

Shabbat Shalom, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days according to the full moon as the start of months!

Today is the eighth day of our Creator's Eleventh Lunar Month count that begins in the spring. It is also the authentic first lunar Sabbath of the month. It is coincident with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary date of Sun., 02-12-2023.

He placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and the start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to YAHUAH Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths, and annual Feast Days is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does, in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only YAHUAH'S Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts "eyes to see and ears to hear." Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

"Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, YAHUAH. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness." Psalms 89:15-16

THE KARAT

(To Cut a Covenant)

Jonathan Cahn

It was evening. We sat at opposite ends of a small wooden table in the center of a mostly empty chamber. Resting on the table in front of the teacher were two small parchments. “This,” he said, pointing to one of them, “is from the Book of Jeremiah, the promise of the new covenant. The prophecy begins, “Behold, the days are coming,” says Yahuah, “when I will make a new covenant with the house of Yasharal (Israel).” It ends with the words, I will forgive their iniquity, and their sin I will remember no more.” He turned the parchment around and moved it across the table so I could see the text. “But in Hebrew,” he said as he pointed to the bottom of the parchment, it doesn’t say, I will make a new covenant. The word is karat. It means to cut, as in offering up a sacrifice. The prophecy literally says, I will cut a covenant’ or I will make a new covenant through the cutting of a sacrifice.’ So according to the Hebrew prophecies, the new covenant can only begin with a sacrifice. Only then can sin be forgiven.

He lifted up the second parchment. “This is from the Book of Daniel...the prophecy of the event that will finish the transgression (sin), make an end of sins, and make atonement for iniquity,’ –the same thing promised in the new covenant. But Daniel’s prophecy will reveal the nature of the sacrifice...and its timing.”

He now moved the parchment of Daniel across the table so I could see.

“Do you know what this says?” he asked, “It says Messiah shall be cut off.’ And do you know what it says in Hebrew? Karat. It’s the same word. It means the new covenant will begin with the cutting of a sacrifice. So Messiah will be the sacrifice that is offered up to begin the new covenant. Daniel’s prophecy goes on to reveal the timing. Messiah would be killed, and then Jerusalem would be destroyed. Jerusalem was destroyed in AD 70. That means...”

“The Messiah has definitely, come. The sacrifice has definitely been offered up. And the new covenant has been cut and has definitely begun.”

“Yes,” said the teacher, “and just as definitely that means that your iniquities are, without question, forgiven, and your sins are absolutely and conclusively remembered no more.”

The Mission: The karat is the sign and assurance that your sins are absolutely remember no more. Live in the confidence and repercussions of that fact. Jeremiah 31:31-34; Daniel 9:24-26; Hebrews 9:14; Hebrews 13:20-21.

[Disclaimer: Please note that “The Book of Mysteries” is Jonathan Cahn’s notes from the lessons he received while spending a year under the tutelage of “The Teacher” in Yasharal (Israel). I have found many of these to be worthy to share and will make additional comments on them as needed. Those teachings not supported by Scripture that don’t meet the mark on any level are not shared or posted. We are not followers of Jonathan Cahn as there are many beliefs we don’t hold in common. However, these are shared that you too may be barakah (blessed) by the wisdom of “The Teacher.”]

I find it interesting that the keyword “karat,” while clearly in the Hebrew text, is not even translated into the English KJV text. And with reference to this word, the term “new” is not utilized. But the word “new” does appear in the verse and can mean new, renewed, or refreshed. Essentially the only difference between what is referred to as the Old and New Covenants is that the first was the promise and shadow of what was to come, and the second was the fulfillment of the promise. As it was completed by the Messiah alone upon the cross/stake once and for all.

כָּרַת

A primitive root; to cut (off, down or asunder); by implication to destroy or consume; specifically to covenant (that is, make an alliance or bargain, originally by cutting flesh and passing between the pieces): - be chewed, be con- [feder-] ate, covenant, cut (down, off), destroy, fail, feller, be freed, hew (down), make a league ([covenant]), X lose, perish, X utterly, X want.

