

Shabbat Shalom, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New/Renewed Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days according to the full moon as the start of His lunar months!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FUb6QjzvRXU>

Today is the 22nd day of our Creator's Second Lunar Month count, in which the year begins in the spring. It is also the authentic third lunar Sabbath of the month. It looks like 02-22-5995. It coincides with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary date of Sat, 05-23-2026.

Our Creator placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and the start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to Yahuah Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths and annual Feast Days, is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only Yahuah's Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts “eyes to see and ears to hear.” Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you, and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

Psalms 89:15-16

THE COSMIC BRIDAL CHAMBER

By Jonathan Cahn

It was early evening. We were gazing down at the tent camp in which we had first seen the bride. We didn't see her that night, nor did we expect to.

"I wonder what she's thinking," I said. "And what she's doing."

"The bride?" asked the teacher.

"Yes."

"She's preparing for the day of her wedding."

"How exactly is she preparing?"

“She no longer focuses on her home as she once did . . . not on how comfortable it is or how uncomfortable.”

“Because she’s leaving it.”

“Exactly. And the more she focuses on her present circumstances, on what she’ll be leaving, the less she’ll be able to focus on where she’s going. She knows that her time in her present home is now temporary and limited. It’s not for her to grow more attached to it, but less attached. It’s for her to tread lightly. It’s her time to let go, to begin to say good-bye. Everything she once knew as her home is no longer so. It’s now her bridal chamber. She must now use everything she has to prepare herself for the wedding and the life that lies ahead of her.”

“So she prepares herself by letting go,” I said, “by saying good-bye?”

“Yes, and by whatever she can do to ready herself for her future life... not by beautifying her tent, but by beautifying herself. She prepares herself.”

“But there’s a spiritual realm to all this . . . yes?”

“Yes. If you belong to Alahim (God), you’re His bride. And the world is your tent, your present home. And as the bride, your focus can no longer be on this, nor on your circumstances, nor on how comfortable or uncomfortable you are in this world. This is the place you’re leaving. And the more you focus on what you’re leaving, the less you’ll be able to focus on where you’re going. Your days in the world are temporary. You’re not in the world to grow more attached to it, but less attached. It’s your time for letting go, of treading lightly, of saying good-bye. So use every part of this life to prepare yourself for the life yet to come. Use the time you have in this world to prepare yourself for the days of eternity. You’re here to become beautiful [in the robes of the Messiah’s Righteousness]. And from now on, when you look at this world, no longer see it as your home, but see it for what it has now become . . . YOUR BRIDAL CHAMBER.

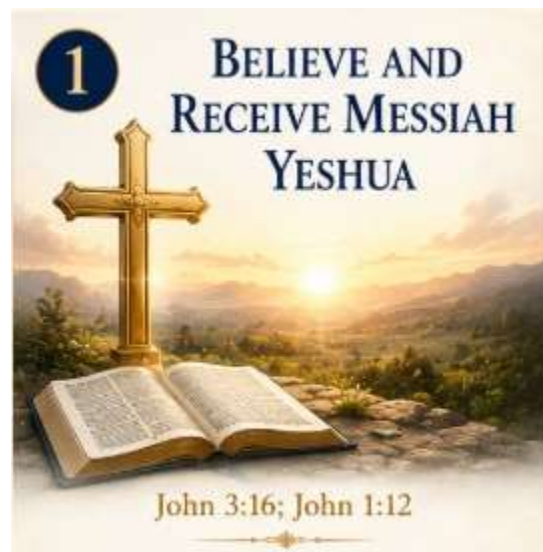

The Mission: Live today as one preparing for the wedding. Use every moment as a chance to become more beautiful [in the Messiah’s Righteousness].

