

Shabbat Shalom, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New/Renewed Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days according to the full moon as the start of His lunar months!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FUb6QjzvRXU>

Today is the 15th day of our Creator's Fourth Lunar Month count, in which the year begins in the spring. It is also the authentic second lunar Sabbath of the month. It looks like 04-15-5995. It coincides with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary date of Tues, 07-14-2026.

Our Creator placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and the start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to Yahuah Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths and annual Feast Days, is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only Yahuah's Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts "eyes to see and ears to hear." Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you, and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

"Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, Yahuah. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness."
Psalms 89:15-16

THE ROSH PINNAH

By Jonathan Cahn

The Teacher led me over a great distance to the ruins of an ancient building. He pointed to one of the stones in its foundation.

“The cornerstone,” he said. “The stone that begins the building. Do you remember when we spoke of it?”

“Psalms 118,” I said, “the song of Passover. ‘The stone which the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone.’ Messiah the Cornerstone.”

“Yes,” said the teacher. “But the Hebrew word for cornerstone is Rosh Pinnah. And Rosh Pinnah not only means the cornerstone but also the capstone.”

He pointed to a stone that rested above the building’s entranceway, on its pinnacle. “The capstone,” he said, “the final stone, the stone that completes the building, the stone to which every other stone leads and converges. So Messiah is not only the Cornerstone but also the Capstone.”

“How so?”

“The Rosh Pinnah prophecy is read on Passover. And it was then, on Passover, in His death, that Messiah became the Capstone, the stone that brings completion. It was on the cross that the Messiah became the Capstone on a fallen world, the Capstone of the curse, the Capstone of the Law, the Capstone of the old covenant, and the Capstone of every sin. And as every stone leads and points to the prophecies, all the shadows, all the guilt, and every longing for redemption. And as every stone converges upon the capstone, so upon Messiah, everything converged: the burden of the world, the weight of all sin, the brunt of all evil, and the judgment of YAHUAH Alahim (God). The capstone is the stone by which the work is finished. So it was then, at the moment of His death, that He said, ‘It is finished.’ And for every life that comes to Him, He becomes the Capstone, the end of one’s sins, the finishing of one’s past, and the completion of everything that was lacking.”

“But how is He both the Cornerstone and the Capstone?”

“Only after the old is ended, can there be a new beginning. After the Capstone event, His death, comes the Cornerstone event, the resurrection. So let all that must be ended find its ending in that Capstone, and you will find on its other side the Cornerstone of new beginnings.”

The Mission: Whatever is incomplete in your life and must be completed and whatever must be ended, finish it, cap it, with the power of the Capstone. Psalms 118:22-23; John 19:28-30.

Kerrie’s Korner:

This is so exciting to discover the meaning of Hebrew words as presented in a simple format such as the narrative above. Below is an illustration of the two-word definitions.

Strong's Hebrew Numbers	Hebrew Words	Strong's Hebrew Dictionary Definitions	Brown-Driver-Brigg's Hebrew Lexicon Definitions
H#7218	רֹאשׁ rosh	from an unused root apparently meaning to shake; the head as it is easily shaken; beginning; captain; chief; end; first; forefront; highest; principal; ruler; sum; top;	the beginning; the head; the top; the summit; the upper part; the chief; the total; the sum; the height; the front;
H#6438	פִּנָּה pinnah	angle; by implication a pinnacle; figuratively a chieftain: bulwark, chief, corner, stay, tower.	1) Corner of square objects. 2) Corner of ruler or chief – figuratively.

My perspective on Rosh Pinnah is a little different than that of “The Teacher.” He seems to put a lot of weight on the words of the Messiah who, when on the cross, said, “It is finished!” As a result, he makes the crucifixion the capstone event rather than the cornerstone event. Yet, this declaration “It is finished” can mean “It is completed or accomplished!” And does not mean that ALL aspects or stages of salvation were fully accomplished at the cross. We know this because Passover marks the beginning of the Feast Day events of the provisional work of our Messiah and not the last or even all the Feast Day provisions of salvation on behalf of mankind.

