

Shabbat Shalom, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days according to the full moon as the start of His months!

Today is the 8th day of our Creator's Eleventh Lunar Month count that begins in the spring. It is also the authentic first lunar Sabbath of the month. It is coincident with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary date of Thurs., 02-01-2024.

Our Creator placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and the start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to YAHUAH Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths, and annual Feast Days is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does, in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only YAHUAH'S Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts "eyes to see and ears to hear." Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

"Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, YAHUAH. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness." Psalms 89:15-16

THE DAVAR AND THE OLAM

By Jonathan Cahn

We were sitting in an open desert plain under the night skies. He had started a small fire. I think it was only so he could read the words on the parchment he was holding in his hand. It was a clear night. The sky was filled with stars.

“What you see,” he said, “is the olam, the Word and the world. Which seems greater, the Davar (Dabar) or the olam?”

“It would seem that the universe is greater,” I said, “the olam.”

“Yes, it seems so much bigger. And which seems more real and solid?”

“The olam,” I said again.

“Yes, it would seem to be so,” he said. “But it’s not.” Then, holding the parchment to the light, he began translating its words.

“It is written in the Psalms, ‘For He spoke, and it came into existence. He commanded, and it was established.’ And in the Book of Hebrews it is written, ‘The universe was formed at the Creator’s command...’ So which came first, the olam or the Davar, the world or the Word?”

“The Word came first,” I said, “then came the world.”

“Then which is greater, the world or the Word?”

“The Word (Davar) would be greater.”

“Then which is more real and more solid?”

“The Word is more real.”

“Yes,” said the teacher. “The Word came first; the world came second. The Word was spoken, and the world followed. So the Word doesn’t follow the world. It is the world that follows the Word. And what does that mean for our lives?”

“We must not be led by the world, but by the Word.”

“Yes,” he said. “It means you are never to be led by the circumstances and events of your life. All that is part of the olam, and so is secondary. The olam, the world, changes and passes away. But the Davar (Dabar), the Word, never changes or passes away. Be, therefore, led by the Word, even when it goes against everything you see around you—especially then. Stand on the Word, despite the world. For what He has spoken shall come to be in the universe and in your life—the Dabar and then the olam. The Word is first...and only then, the world.”

The Mission: Choose the word over the world, over your circumstances, your problems, and everything else. Let the Dabar rule your olam. Psalms 33:6-9; John 1:1-4; Hebrews 11:3.

“By the word of YAHUAH (H#3068 - יהוה) were the heavens made; and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth. He gathers the waters of the sea together as an heap: he lays up the depth in storehouses. Let all the earth fear YAHUAH: let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of Him. For he spake, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast.” Psalms 33:6-9

“In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through Him, and without Him nothing was made that was made. In Him was life, and the life was the light of men.” John 1:1-4

“By faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of YAHUAH Alahim, so that the things which are seen were not made of things which are visible. Hebrews 11:3

[Disclaimer: Please note that “The Book of Mysteries” is Jonathan Cahn’s notes from the lessons he received while spending a year under the tutelage of “The Teacher” in Yasharal (Israel). I have found many of these to be worthy to share and will make additional comments on them as needed. Those teachings not supported by Scripture that don’t meet the mark on any level are not shared or posted. We are not followers of Jonathan Cahn as there are many beliefs we don’t hold in common. However, these are shared that you too may be barakah (blessed) by the wisdom of “The Teacher.”]

Kerrie's Comments

Throughout Scripture “dabar” is translated as “Word,” which can seem dull and simplistic but there is a lot more to this word than first meets the eye. Included in the Strong’s definition are the following descriptive words: “power, promise, provision, and purpose.” When YAHUAH our Creator speaks it is these four elements (and more) working together that ensure the reality of what is created. So when we see this term “the Word” used as we are reading along, insert these four pragmatic elements which ensure His Word is living and active, and will accomplish that which is intended.

A piece of aged, yellowed parchment with a cracked and torn texture is centered against a dark background. The parchment is surrounded by a vibrant, glowing ring of flames in shades of red, orange, and yellow. The text on the parchment is written in a black, serif font. The text reads: "Is not My Word like a fire?" declares אָמַר, "and like a hammer that shatters a rock?"