Isaiah 52:1-2; Ephesians 5:26-27; Revelation 21:2

A Bible Study:

How to Become the Bride of the Messiah

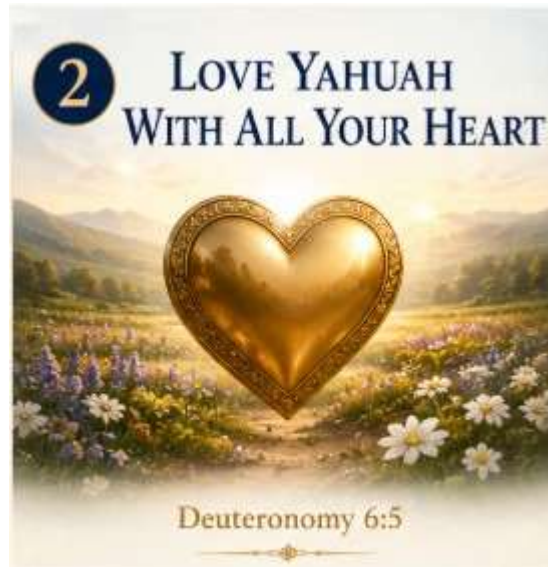

Scriptures: John 3:16; John 1:12

Study:

Every covenant begins with acceptance. The Bride does not enter the relationship by striving, but by receiving. To believe in the Messiah is to receive Him not only as Savior, but as Bridegroom returning for His beloved. This is the beginning of transformation, the moment when identity shifts from belonging to the world, to belonging to Him.

Application:

Have you truly received Him as your Bridegroom, or only acknowledged Him from a distance?

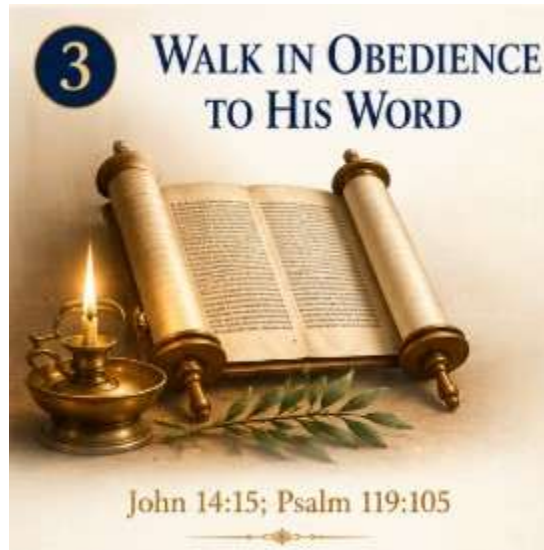

Scripture: Deuteronomy 6:5

Study:

Love is the foundation of the covenant. The Bride is not motivated by obligation, but by devotion. To love Yahuah with all your heart, soul, and strength is to reorient every affection, desire, and priority toward Him. Love removes distraction and deepens intimacy.

Application:

What still competes for your heart's highest affection?

Scriptures: John 14:15; Psalm 119:105

Study:

Obedience is not legalism; it is the language of love. The Bride prepares herself by aligning her life with His Word. His commandments are not burdens, but guidance, lighting the path that leads to purity and readiness. Every act of obedience refines her garments.

Application:

Where is He calling you to obey more fully, even in small things?

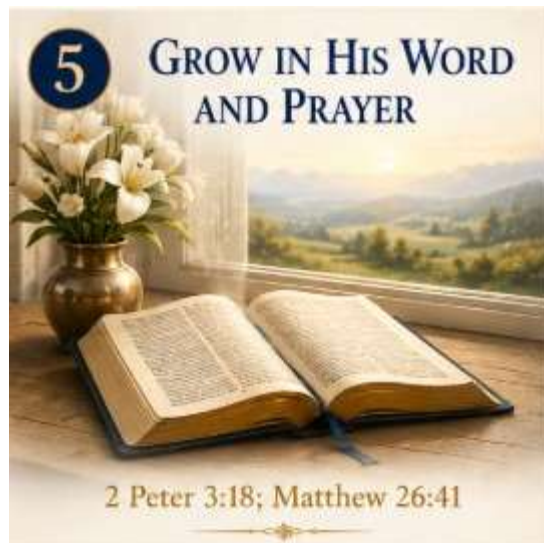

Scriptures: 2 Corinthians 7:1; 1 John 1:9

Study:

The Bride does not remain as she was. She is cleansed, purified, and set apart. This requires humble repentance, not as shame, but as renewal. Through confession and turning, the heart is washed, and the life becomes increasingly distinct from the world she is leaving behind.

