

Shabbat Shalom, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New/Renewed Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days according to the full moon as the start of His lunar months!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FUb6QjzvRXU>

Today is the 22nd day of our Creator's Twelfth Lunar Month count, in which the year begins in the spring. It is also the authentic third lunar Sabbath of the month. It looks like 12-21-5994. It coincides with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary date of Tues, 03-24-2026.

Our Creator placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and the start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to Yahuah Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths and annual Feast Days, is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only Yahuah's Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts "eyes to see and ears to hear." Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you, and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

Lest You Worship the Sun, Moon, and Stars Deuteronomy 4:19 – A Closer Look

Reexamining a Misunderstood Command

Many Bible readers, pastors, and even theologians have long assumed that Deuteronomy 4:19 forbids the observation of the heavenly bodies, specifically the sun, moon, and stars, out of fear that such attention might lead to idolatry. But what if that was never the intent of this verse at all? What if this very passage, so often quoted to discourage celestial observation, has been purposely and tragically mistranslated to disconnect believers from the original and sacred worship rhythm portrayed by these very celestial lights?

Through a detailed interlinear word study and the proper application of both Strong's and Brown-Driver-Briggs' Hebrew Dictionaries, this verse can be restored to reveal two astonishing things: 1) It not only doesn't condemn lifting our eyes to observe the heavens, but admonishes us to remain faithful in doing so. 2) The real focus of this verse is a warning against a much deeper and more subtle form of idolatry: the worship of wealth, abundance, and possessions. But this has been entirely overlooked because five words in the Hebrew text were ignored and never translated, causing it to appear a negative thing to observe the heavens for signs, mo'edim, days, and years (Genesis 1:14).

The Modern Translation (KJV)

Here is the King James Version of this verse in Deuteronomy 4:19.

“And lest thou lift up thine eyes unto heaven, and when thou see the sun, and the moon, and the stars, even all the host of heaven, shouldest be driven to worship them, and serve them, which the LORD thy God hath divided unto all nations under the whole heaven.” Deuteronomy 4:19 (KJV)

At first glance, this translation appears to discourage even looking up at the heavens. However, a closer analysis of the Hebrew text, especially of key terms mistranslated or omitted, reveals a drastically different and more theologically rich meaning.

Two Key Translation Errors

Before reviewing the translation errors below, please open this word study to verify for yourself that what is noted below is accurate and not an additional misrepresentation. You can refer to it often as you consider the five words that were never translated.

<https://www.thecreatorscalendar.com/wp-content/uploads/Table-Deuteronomy-419-Lest-you-worship-the-sun-moon-and-stars-2.pdf>

1) Aleph and Tav – A Misnumbered Sign

The Hebrew term תא (Aleph-Tav) appears four times in this verse. Traditionally, it is assigned Strong's #853, which identifies it as a grammatical marker of a definite direct object, most often not translated into English. However, the identical spelling is also assigned a Strong's number. Strong's #852 is recognized as a noun meaning "a sign", specifically a divine sign, token, or symbol.

Strong's H852 – תא ('êṭ): A sign; a miraculous mark or symbol

When interpreted as Strong's #852, the Aleph and Tav, the two letters of the Hebrew alphabet that make up this word, are no longer grammatically silent; they become a visible, meaningful sign in the heavens, pointing to the divine design of sacred time.

2) Hem (הם – H#1991): The Hidden Idol

The Hebrew word הם (hem) appears in the original text but is left untranslated in most versions. Yet Strong's #1991 defines it as "wealth, abundance, substance, or possessions." This drastically shifts the passage's meaning. The warning is not about the celestial signs themselves but about replacing those sacred signs with the pursuit and worship of material abundance and possessions.

Restoring the Original Meaning

When we correctly translate and restore these two terms that were not translated in five places within the verse, the meaning of Deuteronomy 4:19 is revitalized:

“And lest you lift your eyes to the visible heavens and behold the [Aleph & Tav] SIGN of the SUN, and [Aleph & Tav] SIGNS of the MOON, and [Aleph & Tav] SIGNS of the STARS, for all the APPOINTED TIMES in the HEAVENS; BUT THEN CAST THESE ASIDE TO WORSHIP YOUR WEALTH AND ABUNDANCE AND SERVE THEM [instead], for YAHUAH, your Alahim allocated and divided His [Aleph & Tav] SIGNS for all the people and nations under all the heavens.” Deuteronomy 4:19 (Restored Hebrew Interlinear Translation)

This translation affirms that the heavenly bodies were indeed created to govern the sacred calendar (Genesis 1:14), to mark the appointed times among the host of the heaven (sun, moon, and stars). But the warning is this: Do not trade divine revelation of Yahuah's sacred calendar for the comfort of worldly wealth, possessions, or gain.

The Aleph and Tav: The Signature of Time and Redemption

The Aleph and Tav (אָ) are not incidental characters. They represent the first and last letters of the Hebrew alphabet, bracketing all communication from Yahuah Alahim. In prophetic symbolism, they refer to the totality of divine timekeeping, the Plan of Salvation, and the great sacrifice of the long-promised and anointed Messiah.

Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah) Himself repeatedly identifies with this symbol:

“I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, says Yahuah, which is and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.” — Revelation 1:8

“Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last...” — Revelation 1:11

“It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end...” —
Revelation 21:6

“I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.” — Revelation 22:13

While the Greek terms “Alpha and Omega” appear in Revelation, this is actually a translation from the original Hebrew Aleph and Tav, a direct link back to the signs in the heavens and the covenantal astro-luni-solar timekeeping system set forth by the Creator “IN THE BEGINNING.”

