participants have their roots in the Torah Law of our Creator. His Kingdom, which is not of this world, is established upon never-changing principles as portrayed in His Torah Law. All are invited to His Kingdom, but few will find it because they are not of the light but of the darkness. As a result, they are not able to discern His voice calling them to Him, to the foot of the cross where they may humbly confess their sins and be restored, that they may enter in and walk in the light.

We all have loved ones at varying stages, may we be encouraged that prayer changes things. May we stand fast in prayer for those who have not yet seen the light.