It is true that Christianity has largely promoted the idea that our Messiah finished all His work of salvation upon the cross/stake of Calvary. But when we look to the Temple Services, as provided in the Torah (O.T.), the schoolmaster of the plan of Salvation, we discover that the death of the lamb was at the beginning and not the end of the Temple ceremonies. As a result, I believe the crucifixion and resurrection, as a unit, are symbolized by the Rosh Pinnah, the Chief Cornerstone. For it was throughout the entire Brit Hadasha (N.T.) storyline that we come face to face with the rejection of the Messiah by the Rabbis and Yahudim (Jews) at large. These people of the PROMISE refused to honor YAHUSHA haMashiach as the true Messiah He was, the Chief Cornerstone of our Faith and Salvation itself. This is still true today. But for those who lived by faith prior to His death and resurrection and all who live by faith according to the recorded truths following it, He and His provisions are the Chief Cornerstone of our lives.

When on the cross He uttered the words translated in most of our English Bibles, “It is Finished!” It equally means, “It is completed,” “It is accomplished,” or even this most difficult portion of my work of salvation is finally over or “finished!” But none of this means that all aspects of Salvation were completed or finished that day.

One after another the remainder of the Feast Days follow in succession after Passover and physically culminate at our Messiah’s Second Coming. Yet, this is still not the completion of Salvation or the Feast Days. After the Second Coming is the Feast of Tabernacles (Sukkot), which symbolizes the experience of the Redeemed (saved) in the New Yarushalom (Jerusalem), the sojourn for a one thousand year Sabbath prior to returning to the restored earth made new. At the completion of this one thousand year Sabbath of temporary dwelling in a glorious and fair land, it is still not our own. It is then that the saved along with the Kadosh (Holy) City, New Yarushalom (Jerusalem) descends to the earth. (Revelation 21:1-7) This is marked by the Feast of Yom Shimini (Eighth Day). The eighth day of a week of seven thousand years. This is the actual and final Rosh Pinnah, the Capstone of “It is finished!”

“Now I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away. Also, there was no more sea.

Then I, John, saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from Yahuah Alahim (God), prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

And I heard a loud voice from heaven saying, "Behold, the tabernacle of Yahuah Alahim (God) is with men, and He will dwell with them, and they shall be His people. Yahuah Alahim (God) Himself will be with them and be their God.

And Yahuah Alahim (God) will wipe away every tear from their eyes; there shall be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying. There shall be no more pain, for the former things have passed away."

Then He who sat on the throne said, "Behold, I make all things new." And He said to me, "Write, for these words are true and faithful."

And He said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. I will give of the fountain of the water of life freely to him who thirsts.

He who overcomes shall inherit all things, and I will be his Yahuah Alahim (God) and he shall be My son (and daughter)." Revelation 21:1-7 NKJV

Only then has mankind come full circle from perfection to perfection, from sinlessness to sinlessness, from righteousness to righteousness. Sin, sickness, sorrow, fear, and death are all swallowed up in victory. HalleluYAH!!!

"So when this corruptible has put on incorruption, and this mortal has put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written: "DEATH IS SWALLOWED UP IN VICTORY." 1 Corinthians 15:54 NKJV

Just as Rosh Pinnah represents the cornerstone and the capstone, the beginning and ending, the start and the finish, so too does the full New Moon. It's beginning of any given lunar month is marked by its ending of the previous lunar month. And so it is that the full New Moon, capturing the full and perfect light from the Sun, has been the perfect representation of our Messiah who is the personification of His Father. The full New Moon as the chief cornerstone of TIME has long been rejected by the Rabbis and people of the promise right along with the Messiah, to this very day. It was the Messiah who said. "I am the Aleph and Tav (Alpha and Omega), the beginning and the end, the first and the last." Revelation 22:13.

It is so amazing how each aspect of TRUTH is interlocked with all others.
Ours is to piece it together as we seek to walk in the LIGHT of it.
HalleluYAH!!!

Prayer:

Dear Yahuah Alahim, the Most High,
we thank You for Yahusha, the rejected Stone who became both the sure Cornerstone and the finishing Capstone of our salvation.
We praise You that through His sacrifice, the weight of sin, guilt, sorrow, and all that stood against us was brought to its appointed end.
Please bring to completion whatever remains unfinished in our lives, and give us grace to surrender every burden, every wound, and every old thing that must be laid down at the feet of Messiah.
As Yahusha declared, “It is finished,” let the power of that finished work bring peace to our hearts, freedom to our souls, and healing
to our walk before You.
And having brought us through the ending, lead us into the new beginning of resurrection life, that we may stand firmly upon Yahusha as our eternal Cornerstone.
Barak hashem Yahusha haMashiach!
(Bless the name of Yahusha the Messiah!)
