

Shabbat Shalom, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New/Renewed Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days according to the full moon as the start of His lunar months!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FUb6QjzvRXU>

Today is the 8th day of our Creator's Second Lunar Month count, in which the year begins in the spring. It is also the authentic second lunar Sabbath of the month. It looks like 02-08-5995. It coincides with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary date of Sat, 05-09-2026.

Our Creator placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and the start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to Yahuah Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths and annual Feast Days, is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only Yahuah’s Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts “eyes to see and ears to hear.” Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you, and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

President Trump Signs National Sabbath Rest for All Americans. And one word changes everything.

A big thank you to Ann Emmerson for sharing the following video with me, as it is a stunning expose of what may be coming soon to a nation or city near you.

While this video reflects the current perspective of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, the implications of this event reach far beyond denominational boundaries. What President Trump stated in two paragraphs of his letter (That National Sabbath Rest) is truly profound and should cause thoughtful believers everywhere to pause and consider the direction in which the world is moving. I intend to address this further in an upcoming article and video as a warning and an appeal for discernment, because this appears to be only the beginning of what lies ahead.

What makes this especially stunning is that the growing call to unite around worship on the modern Jewish Saturday Sabbath, observed from sunset to sunset, will inevitably produce a strong counterreaction throughout the Christian religious world.

As tensions increase, the worship day debate will expand and once again create a strong polarization between Saturday and Sunday observance, with each side defending its own tradition that was never established in the Bible. According to the evidence of History, Scripture, and Astronomy, the Creator's original calendar established from the beginning was neither the modern Saturday nor Sunday. Thus, the world is rapidly moving toward a conflict centered upon two competing traditions, while the true worship rhythm established by Yahuah Alahim remains largely forgotten. This is truly remarkable and deeply sobering to witness unfolding before our eyes. It appears to be a first step in bringing about a revolution and the prophetic Mark of the Beast.

The presentation lays out the problem very well, but only as far as the speaker's beliefs allow. He is not aware that no matter what day, Saturday, Sunday or Wednesday is mandated for rest and worship on the Roman calendar, it will always be the foundation for the Mark of the Beast. In other words, any day of worship that gives honor, worship, and loyalty to an entity utilizing the Roman calendar system will always produce the same results, the Mark of the Beast.

Please watch this video. I have also typed up the paragraphs in the letter for you to copy as needed. The important parts are highlighted in blue.

President Trump Signs National Sabbath Rest for All Americans. One Word Changes Everything.

President Trump Signs the National Day of Rest for All Americans

[I do not have the first part of this letter.]

...Under my leadership, we are aggressively fighting the violence against Jewish Americans that increased under my predecessor, prosecuting hateful criminals to the fullest extent of the law, and working to end the scourge of antisemitism throughout our institutions, especially on college campuses. As President, I will never stop fighting to protect our birthright of religious freedom – a sacred right that continues to guide our Nation, drawing us closer to the Almighty each and every day.

Throughout this historic year, we rejoice in the triumph of the American spirit and rededicate ourselves to the cause of liberty and justice for all. In special honor of the 250 glorious years of American independence and on the weekend of Rededicate 250 – a national jubilee of prayer, praise, and thanksgiving – Jewish Americans are encouraged to observe a national Sabbath. From sundown on May 15 to nightfall on May 16, friends, families, and communities of all backgrounds may come together in gratitude for our great Nation. This day will recognize the sacred Jewish tradition of setting aside time for rest, reflection, and gratitude to the Almighty.