Another point in this devotional, prepared by Jonathan Cahn, is that while the Messiah died to fulfill the covenant with His blood sacrifice, it can only cover those who come to Him in humble confession and repentance. While salvation is a free gift, it does not cover sinners who refuse to acknowledge the gift or submit to it. There are two parts to Salvation. This is illustrated with a covenant. It is a promise to be performed by one between Him and others and sealed with a sacrifice of cutting. We have a part to play. Otherwise, all the world would be saved and even Satan. But this is not taught in Scripture. There is a definite and infinite divide between those in the covenant and those who are not. Each of us has the option to opt-in or out. So while the sacrifice was made available to all, the decision belongs to each person. Only the confessed and forgiven sins are remembered no more. HALLELUYAH!!!

All Christian churches teach, “We don’t have to keep the TORAH LAW because the Messiah fulfilled it and did away with it on the cross.” WRONG!

Stunningly, the concept of the NEW COVENANT being “WRITTEN ON YOUR HEART” is a Hebrew idiom that literally means “YOU LOVE IT” or it is “DEAR TO YOUR HEART!”

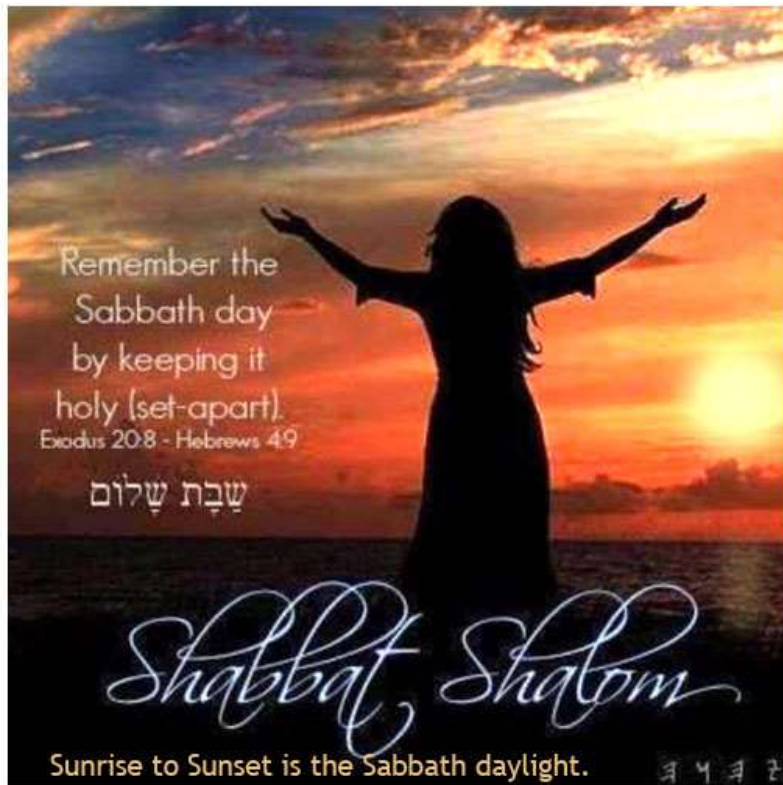

WHY IS IT DEAR TO YOUR HEART?

This NEW COVENANT is the heart response of the obedient follower of YAHUSHA haMashiach (Messiah) to the Bible’s TORAH LAW of instruction. He met the requirement of the LAW by His own sacrificial death, thus paying the price of sin and death for you. He then enables you to honor and uphold His TORAH LAW out of LOVE FOR HIM, as did all the disciples and apostles after them.

THE TORAH LAW NEVER ENDED!

“Behold the days come,” says YAHUAH, “that I will make a NEW COVENANT with the house of Yasharal (Israel) and with the house of Yahudah (Judah). Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers... But with this COVENANT... I will place MY TORAH LAW in their inward parts, and WRITE IT ON THEIR HEARTS, and will be their Alahim (God), and they shall be my people.” YirmiYAH (Jeremiah) 31:31-33
