

Shabbat Shalom, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New/Renewed Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days according to the full moon as the start of His lunar months!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FUb6QjzvRXU>

Today is the 15th day of our Creator's Third Lunar Month count, in which the year begins in the spring. It is also the authentic second lunar Sabbath of the month. It looks like 03-15-5995. It coincides with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary date of Mon, 06-15-2026.

Our Creator placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and the start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to Yahuah Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths and annual Feast Days, is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only Yahuah’s Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts “eyes to see and ears to hear.” Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you, and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

THE PRICE OF THE PRICELESS

By Jonathan Cahn

“Imagine,” said the teacher, “if there was a treasure hidden in that field. Imagine it was worth a hundred times the value of everything you owned. But the field was for sale. And the asking price was equal to everything you owned. So you sell everything you have and purchase the field. The treasure is now yours. How much did it cost you to buy the treasure?”

“Everything I had.”

“No,” said the teacher. “It didn’t cost you anything.”

“But I had to pay for it with everything I had.”

“For the field,” he said, “but not for the treasure. The treasure was beyond your ability to buy, even with all your possessions. It was, in effect, priceless. And yet it was free. What I just told you was the parable the Messiah gave of a man who buys a field in order to gain the treasure hidden within it. What do you think the treasure represents?”

“Salvation? Eternal life? The blessings of Yahuah?”

“All correct,” he said. “You can never earn or warrant Yahuah’s blessings, or His salvation, or eternal life. A million years of perfect works couldn’t purchase it. It’s priceless. And yet it’s given freely, apart from any work. Undeserved, and solely by the grace of Yahuah. That’s the treasure. But there’s another side to the story. Though the treasure is free, it causes the man to go out and do everything he can, use everything he has, let go of everything he can let go of, and give everything he can give in response to having found the treasure. Salvation is the treasure beyond price, and yet it is given freely to all who receive it. But the treasure is so great that if you truly receive it, if you realize what you have, it will lead you to do everything you can, to use everything you have, and to give everything you can give in response to having found it. If you truly found this treasure, then it must lead you to love Yahuah with all your hear, mind, soul, and strength, and to love others as yourself, to forgive as you have been forgiven, to give as you have been given to, to make your life a gift of love, and do all this in joy in light of the treasure that has now come into your life. If you’ve found the treasure that is beyond price and freely given, then live a life that is of the utmost value and greatest of worth, and do so freely. This is the way you possess the priceless.”

The Mission: In view of the treasure freely given, pay the price of the priceless. Give all you have and are. Live all-out. Apprehend the field. Matthew 13:44; Luke 18:22; Philippians 3:7-8; 2 Peter 1:4.

Prayer:

Father Yahuah,

I thank You for the treasure of salvation, eternal life, and Your undeserved blessings, all given freely through Your grace and beyond anything I could ever earn.

Help me never to treat so great a gift lightly, but to understand that what is priceless to me was made possible through the precious sacrifice of Yahusha haMashiach.

Since You have given me the treasure beyond price, teach me to surrender all that I am and all that I have in joyful response to Your love.

Fill my heart to love You with all my mind, soul, and strength, and to love others with forgiveness, generosity and compassion.

Let my life become a willing offering of gratitude, so that in possessing the priceless treasure You have given, I may live in a way that honors You fully.

Barak hashem Yahusha haMashiach!
(Bless the name of Yahusha the Messiah!)
