

Shabbat Shalom, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New/Renewed Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days according to the full moon as the start of His lunar months!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FUb6QjzvRXU>

Today is the 8th day of our Creator's Twelfth Lunar Month count, in which the year begins in the spring. It is also the authentic first lunar Sabbath of the month. It looks like 12-08-5993. It coincides with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary date of Fri., 03-21-2025.

Our Creator placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and the start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to Yahuah Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths and annual Feast Days, is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only Yahuah's Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts "eyes to see and ears to hear." Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

"Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, Yahuah. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness."
Psalms 89:15-16

The Debt That Could Not Be Paid

Josiah's heart pounded as he stood before the massive stone ledger in the great hall of judgment. He had known this day would come, but he had not been fully prepared for the weight of the record written against him. Every sin, every failure, every moment of rebellion was inscribed in black ink—undeniable evidence of his guilt.

The scribe, dressed in solemn robes, turned to him with a heavy gaze. "Josiah, the charges against you are many. The law is clear: THE WAGES OF SIN IS DEATH! You are condemned."

Josiah's knees buckled. He had spent the early years of his life ignoring the gravity of his sins. In His later years He had discovered the life changing power of the Messiah and the forgiveness that comes with confession and trusting in Him. With His help he sought to make things right and had turned his life around.

Now, here he stood before the judgment seat. The decree appeared to remain against him, and he had nothing of himself to pay the debt. He had no defense, no excuse, and no hope outside the promise and provision of Yahusha, His Messiah.

Then, from the back of the hall, a voice rang out. "I WILL PAY JOSIAH's DEBT!"

Josiah turned in disbelief. A man stepped forward, clothed in white, with eyes full of authority, yet with love and tender mercy. Josiah instantly recognized Him. It was his beloved savior, and faithful friend, Yahusha haMashiach.

The scribe frowned. "This debt is vast. It requires blood."

The Yahusha nodded. "Then take mine."

With a solemn motion, He reached out His hands. The scribe hesitated, then lifted his quill. Dipping it in red ink, he struck through the entire record with a single, bold and blotting stroke. The stone ledger trembled, and the engraved words of condemnation vanished away.

Josiah gasped as he looked at the smooth clean slate where his sins had previously been recorded. The man turned to him, His hands now pierced, blood dripping from where the quill had touched. "It is finished," He said softly.

Josiah fell to his knees. His sins were forgiven and the record of sins were not merely ignored; they were fully blotted out. The record and the penalty of his sins had been nailed to another's cross. His wages of sin had been absorbed in another's suffering. He was free.

Tears filled his eyes as he realized the cost of his pardon. He had been saved—not by his own efforts, but by the Lamb who took his place.

As he rose, his heart burned with a new resolve. He would never again live as a slave to sin. He belonged to the One who had paid his debt in full.

Kerrie's Korner:

This short story sets the stage for my new article, illustrating Colossians 2:14 in a vivid, emotional, and Biblically grounded way. It emphasizes that it was the record of sin and its penalty—not the Law itself—that was nailed to the cross.

Prayer:

O Most High Yahuah, Creator of Heaven and Earth, we come before You in awe and reverence, humbled by the weight of our sins and the debt we could never pay. You are righteous in all Your ways, and Your law is just and true. We confess that we have fallen short, that our record was stained with the ink of our own transgressions, condemning us under the decree that the wages of sin is death. But in Your infinite mercy, You have made a way where there was none. You sent Your beloved Son, Yahusha haMashiach, to take our place, to blot out the accusations against us with His own precious blood. O Yahuah, how deep is Your love that You would not leave us in our guilt, but instead, through Yahusha, You have declared us forgiven, washing our slate clean!

In the name of Yahusha, our Redeemer, we lift our hearts in gratitude, for He bore our shame and carried our punishment so that we could stand before You uncondemned. May we never take lightly the sacrifice He made, nor forget the price that was paid for our freedom. Let our lives be a living testimony to this great redemption, walking in obedience, love, and holiness as those who belong to the One who paid our debt in full. Strengthen us, O Yahuah, to live no longer as slaves to sin but as faithful servants of Your kingdom. May we ever cling to Yahusha, our righteousness, and may His victory over sin and death be our eternal song of praise. HalleluYah! Amein.

Barak hashem Yahusha haMashiach! (Bless the name of Yahusha the Messiah!)

A serene sunset scene over a body of water. The sky is filled with vibrant orange, pink, and purple hues. A large, dark tree stands prominently on the shoreline, its reflection visible in the water. The water's surface is covered in gentle ripples that catch the light from the setting sun.

If my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways,
then I will hear from heaven,
and I will forgive their sin and will heal their land.
