

Shabbat Shalom, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days according to the full moon as the start of months!

Today is the 15th day of our Creator's Ninth Lunar Month count that begins in the spring. It is also the authentic second lunar Sabbath of the month. It is coincident with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary date of Mon., 12-11-2023.

Our Creator placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and the start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to YAHUAH Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths, and annual Feast Days is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does, in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only YAHUAH'S Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts "eyes to see and ears to hear." Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

"Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, YAHUAH. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness." Psalms 89:15-16

THE DOOR OF TEMPTATION

By Jonathan Cahn

“How do you deal with temptation?” he asked.

“You resist it.”

I didn’t answer. I didn’t know what he was looking for.

“The Book of Proverbs reveals how to deal with the temptation of sexual sin, the seduction of an adulteress [or adulterer]. It is written: ‘Keep your way far from her [him]. And do not come near to the door of her/his house.’ What does that reveal?”

“Stay away from temptation.”

“The best way to deal with temptation is to not deal with it.”

“I don’t understand.”

“If you keep yourself away from the temptation, there’s less chance of being tempted. But the Scripture goes further than that. Listen again. It says, ‘Keep your way far from her [him]. And do not come near to the door of her/his house.’ This is an even greater key. What it reveals is this: It’s not enough to stay away from temptation...you must make it your aim to stay away from the door of the temptation whatever it is. Think about. Which is more alluring, a person or other temptation trying to seduce you or a door?”

“The person, of course.”

“Which is more tempting, a substance that would addict you or a door?”

“The substance.”

“And which is more likely to harm you or make you fear, a dangerous situation or a door?”

“The dangerous situation, of course.”

“Exactly. So instead of dealing with the adulterer, addictive substance, porn, gambling addiction, online gaming, laziness, propensity to physically or emotionally abuse your spouse or children or other _____, deal with the door. Deal with the door and you’ll avoid the temptation.”

“And the door is what exactly?”

“The door is not the temptation, nor the sin. It’s that which would lead you to the temptation and the sin. That’s the day. Make it your aim not only to avoid the temptation. Locate the door to the temptation and then stay as far away from it as possible. For it is the wise who, instead of dealing with the temptation and the sin, deal with the doors.”

The Mission: Today, make it your aim not just to avoid temptation, but to avoid even the door that leads to it. Don’t open it or walk through it. Stay far from it. Proverbs 5:3-8; 1 Corinthians 10:13

[Disclaimer: Please note that “The Book of Mysteries” is Jonathan Cahn’s notes from the lessons he received while spending a year under the tutelage of “The Teacher” in Yasharal (Israel). I have found many of these to be worthy to share and will make additional comments on them as needed. Those teachings not supported by Scripture that don’t meet the mark on any level are not shared or posted. We are not followers of Jonathan Cahn as there are many beliefs we don’t hold in common. However, these are shared that you too may be barakah (blessed) by the wisdom of “The Teacher.”]

Kerrie’s Comments

It is because we are human that we are beset with temptation. Not one of us is immune, but recognizing that in our weakness and vulnerabilities YAHUAH and His Son are strong will make all the difference. If we daily and moment by moment seek to put our trust in that strength our path of daily living is made straighter and easier. Not that there won’t be mountains to climb, rivers to swim, or storms to endure, but they are not quite so difficult or painful with our Alahim/Messiah present to gently and safely guide us.

In 2016 my daughter was going through a divorce and lost her Optometry program after completing the first two years. This left her desperately depressed and deep in debt with no apparent way out. The cause of this was that her ex was addicted to online multiplayer games and sucked her in until she was also addicted. Her entire planned future came crashing down and she walked away from God.

Addictions not only affect one's self but they affect everyone else around us. As her parents, we set her up in a 45-day program to deal with both the depression and the addiction. It was a very difficult time for all of us. She is doing much better today. She has a good job and a good man in her life. We continue to pray for her to seek YAHUAH Alahim while He may be found.

During that time, I compiled the following article from several sources as well as my own. It ties together nicely with the opening devotional by Jonathan Cahn.