Application:

What must you release so that you may be made clean?

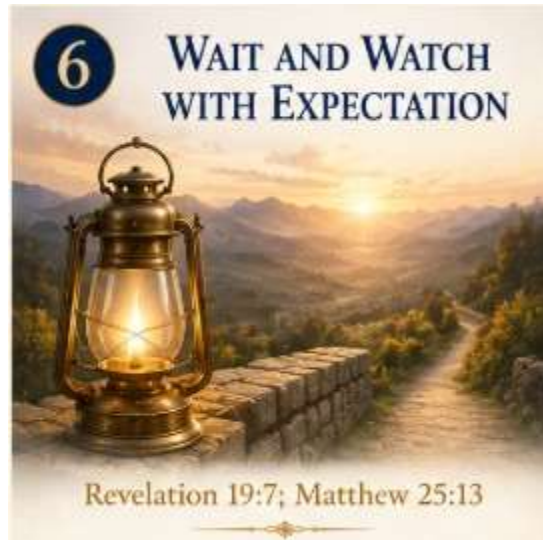

Scriptures: 2 Peter 3:18; Matthew 26:41

Study:

Preparation requires time spent with the Bridegroom. Through His Word, He speaks. Through prayer, we respond. This ongoing communion strengthens the relationship and forms the inner beauty of the Bride. It is here that she is adorned with wisdom, humility, and truth.

Application:

Are you making space daily to know Him more deeply?

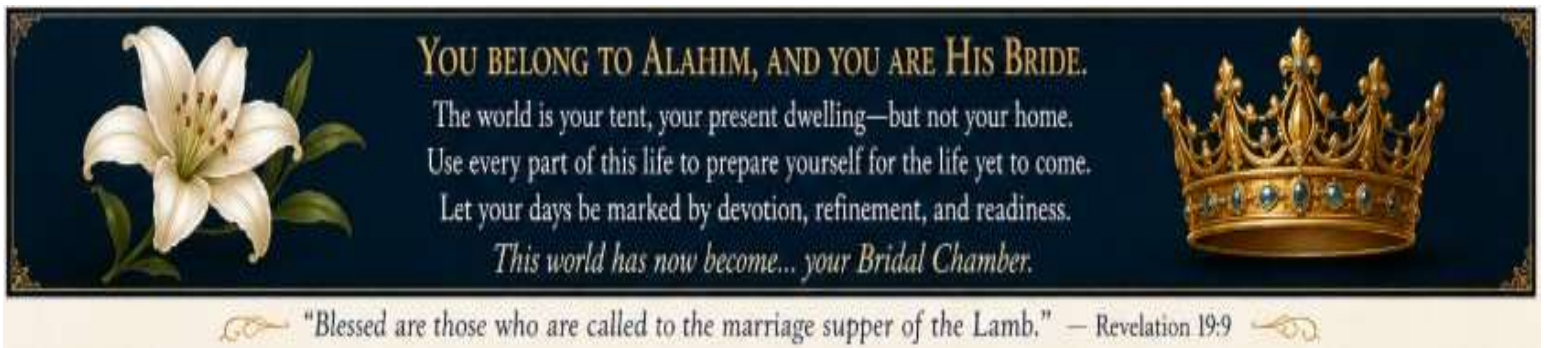

Scriptures: Revelation 19:7; Matthew 25:13

Study:

The Bride lives with anticipation. She watches, prepares, and remains ready. Her life is marked by expectancy, not distraction. She does not grow overly attached to the temporary, because her heart is fixed on what is eternal. Her lamp remains filled, her garments ready.

Application:

If Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah) returned today, would your heart be prepared?

Prayer:

Dear Yahusha,
Teach me to live as Your Bride, with a heart set apart from this world and fully devoted to You.

Cleanse me, refine me, and clothe me in Your righteousness, that I may be found ready when You come.

Help me to walk in love, obedience, and truth, using each day to prepare for the life to come.

Keep my eyes fixed on eternity, that I may not cling to what is passing, but long for what is everlasting.

And may my life reflect Your beauty, as I wait with hope for the day of our reunion.

Barak hashem Yahusha haMashiach!
(Bless the name of Yahusha the Messiah!)
