

Shabbat Shalom, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days according to the full moon as the start of His months!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FUb6QjzvRXU>

Today is the 29th day of our Creator's Second Lunar Month count that begins in the spring. It is also the authentic fourth and last lunar Sabbath of the month. It coincides with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary date of ~~Fri.~~, 06-21-2024.

The renewed full moon can be witnessed tonight as it journey's along its well-worn path of the east-west time continuum to announce tomorrow as the first day of the new lunar month.

Our Creator placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and the start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to YAHUAH Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths, and annual Feast Days is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does, in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only YAHUAH'S Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts "eyes to see and ears to hear." Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

"Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, YAHUAH. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness."
Psalms 89:15-16

THE SHADOW

Darkness and Evil

By Jonathan Cahn

It was a dark night. There was no moon. And only a few stars could be seen in the desert sky...just darkness and the howling of the cold night winds.

"Are you afraid of the dark?" asked the teacher

"Sometimes," I replied.

"In the Scriptures, darkness is a symbol of evil. Darkness is an absence, the absence of light. So too is evil..."

“Evil is an absence?”

“Evil is not so much a reality as the absence of a reality. It is not of the creation, but a denial of creation, a negation of what is, the negation of Yahuah Alahim. And so it can’t exist on its own, but only in opposition to existence.”

“What does that mean?”

“Truth exists on its own. It just is. But a lie cannot exist without truth. A lie is a twisting of the truth and so it can only exist by the truth, and in the denial of it. So too life exists without death. But death cannot exist without life. Death only exists as the negation of life. And good can exist without evil. But evil cannot exist without good. Evil is the denial of the good.”

“It’s the force of opposition,” I said.

“Yes,” he replied, “and in Hebrew that which opposes, that which goes against is called the sahtan.”

“Sahtan” I repeated, and paused until it hit me. “Satan! You can have Yahuah Alahim (God) without Satan, but you can’t have Satan without Yahuah Alahim.

“Yes” he said. “So we can only discern darkness, because light exists, and what is false because the truth exists, and what is wrong because the right exists. So then evil is actually...”

“A witness,” I said, “a hostile witness, that, despite itself, testifies of the truth.”

“Yes. The witness of a shadow. The darkness of falsehood bears witness that the Truth exists. The darkness of hatred bears witness that Love exists. And the darkness of evil bears witness that Yahuah Alahim exists. So never let your heart lose its focus by dwelling on evil. But seek always to see the Good, which is always there, beyond it and above it, on the throne, to which even evil must bear witness and bow its knee.”

The Mission: Today, practice seeing through the darkness of every problem or evil that confronts you – to the good that lies beyond it. John 3:20-21; John 8:24; John 18:37

“For everyone practicing evil hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed. But he who does the truth comes to the light, that his deeds may be clearly seen, that they have been done in Yahuah Alahim." John 3:20-21

"Therefore I said to you that you will die in your sins; for if you do not believe that I am He, you will die in your sins." John 8:24

Pilate therefore said to Him, "Are You a king then?" Jesus answered, "You say rightly that I am a king. For this cause I was born, and for this cause I have come into the world, that I should bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth hears My voice." John 18:37

I have found many of these to be worthy to share and will make additional comments on them as needed. Those teachings not supported by Scripture that don't meet the mark on any level are not shared or posted. We are not followers of Jonathan Cahn as there are many beliefs we don't hold in common. Kerrie's Korner:

I like what Jonathan Cahn says above, and it provides a great introduction to an additional point with regard to darkness and evil. Have you ever read in Isaiah 45:7 where it states:

“I form the light, and create darkness; I make peace, and create evil: I Yahuah do all these things.” Isaiah 45:7

Did Yahuah Alahim really create darkness and evil? Is He the source of both of these? If so it would seem that Satan was predestined to be a necessary part of the creation of mankind. But is that accurate?

Here is a Word Study I put together that I believe will shed some light on this controversial subject.

Note that the Hebrew word used for “created” (as in created light) is (H#3335 - yatsar - יוצר – to mold into form – to create).

The Hebrew word used for “make” (as in make peace) is (H#6213 - asah - עשה – appoint, ordain). Might this word be used because it is impossible to mold into form or create peace?

When referring to “darkness” and “evil” the Hebrew word “bara” is utilized (H#1254 - bara - בורא – create, cut down). In most Bible translations as shown above in the KJV, “bara” is given the same meaning as “created or made.” In contrast to the popular Bible versions, I’d like to suggest that “light and peace” were created and made, but that “darkness and evil” are the absence of “light and peace.” From this perspective it begs the question, “Is there evidence that YAHUAH Alahim created ‘darkness and evil?’”

What does Genesis 1:1-5 tell us about “light” and “darkness?”

Genesis 1:1-5 is not simply one of many ways to differentiate between “light” and “darkness” but rather it is the predominant foundation for understanding it.

The Creation of the World

Gen 1:1 In the beginning Alahim (God) created the heaven and the earth.

Gen 1:2 And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Ruach (spirit) of Alahim moved upon the face of the waters.

Gen 1:3 And Alahim said, “Let there be light:” and there was light.

Gen 1:4 And Alahim saw the light, that it was good: and Alahim divided the light from the darkness.

Gen 1:5 And Alahim called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day.

From these verses we can deduce that “darkness” pre-existed Alahim’s creation of this earth. “Darkness” pre-existed along with “without form” and “void.” The first thing Alahim created was “light.” He then divided the “light” from the “darkness” and called the light “Day” and the darkness he called “Night.” From these five verses in Genesis we discover that “darkness” is the absence of “light.” “Light” and “darkness” cannot coexist. “Darkness” was neither created nor formed by Alahim, but it was “cut off” from the “light” for the very reason that “darkness” ceases to exist in the presence of the “light.”

1Jn 1:5 This then is the message which we have heard of Him, and declare unto you, that Alahim is LIGHT, and in Him is no darkness at all.

Because YAHUAH Alahim is “Light, Truth, Shalom, and Love,” there can be no “darkness, evil, or hate” in Him. It would be impossible for Him to create, make, or form these. Each are an absence of His LIGHT, TRUTH, PEACE (Shalom), and LOVE. For Yahuah Alahim is Love.

1Jn 4:8 He who does not love does not know Alahim (G-d), for Alahim is love.

1Jn 4:16 And we have known and believed the love that Alahim has for us. Alahim is love, and he who abides in love abides in Alahim, and Alahim in him.

So it appears to me that the assumption that Yahuah Alahim created darkness and evil is born of a faulty translation at the minimum, and may have been a proactive attack on the character of Yahuah Alahim by a rebellious minded scribe.

(As I sing along, it has become my habit to change out all the replacement names for Yah, Yahuah, Yahusha, or Alahim as the song requires.)

Prayer:

May the blessings of Yahuah Alahim (and Yahusha haMashiach) be upon you as we bid farewell till next Shabbat. May His divine light shine upon you that you may receive His promised bountiful grace. May His truths fill your heart with peace knowing that Yahuah Alahim is Love.

Barak hashem YAHUSHA haMashiach! (Bless the name of YAHUSHA the Messiah!)
