

Happy Rosh Hashanah (New Year's Day) and Full New Moon Day, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kodesh (set-apart) Lunar New Moons, Sabbaths, and Feast Days!

Today is Day One of the Creator's authentic First Lunar Month of the YEAR 5,995, although coincident with the Roman Gregorian calendar solar Thursday, 04-02-2026.

Rosh Hashanah is set forth in Shemot (Exodus) 12:1–4 as the true beginning of the year. This is the visible event that establishes the fourteen-day count to Passover, thereby anchoring the sacred calendar in the renewal of spring. In this way, Yahuah's appointed years unfold not from autumn to autumn, but from spring to spring, in harmony with the created order renewal. Each month bears quiet witness to this design, as the full moon rises in the east and journeys faithfully along the east–west time continuum, clicking off the years, months, weeks, and days of the steady governance of the Creator.

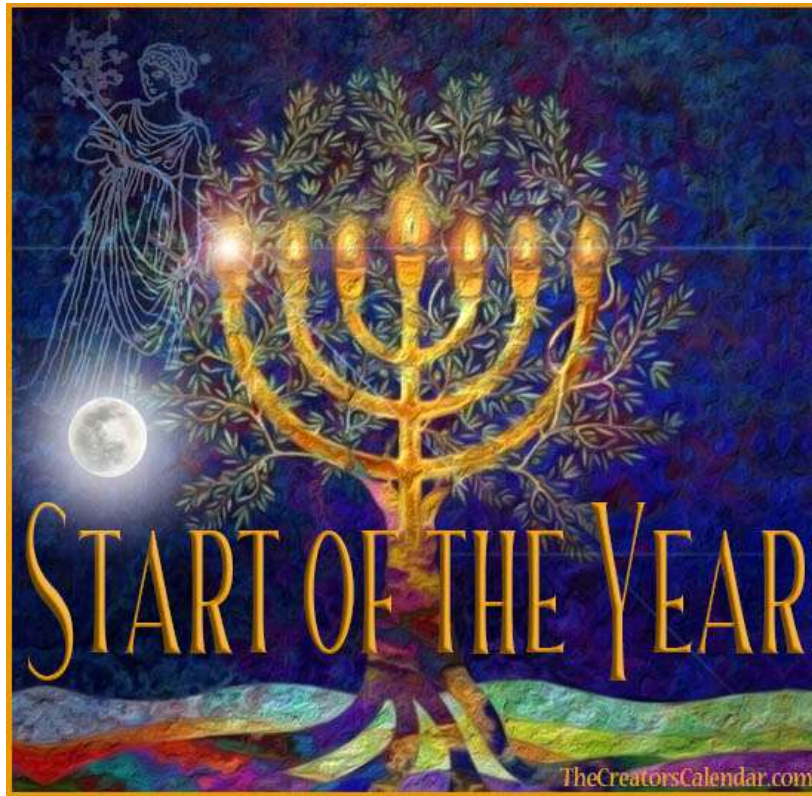

With each New Moon, there comes that remarkable moment when the first light of dawn meets the descending full moon, both visible from opposite horizons, testifying together to the turning of the month and the renewal of sacred time. To observe these New Moons as instructed in Torah is more than an act of awareness; it is a declaration of allegiance to His order and an expression of longing to enter His everlasting Kingdom. May we be found among those who watch, understand, and enter in with joy. Blow your shofar and make a joyful noise unto Yahuah and Yahusha for their Feast Day revelation of the Plan of Salvation. HalleluYah!

“Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, YAHUAH. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness.” Psalms 89:15-16

Establish Rosh Hashanah

[T]he Scriptural commencement of the year, expressed in Hebrew as Rosh Hashanah, carries a depth of meaning grounded in the Creator’s established order. Rather than beginning in winter, as Roman custom required, or in the autumn, as later Babylonian and rabbinic traditions shaped, Scripture directs our attention to a different and more ancient witness. The biblical pattern aligns the beginning of the year with the first full moon of spring, appearing in the constellation of Bethulah (Virgo), near her feet—an appointed sign set within the heavens. This placement is not incidental, but resonates with the language of Genesis 1:1, “In the beginning,” and is later reaffirmed in Shemot (Exodus) 12:1–4, where the renewal of time was restored to Yasharal on the threshold of redemption. In returning to this moment, we are invited to rediscover not only the structure of sacred time but the divine intention woven into it from the very beginning.

Rosh Hashanah Established and Restored

Rosh Hashanah was established at creation. The first words of Genesis 1:1, “In the beginning,” come from this single word, “rosh” (H#7225 - בראשית). It means the head of the year, the first of the year, or the beginning of a month, year, or time cycle.

The second time we find the term "rosh" (H#7218 - ראש) was in Exodus 12:1-3, when Yahuah laid out the terms for restoring His ordained time-measuring method to Moses and Aaron, fourteen days before Passover and fifteen days before He would lead the children of Yasharal (Israel) out of Egypt on their sojourn to the Promised Land. This is what He said:

Kerrie's Korner: May this year be the beginning (Rosh) of great things in your life. May it be a time when you take a stand for Yah's Truths, not withstanding the pull of the world as the enemy seeks to take back what was never his to have.

Prayer:

Father Yahuah,

we come before You in reverence, asking that You restore within us a clear understanding of Your appointed times, that we may walk in harmony with the order
You established from the beginning (Rosh).

Open our eyes to discern the witness You have placed in the sun, moon, and stars, and grant us hearts willing to realign with Your truth above all tradition.

Teach us to number our days according to Your sacred rhythm, that our worship may be pleasing and in step with Your throne.

Strengthen us to remain faithful in both understanding and obedience, as Your people were called to do at the threshold of redemption.

May we be found watching, prepared, and united with You,
as we follow Your light into the fullness of Your eternal Kingdom.

Barak hashem Yahusha haMashiach!
