

Shabbat Shalom, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days according to the full moon as the start of His months!

Today is the 15th day of our Creator's Twelfth Lunar Month count that begins in the spring. It is also the authentic second lunar Sabbath of the month. It coincides with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary date of Saturday, 03-09-2024.

Our Creator placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and the start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to YAHUAH Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths, and annual Feast Days is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does, in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only YAHUAH'S Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts "eyes to see and ears to hear." Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

"Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, YAHUAH. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness." Psalms 89:15-16

What Does Yahuah Require of Thee?

"What doth Yahuah require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy Alahim (God)." — Micah 6:8.

MICAH, a man deeply rooted in his community, stood as a beacon of patriotism and genuine care. In a time shrouded in political gloom, he believed fervently that his nation's salvation lay in a profound and widespread revival, a return to the essence of true Alahim (God). When questioned about the necessity of animal sacrifices or the appalling practice of child immolation, Micah's response resonated with a spiritual depth: Yahuah Alahim sought something far more profound and introspective—"He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good, etc."

Let's embrace this message of threefold essence as our own. Let's strive to act justly, never withholding what rightfully belongs to others. Recognizing the rightful claims of our families and neighbors, let's ensure equitable treatment for all.

Embracing mercy is paramount. Even those who may seem undeserving—the incarcerated, the fallen, the vulnerable, even our adversaries—deserve our assistance, not begrudgingly, but with warmth and eagerness. The path to truly loving mercy begins with extending it freely. As James 1:27 so poignantly highlights, true religion encompasses not only personal purity but also comforting the afflicted.

And let's tread humbly alongside Yahuah Alahim, neither lagging behind nor rushing ahead, but hand in hand. Throughout history, from Enoch onward, there have been those who walked in unwavering companionship with Alahim (God), their lives a testament to holy humility. True religion, they teach us, isn't found in rituals or outward displays, but in the sincere and modest way we live our lives in companionship with Yahuah Alahim and others.

But is that all? Certainly not! What about those who've stumbled and faltered, burdened by guilt and sin? The closing verses of this book offer solace: Yahuah Alahim not only forgives but also conquers our wrongdoing. He extends boundless compassion, casting our sins into the depths of the sea. His delight lies in mercy! Who indeed is a Alahim (God) like unto Thee?

“Who is like unto thee, O Yahuah among the gods? Who is like thee, glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders?” Exodus 15:11
