

Shabbat Shalom, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days according to the full moon as the start of months!

Today is the eighth day of our Creator's Second Lunar Month count that begins in the spring. It is also the authentic first lunar Sabbath of the month. It is coincident with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary date of Sat., 05-13-2023.

He placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and the start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to YAHUAH Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths, and annual Feast Days is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does, in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only YAHUAH'S Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts "eyes to see and ears to hear." Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

“Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, YAHUAH. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness.” Psalms 89:15-16

THE BLESSING WITH NO END

Jonathan Cahn

We were standing at the school’s western border, beyond which was the rest of the desert. Just outside the border was one of the teachers surrounded by his students. His course had begun just before ours and so had now come to its end. The students were getting ready to depart, and the teacher was saying a blessing over them before they began their journey.

“That will be us,” said the teacher, “not long from now. It reminds me of another teacher, another course, and another farewell.”

“A teacher from the school?”

“The Messiah,” he said, “and the students were the disciples. It is written, ‘He led them out as far as Bethany, and He lifted up His hands and blessed them. And while He blessed them, He was parted from them and carried up into heaven.’ It was the end of a course, and of Messiah’s ministry on earth. So what exactly happened?”

“He blessed them and then ascended.”

“No,” said the teacher. “It doesn’t say that. It says that He lifted up His hands and blessed them. And while He blessed them, He was parted from them.”

“Why is that significant?”

“He never ended the blessing...not on earth...His blessing never ended. You see, Messiah’s blessing has no end...It has no limitation, no expiration, and no ceasing. It’s an unending blessing. It’s not limited to the first century, or to Jerusalem, or to the disciples, or even to the Book of Acts. He doesn’t only bless them. He blesses you. And the blessing He gives you has no end. It doesn’t stop because of your failures, your falling, and your sins. It has no end. There’s just as much of it now as there was when He blessed them as He left. The blessing never runs out, never ages, and never fails. So receive it now, as new and as powerful as it was on the day He gave it. And as the blessing keeps going, you do the same. All things of this world must end...except this...the blessing...it has not end.”

The Mission: Receive this day the blessing Messiah gave His disciples. It was to you as well. Receive as much as you can. It has no end.” Psalms 21:6 and 106; Luke 24:50-53; Revelation 22:21.

[Disclaimer: Please note that “The Book of Mysteries” is Jonathan Cahn’s notes from the lessons he received while spending a year under the tutelage of “The Teacher” in Yasharal (Israel). I have found many of these to be worthy to share and will make additional comments on them as needed. Those teachings not supported by Scripture that don’t meet the mark on any level are not shared or posted. We are not followers of Jonathan Cahn as there are many beliefs we don’t hold in common. However, these are shared that you too may be barakah (blessed) by the wisdom of “The Teacher.”]

Kerrie’s Comments: A big thank you to all of you for your well-wishing and prayers over these last couple weeks. My husband came home from work with Covid, but we didn’t realize it at first. I joked that wouldn’t it awful if we both got sick and missed the family event of the year of my niece’s wedding. But that is just what happened. We lost our taste and smell. Had trouble walking a straight line, and were depressed. We had no power over the situation, with temperatures of 103 off and on. Still trying to catch my stride. But we both feel blessed to be on the mend now.

Ecclesiastes 9:4

NEW ENGLISH TRANSLATION

Exodus 14:14

"YAHUAH will fight for you,
and you shall be still."

YAHUAH

Teach me to trust in you so that when the unexpected storms of life come, I will expect peace in the midst of those storms, knowing that you are near, you hear my cries, and you are with me and for me. {Mark 4:37-40}
