

Shabbat Shalom, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New/Renewed Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days according to the full moon as the start of His lunar months!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FUb6QjzvRXU>

Today is the 29th day of our Creator's Fifth Lunar Month count, in which the year begins in the spring. It is also the authentic fourth lunar Sabbath of the month. It looks like 05-29-5995. It coincides with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary date of Thurs, 08-27-2026.

Our Creator placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and the start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to Yahuah Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths and annual Feast Days, is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only Yahuah's Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts "eyes to see and ears to hear." Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you, and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

“Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, Yahuah. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness.”
Psalms 89:15-16

DOWN THE MOUNTAIN

Jonathan Cahn

He took me up one of the desert's high mountains. Only upon reaching the summit did he tell me why we had come there.

"We have no other purpose here," said the teacher, "but to spend time in His presence."

We spent hours there, each of us alone with Yahuah (God), in prayer, in the Word, in worship, in silence. The experience was exhilarating. I could have stayed into the night. But that wasn't the plan.

"We must go down now," he said.

As we began our descent, I said, "I thought you brought me up the mountain to give me a revelation."

“I did,” he said.

“Then why didn’t you give it?”

“Because this one’s not about the mountaintop...but about leaving the mountaintop.”

We continued our descent.

“The disciples spent more than three years in Messiah’s presence. But then He sent them out from Jerusalem to the world. In what direction did He send them?”

“Out from Jerusalem.”

“Down,” said the teacher. “Jerusalem is a city built on the mountains. So, to go out from Jerusalem, they had to go down. They had to go down the mountain. So, to send them out from Jerusalem was to send them down from Jerusalem. Just as important as it is to ascend the mountain is to descend it. In fact, that’s the direction of ministry...down the mountain.”

“What do you mean?”

“When you receive from Yahuah, you’re on the mountaintop. But you can’t stay on the mountaintop. Nor can the blessings of Yah stay on the mountaintop. You have to go down the mountain. That’s where your ministry is...at the bottom of the mountain...where the cities are, and the towns, and their marketplaces, and the fields, and the rest of the world. That’s where they are, at the bottom of the mountain. So you have to go down. You have to bring down His love to the unloved. Bring down His blessings to the cursed, His riches to the poor, His presence to the godless, and His salvation to the lost. Your calling was given in the Great Gospel Commission. And the Great Commission begins on the mountaintop. So, there’s only one way to fulfill it...by going down the mountain.”

The Mission: Dwell today on the mountaintop with Yahuah (God). Receive His blessings. His truths, then bring them down the mountain to touch your world. Exodus 34:28-31; Psalm 96:1-3; Isaiah 58:5-11; Acts 1:8.

Disclaimer: “The Book of Mysteries” by Jonathan Cahn presents a series of lessons he attributes to “The Teacher” in the land of Yasharal (Israel). While we do not affirm all of Cahn’s interpretations or theological positions, we welcome the insights that harmonize with Scripture.

The Great Gospel Commission

The Great Commission is Yahusha's final charge to His followers to carry the message of salvation to all nations. It is not merely a call to preach, but to make disciples, teach obedience, baptize believers, and bear faithful witness to the truth.

Matthew 28:18–20

Yahusha declared that all authority in heaven and earth had been given to Him. He then commanded His disciples to go to all nations, make disciples, baptize them, and teach them to observe all that He had commanded. The commission therefore includes both evangelism and instruction. It is not complete when a person first believes; disciples are to be taught how to live faithfully.

Mark 16:15

“Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.”
The gospel was never intended to remain confined to one nation or one people. The good news of redemption through Yahusha was to be proclaimed universally.

Luke 24:46–48

Yahusha explained that His suffering, resurrection, repentance, and remission of sins were all foretold in Scripture. His disciples were then told, “Ye are witnesses of these things.” The Great Commission therefore rests upon the fulfilled work of the Messiah and the testimony of those who know what He has accomplished.

Acts 1:8

Before His ascension, Yahusha told His followers that they would receive power through the Holy Spirit and become His witnesses “unto the uttermost part of the earth.” The work was never intended to be accomplished through human ability alone. Divine power was promised for a divine mission.

The Heart of the Commission

The Great Gospel Commission may be summarized in four movements:

Go down the mountain. Truth is not to be hidden or kept within comfortable boundaries.

Proclaim. The message centers upon repentance, forgiveness, salvation, and the Messiah.

Make disciples. Converts are to become mature followers who understand and obey the Word.

Bear witness. Believers are called to reflect the character and truth of Yahuah in both word and life.

The commission is therefore more than spreading information. It is the calling to invite people out of darkness into truth, reconciliation, obedience, including restoration to His sacred worship rhythm and calendar, and unto eternal life through Yahusha haMashiach.

And the commission closes with one of Scripture's most comforting promises:

“Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world.” Matthew 28:20

The One who sends His people into the world also promises to remain with them until the work is complete.

Song: Witness in the Sky ~ TheCreatorsCalendar.com

Prayer:

Yahuah, draw us often to the mountaintop of Your presence,
where we may be renewed by Your Word,
strengthened by Your Spirit, and filled with the light of Your truth.

Teach us not to remain there only for ourselves, but to descend with willing hearts, carrying Your love to the unloved, Your hope to the discouraged, and Your salvation to the lost.

Give us courage to proclaim the good news of Yahusha haMashiach, to make faithful disciples, and to bear witness to every truth You have entrusted to our care.

May the blessings, wisdom, and sacred truths we receive from You flow outward into our homes, communities, and the world around us, restoring hearts to Your ways and preparing a people for Your kingdom.

And as we go down the mountain in obedience to Your Great Commission, remind us that we never go alone, for Yahusha has promised to be with us always,
even unto the end of the age.

Barak hashem Yahusha haMashiach!
(Bless the name of Yahusha the Messiah!)
