

Shabbat Shalom, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days according to the full moon as the start of His months!

Today is the 8th day of our Creator's Twelfth Lunar Month count that begins in the spring. It is also the authentic first lunar Sabbath of the month. It coincides with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary date of Sat., 03-02-2024.

Our Creator placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and the start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to YAHUAH Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths, and annual Feast Days is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does, in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only YAHUAH'S Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts "eyes to see and ears to hear." Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

"Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, YAHUAH. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness." Psalms 89:15-16

IN HIS DEATHS

By Jonathan Cahn

We were in the Chamber of Scrolls, examining again the scroll of Isaiah, the fifty-third chapter. He began reciting one of its passages.

““He made His grave with the wicked...and with a rich man in His death...” It’s describing the Suffering Servant, the Messiah who dies for our sins. His death will be linked to wicked men and a rich man.”

““He made His grave with the wicked.’ So Messiah was crucified amid criminals, among wicked men, and He was buried in the tomb of a rich man.”

“Yes,” said the teacher, “and there’s even more...a mystery that you can only find in the original Language. If you read almost any translation of Isaiah 53, it will say ‘in His death.’ But it doesn’t really say that. What it does say, in the original language, is so big, and so cosmic, it’s hard for any translator to do it justice.”

“And what does it say?”

“In the original Hebrew, it says ‘in His death.’”

“What does that mean?”

“Remember, in Hebrew, when a word should be singular, but is rendered plural, it is often a sign that the reality behind the word is so unique, so intense, so extreme, or so colossal that the word alone cannot contain it.”

“So in other words, His death...”

“In other words, the death of Messiah is such a unique reality, such an extreme reality, such an intense reality, and such a colossal reality that the word death cannot even begin to approach it. What happened in His death goes beyond anything we can express with our words or comprehend with our thoughts.”

“But plural can actually mean plural.”

“Yes. But it’s a singular combined with a plural. ‘In His death’ would make sense as would ‘in their deaths.’ But it doesn’t say either. It says ‘in His deaths.’ That breaks the rules. What is it revealing?”

“That Messiah would die not just His death, one death, but many deaths. He wouldn’t die for Himself but for all. His death would be the one life that dies the death of all.”

“Yes,” said the teacher, “including yours. Your death, and the death of all who read the words of the prophecy...Every death is contained inside that plural word. It is the witness in black and white that your old life and the judgment thereof is finished...in His deaths.”

The Mission: One of the deaths in His death is the death of your old life. Give that which is old a eulogy and a burial. Be finished with it and be free. Isaiah 53:9; Romans 5:18; 2 Corinthians 5:14-15.

[Disclaimer: Please note that “The Book of Mysteries” is Jonathan Cahn’s notes from the lessons he received while spending a year under the tutelage of “The Teacher” in Yasharal (Israel). I have found many of these to be worthy to share and will make additional comments on them as needed. Those teachings not supported by Scripture that don’t meet the mark on any level are not shared or posted. We are not followers of Jonathan Cahn as there are many beliefs we don’t hold in common. However, these are shared that you too may be barakah (blessed) by the wisdom of “The Teacher.”]

Kerrie's Comments

Yahusha, the Messiah's death on the cross/stake is unfathomable and will be the subject of hope, joy, admiration, and faith, as it is the GREATEST STORY EVER TOLD. There is no other story that compares in magnitude to the LOVE bestowed, and a LIFE SACRIFICED for His creation. He paid our debt that we may be transformed. HalleluYAH!

There are four times that Revelation speaks of the Second Death:

Rev 2:11 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says unto the churches; He that overcomes shall not be hurt of the second death.

Rev 20:6 Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death has no power, but they shall be priests of Alahim (God) and of Messiah, and shall reign with him a thousand years.

Rev 20:14 And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

Rev 21:8 But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burns with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.

Notice how these verses identify two groups of people, the saved and the unsaved. The unsaved will die the Second Death but the saved are spared from the second death. Have you ever wondered why this is?

In contrast to some of what Jonathan Cahn states above, I believe the plural usage of the word “deaths” (H#4194 - מוֹת - maveth – deaths) in Isaiah 53:9, is speaking directly to the Messiah’s actual dying the Second Death so that the saved of earth are spared. I believe it is because He died that Second Death for us that we will be granted everlasting life. I am not saying He died on the cross two separate times, but rather His death was to a far deeper level then mankind have died as of yet.

Digressing for a moment... all men die once, at the end of their earthly life whether they are righteous or not. But the unsaved die two separate times: at the end of their life on earth and they die the Second Death at the end of the 1,000 years.

It is no secret that throughout history brave and noble men and women have given their lives for another. But their death didn’t reward its receiver with eternal life. It is in dying not just the first death, but taking it to another level in dying the Second Death, total separation from the Father, that the Messiah died for you and me. It is a hopeless state from which no one will ever return, unless they are called forth by the Most High Eternal Father.

Yahusha, haMashiach is the only one who will ever be called back from the Second Death. He was rewarded by the higher principle, as “the Lamb of Yah, who takes away the sins of the world,” thus the Eternal Father Yahuah Alahim called Him forth from the tomb. It was because He laid down His life as a ransom in the Second Death that all humanity was given hope of a future beyond the grave. And although a free gift, it was and remains contingent upon confessing our sins, trusting in His sacrifice, and living in obedience to His will as recorded in the Torah Law. Seek faithfulness in these and salvation is guaranteed upon His spilled blood. Praise His Name!
