

Shabbat Shalom, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days according to the full moon as the start of His months!

Today is the 29th day of our Creator's Eleventh Lunar Month count that begins in the spring. It is also the authentic fourth lunar Sabbath of the month. It is coincident with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary date of Thurs., 02-22-2024.

Our Creator placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and the start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to YAHUAH Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths, and annual Feast Days is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does, in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only YAHUAH'S Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts "eyes to see and ears to hear." Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

"Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, YAHUAH. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness." Psalms 89:15-16

THE JONAH PARADOX

By Jonathan Cahn

We were outside looking up at one of the buildings when we noticed a dove perched on one of the stones just under the roof.

“The word for dove in Hebrew is yonah,” he said, “as in the prophet Jonah...who did everything he could to reject Yahuah’s calling and yet unwillingly ended up fulfilling it, leading an entire godless city to salvation...and then ended up completely miserable over his success.”

“Why miserable?”

“Because Nineveh was filled with his enemies, and he knew that if he gave them Yahuah’s Word, they would repent, and Yahuah Alahim would have mercy on them. The word he gave them was this: ‘Forty days and Nineveh shall be overthrown.’ Not a very encouraging message. In fact, there’s no hope in it. It’s a paradox. If Jonah refuses to give them the prophecy of judgment, then the judgment and the prophecy come true. But if he delivers the prophecy of judgment, then Nineveh could repent and the judgment and the prophecy fail to come true.”

“The opposite of a self-fulfilling prophecy.”

“A self-nullifying prophecy. And therein lies the other paradox. Yahuah Alahim told Jonah to tell the people, ‘Forty days and Nineveh shall be overthrown,’ But in forty days there was no judgment. Because the people of Nineveh believed the prophecy to be true, the prophecy became as if untrue. People have used the fact that the prophecy didn’t come true against Yahuah Alahim and His Word. What does it tell you?” he asked. “It tells you that man is more concerned over the fact that the warning didn’t come true than the fact that 120,000 people were saved because it didn’t. It tells you that it is not Yahuah Alahim who lacks mercy, but man. Yahuah Alahim would rather save the lost even if by doing so it would appear to void His Word...even if by doing so it would void His own life...as in His death. It is His love, His mercy, and His grace that bring about the impossible.”

“So in this case, the love of Yahuah Alahim caused the Word to not come true.”

“Or did it?” said the teacher. The prophecy was that ‘Nineveh shall be overthrown.’ But the word overthrown is the Hebrew hafak. And hafak also means to be overturned, changed, and converted. And that’s how they were saved from judgment.”

“So the same word that signified judgment also signified repentance and salvation from judgment...a paradox of paradoxes.”

“A wonderful paradox,” said the teacher, “the paradox by which we are saved.”

The Mission: Today, let His mercy triumph over all judgment and condemnation. Let logic of judgment yield to the paradox of His love. Jonah 3; 2 Peter 3:9

Nineveh today.

[Disclaimer: Please note that “The Book of Mysteries” is Jonathan Cahn’s notes from the lessons he received while spending a year under the tutelage of “The Teacher” in Yasharal (Israel). I have found many of these to be worthy to share and will make additional comments on them as needed. Those teachings not supported by Scripture that don’t meet the mark on any level are not shared or posted. We are not followers of Jonathan Cahn as there are many beliefs we don’t hold in common. However, these are shared that you too may be barakah (blessed) by the wisdom of “The Teacher.”]

Kerrie’s Comments

All judgments that come with a warning are identified as conditional. It seems the greatest lesson to be learned in the Nineveh narrative was for Jonah to see and comprehend that the Alahim he worshiped extended His love and saving grace to all who would repent. It seems that Jonah had a stony and unforgiving heart and a lack of love for the unsaved. This may also be a lesson for us in our own lives. It is easy to think some folks get what they deserve. But might it be for us to recognize in this famous story the simple act of forgiving those who have hurt us, and removing all prejudices, is the path of uniting with Alahim to seek and save those who would be lost?

(As I sing along, it has become my habit to change out all the replacement names for Yah, Yahuah, Yahusha, or Alahim as the song requires.)

Barak hashem YAHUSHA haMashiach! (Bless the name of YAHUSHA the Messiah!)
