

Shabbat Shalom, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New/Renewed Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days according to the full moon as the start of His lunar months!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FUb6QjzvRXU>

Today is the 29th day of our Creator's Twelfth Lunar Month count, in which the year begins in the spring. It is also the authentic fourth lunar Sabbath of the month. It looks like 12-29-5993. It coincides with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary date of Fri., 04-11-2025.

Rosh Hashanah (New Year's Day in spring, 01-01-5994) will occur on the pagan Sun., 04-13-2025.

Our Creator placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and the start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to Yahuah Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah).

Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths and annual Feast Days, is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only Yahuah's Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts "eyes to see and ears to hear." Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

"Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, Yahuah. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness."
Psalms 89:15-16

HEAVEN'S MILK

By Jonathan Cahn

"When we came into this world," he said, "we entered it with a longing. We longed for milk. We had no idea what milk was. We had never tasted it. We had never seen it. Nobody ever told us that it existed. And yet the longing for milk was there deep inside our being before we had any assurance that it existed." He paused. "And it turned out that it did exist. It turned out that what we longed for, what we knew only from the hunger deep inside our being . . . was real. There was a mother and a mother's breast to answer our longings. Do you know where the word mother comes from?"

"I never thought of it."

“The word was created by babies,” he said. “All across the world, in almost every language on earth, you can hear in the word for mother, the cry of a baby: mamma, mom, amma, ema, mai, mata, and ma. It comes from those first longings, the longing for milk. And all these words bear witness that to our longings there existed an answer.”

“But this is not about babies ...”

“No. Our longing for milk passes away, but we find another longing within our hearts ...another emptiness ...another hunger ...but deeper ...a longing for that which the world never answers. We long for the perfect, for a perfect love, a perfect happiness, a perfect contentment, and a perfect peace. We long for that which doesn’t fail, that which never disappoints us, or grows old, or passes away. We long for the eternal and the perfect. But the world can never answer those longings ... and still they stay with us all the days of our lives. We long for it though we’ve never tasted it. And our very longings bear witness that what we had never seen or tasted was real.”

“We long for the perfect because the perfect exists ...as we once longed for milk?”

“Yes, and we long for a perfect love because there is a Perfect Love. We long for the Eternal because the Eternal exists and the Eternal put that longing into our hearts so we would seek Him ...and find Him.”

“So in the same way that our longing for milk once bore witness that although we had never yet seen it, milk existed, now the longing that is now in our hearts for the perfect, for the Eternal, for heaven bears witness that, although we have not yet seen it, heaven exists. Heaven is real and the promise is sure.”

“Yes,” he said, “our deepest longings are the witness of the milk of heaven.”

The Mission: What are the deepest needs and longings of your heart? Join them to Him. Bring them to Him, and receive from Him their filling. Ecclesiastes 3:11; Romans 8:22-23; Philippians 4:6-9

I have found many of these to be worthy to share and will make additional comments on them as needed. Those teachings not supported by Scripture that don’t meet the mark on any level are not shared or posted. We are not followers of Jonathan Cahn, as there are many beliefs we don’t hold in common. However, these are shared that you too may be barakah (blessed) by the wisdom of “The Teacher.”]

Prayer of the Longing Heart

O Eternal Father,
You placed in me a hunger I cannot name—
a thirst not quenched by time, nor earth, nor flesh.
I ache for what I’ve never seen,
yet somehow know is home.

Like the infant for milk unseen,
I cry out for a love unfailing,

for joy that cannot fade,
for peace not stolen by the night.

You are the Answer before the question,
the Source of all my silent yearning.
Let my longing lead me to Your gates,
where sorrow ends and glory begins.
Fulfill in me the witness of heaven—
the milk of Your everlasting love. ~ Amen

Barak hashem Yahusha haMashiach! (Bless the name of Yahusha the Messiah!)

YASHRA'AL

CHOSEN BY YAHUAH

On the darkest days, when I feel inadequate, unloved and unworthy, I remember whose daughter I am and straighten my crown.

“My soul longs, yet even faints for the courts of YAHUAH. My heart and my flesh cry out for the living Alahim.” Psalms 84:2
