

Shabbat Shalom, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New/Renewed Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days according to the full moon as the start of His lunar months!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FUb6QjzvRXU>

Today is the 8th day of our Creator's First Lunar Month count, in which the year begins in the spring. It is also the authentic first lunar Sabbath of the month. It looks like 01-08-5995. It coincides with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary date of Thurs, 04-09-2026.

Our Creator placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and the start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to Yahuah Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths and annual Feast Days, is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only Yahuah's Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts “eyes to see and ears to hear.” Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you, and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

THE TALEH, THE LAMB

By Jonathan Cahn

He took me through a ravine that opened up into a valley. In the valley, a boy was tending a flock of sheep and lambs. One of the lambs had wandered off in our direction.

“Look,” said the teacher, “a lamb, the most defenseless of creatures, so defenseless it needs a boy to protect it. And yet it is of cosmic importance.”

“How?” I asked.

“The lamb is the master theme of Yahuah’s Word. In Genesis, a boy asks his father, ‘Where is the lamb...?’ That’s the question of Scripture. On Passover, it is the lamb that dies to save the firstborn son of each house. The nation of Yasharal (Israel) is saved by the blood of the lamb. Then in the Temple of Jerusalem, lambs are offered up in sacrifice every day of every year. And then, in the fifty-third chapter of Isaiah, it prophesied that a man will give His life as a sacrificial lamb, ‘as a lamb to the slaughter,’ and by His death, we will find healing, forgiveness, blessing, [and eternal life]. Do you see the theme?”

“The lamb is the life given to save, bless, [and restore mankind back to the Eternal Father, Yahuah].

“Yes, and to cover our sins. In Hebrew, taleh means lamb. And from taleh also comes the word that means covering. The Lamb will be our covering. So, who is the Lamb? In all of world history, is there anyone known above all for giving His life, as an offering, as a sacrifice, that we might be saved, [and covered with His robe of righteousness]?”

“There’s only one I know of,” I replied. “And wasn’t He called ‘the Lamb’?”

“Yes, said the teacher, “Messiah, the Lamb of God, the Taleh of Alahim. It was all about the Lamb from the beginning; the answer was always linked to the Lamb. But why a lamb in the first place?”

“I don’t know.”

“What the lamb means is this: There will be One who is entirely pure, innocent, without blemish, without evil...and this One will give His life to save those who are not innocent. But what is without blemish, what is entirely pure and good? What is the mystery of the lamb?”

“Tell me.”

“The mystery of the lamb is all about the love of Yahuah, the Eternal Father for us. The mystery is that He gave His only begotten Son, the Lamb, to save us. For Yahuah is Love! And the nature of love is to give of itself. The Taleh, the Lamb... is the most beloved Son of our Eternal Father.

The Mission: Today, live in the spirit of the Lamb. Let everything you do be done in love. And live to make your life a blessing to others. Genesis 22:1-18; Isaiah 53:7; 1 Peter 1:18-19; Revelation 5:6-13.

Disclaimer: “The Book of Mysteries” by Jonathan Cahn presents a series of lessons he attributes to “The Teacher” in the land of Yasharal (Israel). While we do not affirm all of Cahn’s interpretations or theological positions, we welcome the insights that harmonize with Scripture.

Kerrie’s Korner: As we approach Passover (Pasch) next week on the day before Sabbath, we will continue to focus on its many aspects.

Passover and How to Celebrate It

How to celebrate Passover as YAHUSHA haMashiach taught His beloved disciples that night in the upper room during His “LAST SUPPER.”

Prayer:

O Yahuah, Eternal Father, we thank You for the Taleh,
the Lamb, whom You ordained from the beginning to be our covering, our redemption,
and the answer to the cry,
“Where is the Lamb?”

We stand in awe that through His innocent life and willing sacrifice,
You have provided healing, forgiveness, and restoration, drawing us back into Your presence
by Your great love.

Clothe us in His righteousness and teach us to walk in the spirit of the Lamb, that our lives may reflect humility, obedience, and a love that gives
of itself for others.

Let all that we do become a blessing, as we rest beneath
His covering and lift our hearts in gratitude to You and to Yahusha, the Lamb who was slain and now lives forever, Amein.

Barak hashem Yahusha haMashiach!
(Bless the name of Yahusha the Messiah!)

Illustrated above is the epic SIGN of the promised Messiah on Pasover, the 14th of Abib, the middle of the lunar month, in the year A.D. 31. The sun and moon were in an extreme solar eclipse from noon to the ninth hour, in the constellation of Aries (the lamb). Together, in the darkened sky, the trinity of LIGHTS declared, "BEHOLD THE LAMB OF YAHUAH WHO TAKES AWAY THE SINS OF THE WORLD. "
