

Shabbat Shalom, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New/Renewed Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days according to the full moon as the start of His lunar months!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FUb6QjzvRXU>

Today is the 22nd day of our Creator's First Lunar Month count, in which the year begins in the spring. It is also the authentic third lunar Sabbath of the month. It looks like 01-22-5996. It coincides with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary date of Thurs, 04-23-2026.

Our Creator placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and the start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to Yahuah Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths and annual Feast Days, is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only Yahuah's Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts "eyes to see and ears to hear." Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you, and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

“Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, Yahuah. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness.”
 Psalms 89:15-16

THE DIVINE LAW OF ADJECTIVES

By Jonathan Cahn

The teacher held up a pomegranate.

“In English,” he said, “and in many other languages, you would call this a ‘red fruit.’ The adjective comes first, and then the noun. But in other languages, it would be described as a ‘fruit, red.’ The noun comes first, and then the adjective. In Hebrew, the language used for most of Scripture, and in the tongue of Messiah, it’s not a ‘red fruit,’ only a ‘fruit, red.’”

“I’m not getting it.”

“In the sacred tongue, there’s no such thing as an evil man, only a ‘man, evil.’ Rather, there exists a man. The man is a creation of Yahuah Alahim (God). Evil is the state he’s in. So too in the sacred tongue, there’s no such thing as a sinful woman. Rather, there exists a woman, a creation of Yahuah Alahim (God), who happens to be sinful. Messiah spoke in this way and knew Scripture this way, with the noun first and the adjective second, and thus with no evil man and no sinful women. He saw men, in Hebrew, in the image of Yahuah Alahim (God), and who were now in a fallen state. He saw the adulterous woman not as an adulterous woman but as a woman caught in the state of adultery. And thus, she could be saved out of it. He saw the possessed man as a man who happened to be possessed and thus who could be set free. He saw the sick not as sick people but as people who happened to be sick or oppressed and so who could be healed. He saw through the evil, through imperfection, and through the fall, to the perfect that Yahuah Alahim (God) created and to the perfect to be redeemed. He died to separate adjectives from nouns, people from their evil, their sinfulness, and their fallenness.”

“By joining their adjectives, their sins, to another noun, Himself?”

“Yes. And to join His adjective, His holiness, to us. Learn the secret of the sacred tongue. When you see the sinful, the fallen, the crippled, the defiled, the broken, the hateful, the perverse, the ravaged, don’t see first the adjective. See first the noun, the one whom the Creator made in His image, the one they were created to be, and the one the Messiah came to redeem. And that includes you. When you look at yourself, your sinfulness, your fallenness, don’t see the adjective first, but the noun. Bring the adjectives to the cross/stake. And see yourself first as the one Yahuah Alahim, the Creator, made you to be and live your life as the person He, through His Son, the Messiah, came to redeem you to become.

“That we,” I said, “might become a people, righteous and holy.”

The Mission: Today, apply the divine law of adjectives to others and to yourself, see first the noun Yahuah Alahim (God) created, then give to Him their adjective. It provides a picture of hope for all. Luke 13:11-16; Acts 9:11-15; 1 Corinthians 6:11.

Disclaimer: “The Book of Mysteries” by Jonathan Cahn presents a series of lessons he attributes to “The Teacher” in the land of Yasharal (Israel). While we do not affirm all of Cahn’s interpretations or theological positions, we welcome the insights that harmonize with Scripture.

Kerrie’s Korner:

I pray that each of you experienced a truly blessed Passover, Unleavened Bread, and First Fruits week—rich in meaning, reflection, and renewed hope. May the beauty of this appointed season continue to dwell within you, strengthening your walk and deepening your understanding of the Lamb, the cleansing, and the promise of new life through Yahusha our Messiah.

Prayer:

Father Yahuah Alahim, open our eyes to see as You see,
that we may look first upon the person You created in Your image, and not upon the fallen state they carry.

Teach us through Yahusha the Messiah to separate the adjective from the noun, bringing every sin, burden, and brokenness to the cross/stake,
where redemption is found.

Help us to extend grace to others, recognizing not what they are in their weakness, but who they are called to become in Your holiness.

Likewise, renew our own hearts, that we would not define ourselves by our past or our failures, but by the identity You have given through Your Son.

And may we walk each day as a people being transformed, set apart and restored, reflecting the righteousness and life You have purposed for us from the beginning.

Barak hashem Yahusha haMashiach!
(Bless the name of Yahusha the Messiah!)