The Aleph: Ox or Lamb Symbol?

Diverging for a moment, let's take a look specifically at the Aleph and Tav. Although it is most often taught that the paleo-Hebrew "Aleph" resembles the head of an ox, as a symbol of strength, this interpretation is an alteration of the original symbolism that dates back to the earliest times. Rather, the head of an ox as the icon behind the Aleph is a compromise and a replacement of the pagan kind.

The ox (bull) symbol represents the pagan god Remphan and Moloch. Remphan is associated with Saturn, and Saturn is often linked to the concept of Satan. When in apostasy, the ancient Hebrews sacrificed their children to Moloch just as the surrounding pagan nations did. The ox (bull) is likewise connected to the Star of David, which is the symbol the Jews have adopted to replace the Menorah, their symbol of light and truth. For more details, refer to the article The Star of David.

From Beginning to End

In the Garden of Eden, when Adam and Eve first sinned, it was a lamb that was slain as a substitute for sin and a promise of the coming anointed Messiah. Its skins were placed on our first parents as a covering of His righteousness, as a reminder that the death of the lamb was required, or they would have died that very day.

The lamb's superpower has never been its strength, but its gentle, humble, and willing spirit. It was always the lamb as the first and the last paleo Hebrew Aleph and Tav symbol that provided a continuous and unaltered storyline of "the lamb slain from the foundation of the world." (Revelation 13:8) The ancient Paleo-Hebrew letter Tav, shaped like a cross, stands as a prophetic symbol of atonement, the divinely appointed remedy for sin. It marked the sign of a covenant that would be fulfilled in the sacrificial death of Yahusha haMashiach, the long-foretold Lamb of Yahuah. Upon the execution cross, He embodied the Tav in its fullest form, completing a 4,000-year prophecy that had foreshadowed His redemptive mission from the very beginning.

Why This Matters

Restoring Deuteronomy 4:19 to its rightful meaning is more than a linguistic correction; it represents a prophetic awakening. It is another example illustrating that "the times of the Gentiles" have been fulfilled, and Yah's Torah truths are now being restored. (Luke 21:24)

Signs, Mo'edim, Days, and Years

Exodus 12:1-3; Ezekiel 46:1-3; Isaiah 66:23

Genesis 1:14, 16
Jeremiah 31:35-36

The SUN tells the TIME of DAY.

The FULL MOON, together with the STARS, tell the start of the YEAR and start of the MONTH.

The waning and waxing lunar phases
tell the DAY of the MONTH.

Psalms 136:7-9
Revelation 12:1

The STARS tell the MONTH of the YEAR.

Yahuah has embedded His appointed times, “Full” New Moons, lunar Sabbaths, and lunar appointed Feast Days, into the divinely ordained rhythm of the heavens (see Psalm 104:19). To observe these correctly commencing with the Full Moon near the feet of the starry constellation Bethulah (Virgo) in the spring (Revelation 12:1), is not pagan; it is to walk in step with our Creator. This is how we follow the Lamb (Messiah) whithersoever He goes, as He fulfills the Plan of Salvation, the remedy for sin. To misinterpret this passage as a blanket prohibition against observing the luminaries is to undermine the very mechanism by which Yahuah’s Bridal Covenant was fashioned to perpetually guide His Bride back to Himself.

In contrast, the real danger is when mankind trades the sacred signs for temporal gain, choosing to worship wealth, success, and worldly possessions in place of the Creator’s ordained order.

Conclusion: The Divine Calendar Was Never the Enemy

We were not meant to fear the signs in the heavens, but to faithfully follow them, not as objects of worship, but as witnesses to the Promise of Salvation by way of Yahuah Alahim’s sacred appointed times, from beginning to end, the testimony of His Son, the Aleph and the Tav, the FIRST and the LAST.

This verse does not rebuke the upward gaze. It rebukes the downward trade, exchanging Yah's sacred worship calendar and the eternal promise of salvation, for temporal gain, wealth, and comfort.

Let us reclaim the purpose for which the sun, moon, and stars were created: to light the pathway of salvation with precision, from the first lamb symbol to the cross of our anointed Messiah, and finally to the last trumpet. His set-apart Full New Moon Days, lunar Sabbaths, and lunar appointed Feast Days were ordained from the beginning to point us, yearly, monthly, weekly, and daily, back to the One who set them in motion and set sin's captives free. HalleluYAH!!!

Kerrie's Korner: The New Year is nearly upon us. Next Sabbath, the last Sabbath of the year, we will focus on Rosh Hashanah in preparation for the countdown to Passover. In modern Jewish tradition, Yom Kippur is considered the most sacred day of the year, but I contend that Passover is, as it represents the fullness of our Creator and Messiah's love for mankind in that He laid down His life for us.

Prayer:

Father Yahuah,
we lift our eyes to the heavens You have established, not in fear, but in reverence, seeking the signs and appointed times You ordained from the beginning.
Teach us to discern rightly, that we would not exchange Your sacred order for the fleeting pursuit of wealth, abundance, or the comforts of this world established calendar.
Restore within us a heart that treasures Your truth, that follows the testimony of the Aleph and Tav, from the first promise to its fulfillment in Your Son.
Guard us from idolatry in all its subtle forms, and anchor us
instead in the rhythm of Your divine calendar and covenant.
Lead us faithfully in the path of redemption, that our lives may reflect Your light and proclaim Your salvation
from beginning to end.

Barak hashem Yahusha haMashiach! (Bless the name of Yahusha the Messiah!)
