

Happy New Moon Day to all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set apart) Lunar New Moons and Sabbaths!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FUb6QjzvRXU>

Today is Day One of the Creator's authentic Twelfth Lunar Month in which the year begins in the spring. It looks like 12-01-5993. It coincides with the Roman Gregorian solar calendar Fri., 03-14-2025.

I am pleased to announce that www.TheCreatorsCalendar.com is up and running faster than ever. HalleluYah!!!

Each month, it is awe-inspiring to watch the full moon rise in the East and make its way along the east-west time continuum under the Creator's tireless direction. Then, see with your own eyes that moment when the sun's first rays shine forth to greet the descending full moon before it sets in the west. They greet each other with a nod and agreement that this moment, while visible from opposite coordinates together, marks the start of the new lunar month. Honoring His New Moons as declared from His sacred Torah Law shows Him who desires to enter through the pearly gates of His Eternal Kingdom government. I hope to see you there! HalleluYah!

“Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, YAHUAH. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness.”
Psalms 89:15-16

The Sailboat and the Price of Love

Once, there was a boy who loved to create things with his own hands. One summer, he carefully crafted a small sailboat out of wood, sanding it smooth, painting it with bright colors, and attaching a tiny sail. With great excitement, he took it to the river near his home, eager to watch it glide across the water.

As he set the boat down, the wind caught its sail, and it moved beautifully along the current. But then, to his horror, a strong gust carried it farther and farther away. He ran along the riverbank, calling out, but soon, his precious creation was lost from sight.

Heartbroken, the boy searched for days, but the boat was gone.

Weeks later, while walking through town, he stopped in front of a toy shop—and there, in the window, sat his sailboat! His heart leaped. He rushed inside and told the store owner, “Sir, that boat is mine! I made it!”

The shopkeeper looked at him kindly and said, “I’m sorry, son, but I bought it from someone. If you want it, you’ll have to buy it back.”

The boy ran home, gathered every coin he had, and returned to the shop. Placing his money on the counter, he paid the price. As he walked out, holding his sailboat close, he whispered, “Now you’re mine twice. First, because I made you. And now, because I bought you.” ~ Author Unknown

---

This is the story of redemption. We, too, were created by the hands of our Maker, designed with love and purpose. Yet sin carried us away, separating us from Him. But our Messiah, seeing us lost, paid the highest price—His own life—to buy us back. Now, we are His twice—once by creation, and once by redemption.

As it is written:

"You are not your own; you were bought with a price." (1 Corinthians 6:19-20)

Prayer of Redemption

O Maker, who formed me with love so true,
Though I drifted away, still You pursued.
Lost in the waters of sin and despair,
Yet You saw me and paid the full fare.

Now twice I am Yours—by hand and by grace,
Redeemed by the price You took in my place.
Hold me close, let me never depart,
Sail me, O Yah, straight into Your heart.

The currents of life have tossed me astray,
Yet mercy has guided my path back Your way.
The cost of my ransom was heavy and high,
Yet You bore the burden—no question, no sigh.

Your hands that once formed me were pierced for my soul,
To purchase me back and to make me whole.
My freedom was costly, yet still You paid,
With love everlasting that never will fade.

O Captain, steer me through tempests and tide,
With faith as my anchor and You as my guide.
Let not the winds of this world make me roam,
For now, I am Yours, forever at home.

Through trials and storms, I trust in Your hand,
Leading me safely to heaven's bright land.
Now twice I am Yours—by love and by right,
Redeemed for Your glory, a child of the Light.

Amen, HalleluYAH!

Barak hashem Yahusha haMashiach! (Bless the name of Yahusha the Messiah!)

PSLAMS 81:3 BLOW THE TRUMPET AT THE NEW MOON, AT THE FULL MOON, ON OUR FEAST DAY.

Surely, I shall behold the LIGHT of the shamayim luminaries when they shine forth, and the MOON, influential when FAT and brightly WAXED.

And it shall ENLARGE and OPEN WIDE [as the east gate] with protection of wisdom and understanding and will equip me with strength for doing the commanded appointments.

Alike, these bring consequences, calling for judgment for being untrue to Alahim above. Yobe (Job) 31:26-28

Not only do the Scriptures never hint that the New Moon Day, lunar Sabbath, and lunar appointed Feast Days were to be abolished or changed, but to the contrary, we have the clear and direct statement of YAHUSHA haMashiach that until heaven and earth pass away, nothing in the Torah (O.T.) will be done away with. Matthew 5