This month, we celebrate the contributions that Jewish Americans have made to our way of life, we honor their role in shaping the story of our Nation, and we remember that religious devotion, learning, and service to others are enduring pillars of a thriving culture. Through every trial and triumph, the contributions of Jewish Americans have shaped our past, have strengthened our communities, and will continue to inspire American greatness for generations to come.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DONALD J. TRUMP, President of the United States of America, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and the laws of the United States, do hereby proclaim May 2026 as Jewish American Heritage Month. I call upon Americans to celebrate the heritage and contributions of Jewish Americans and to observe this month with appropriate programs, activities, and ceremonies. I further call on all Americans to celebrate their faith and freedom throughout this year, during this month, and especially on Shabbat to celebrate our 250th year.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this fourth day of May, in the year of our Lord two thousand twenty-six, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and fiftieth. [Signed] Donald J. Trump

Consider the Back Story

As you know, President Trump's lovely daughter Ivanka married Jared Kushner, a Jew, and converted to Judaism. As a result, he has a bond through this family tie to the Jews and many of their traditions, such as Saturday as the seventh-day Shabbat, traditionally celebrated for the last 1,700 years from Friday sundown to Saturday sundown.

I believe it to be an honorable thing for President Trump to take a stand to honor this faction of people who have had a large role in shaping America. After all, each ethnic group in America must be considered of value and protected under the law. And it would seem a good thing, especially if, in honoring the Jews in this way, it was bringing restoration to the Creator and His Biblical truths.

Yet just because the Jews today celebrate the Shabbat from Friday sundown to Saturday sundown, it does not mean it is biblical truth or historically correct.

Conundrum Begins

Yet this is where the deeper conundrum begins.

For if the modern Jewish Saturday Sabbath, observed from Friday sundown to Saturday sundown, is itself based upon a calendar system that departed from the original worship rhythm established by Yahuah Alahim at Creation, then what exactly is being restored? Is the world being called back to the Creator's authentic appointed times, or toward a long-established tradition that only appears biblical because it has been repeated for centuries by Roman Catholicism and its daughter protestant churches?

The Heart of the Issue

This is the heart of the issue, few are prepared to examine.

Most Christians assume Saturday is the Biblical Sabbath simply because it is the day honored by modern Judaism, while Sunday keepers defend the first day of the Roman week in honor of the resurrection tradition. Yet both systems stand upon the same continuous Roman calendar structure inherited from Emperor Constantine in the 4th century A.D. Thus, the growing conflict between Saturday and Sunday observance may actually conceal a far greater reality: neither side may represent the original Scriptural worship rhythm established from the beginning.

According to the combined testimony of Scripture, history, and the heavens themselves, the original calendar of Creation was not based upon a continuous pagan Roman weekly cycle detached from the moon. Rather, the Creator established a timekeeping system governed by the heavenly lights, especially the moon, for signs, appointed times, days, and years (Genesis 1:14). Within this framework, the New Moon, Sabbaths, and Feast Days functioned together as an interconnected worship pattern revealing the entire Plan of Salvation.

Staggering Implications

If this is true, then the implications are staggering.

It would mean the coming global controversy over worship may ultimately center upon two competing traditions, Saturday vs. Sunday, all in the name of rededication and restoration to God. Yet the true worship rhythm of the Most High remains almost entirely forgotten by both sides. Such a development would create the perfect counterfeit conflict foretold in prophecy, drawing the world into a debate framed around inherited tradition rather than restored truth.

This is why President Trump's proclamation deserves careful attention. What appears at first to be merely a patriotic acknowledgment of Jewish heritage may, knowingly or unknowingly, become part of a much larger movement preparing the religious world for a coming worship crisis unlike anything seen before.

Prayer:

Heavenly Father, Yahuah Alahim,
in the name of your Son Yahusha haMashiach, we come before You with humble and discerning hearts as we witness the rapid changes unfolding throughout the earth.

We ask for wisdom, courage, and spiritual clarity in a time when confusion over worship, authority, and truth is increasing among the nations.

Guard us from deception and from blindly following the traditions and commandments of men, and instead lead us back to Your ancient paths, Your appointed times, and the pure worship rhythm You established from the foundation of the world.

Help us to honor not the systems of man, but You alone, through faithful obedience to Your Torah and trust in Yahusha haMashiach, the true Lamb and Messiah.

Strengthen Your people to stand with humility, love, and unwavering conviction as prophetic events continue to unfold, and may our names be found written in the Book of Life as those who follow
You wherever You lead.

HalleluYah!

Barak hashem Yahusha haMashiach!
(Bless the name of Yahusha the Messiah!)
