

Shabbat Shalom, all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New/Renewed Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days according to the full moon as the start of His lunar months!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FUb6QjzvRXU>

Today is the 15th day of our Creator's Sixth Lunar Month count, in which the year begins in the spring. It is also the authentic second lunar Sabbath of the month. It looks like 06-15-5995. It coincides with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary date of Fri, 09-11-2026.

Our Creator placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and the start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to Yahuah Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths and annual Feast Days, is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only Yahuah's Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts “eyes to see and ears to hear.” Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you, and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

Psalms 89:15-16

THE SECRET PLACE

By Jonathan Cahn

We were walking on the side of a mountain when he found an opening into something of a cave. He went inside and motioned for me to follow.

“Do you know,” said the teacher, “what the holiest place on earth was?”

“It was called the Kodesh ha Kodashim. It means the Holy of Holies.”

“I’ve heard of it.”

“It was the holiest place of the holy sanctuary, the innermost chamber of the Temple. It could only be entered on the holiest day of the year, Yom Kippur [Day of Atonement]. It was there that the most important event of the Biblical year took place, the act of atonement... the holiest act in the holiest place on the holiest day. And do you know how many people witnessed this most holy of acts?”

“No.”

“Only one, the high priest who performed it. No one else saw it. How many people do you think could come into the Holy of Holies?”

“I don’t know.”

“One. No more than one. It was made to hold just one person... one person and the glory of God [Yahuah Alahim]. So no one could see what happened there, even when it was the most important event of the year and that on which everyone’s relationship with God [Yahuah Alahim] depended. It all took place in secret. The most holy of places is the secret place.”

“So what is the holiest place on earth now?”

“The secret place,” he replied. “And where is the secret place? It’s where you make it. It’s where you go to be with Him. . . So the secret place must be totally separate, totally secret, and totally apart from the rest of your life, and from the world. . . As it is written, ‘Oh my dove, in the clefts of the rock, in the secret place of the cliff, let me see your face, let me hear your voice, for your voice is sweet, and your face [countenance] is lovely.’ It’s the most important place you can dwell. For it is there that you’ll find His presence, hear His voice, and see His glory. For they only reside in the Most Holy of places . . . the secret place.”

The Mission: Today, go into the secret place, apart from the world . . . away from everything but His presence. Exodus 25:21-22; Song of Solomon 2:14; Matthew 6:6

Disclaimer: “The Book of Mysteries” by Jonathan Cahn presents a series of lessons he attributes to “The Teacher” in the land of Yasharal (Israel). While we do not affirm all of Cahn’s interpretations or theological positions, we welcome the insights that harmonize with Scripture.

Kerrie’s Korner:

While the Day of Atonement (Yom Kippur) is unquestionably one of Yahuah's most sacred appointed days, I do not believe Scripture identifies it as the most sacred day of all. Rather, I believe that distinction belongs to Passover, the fourteenth day counted from the full New Moon, for it was on Passover that the great work of redemption was accomplished through Yahusha the Messiah.

The designation of Yom Kippur as the "holiest day" is rooted in Jewish tradition. Yet traditional Judaism does not recognize Yahusha as the Messiah or acknowledge the fulfillment of Passover through His sacrificial death. But, from the Messianic perspective, Passover cannot be separated from the central act of redemption to which the appointed Feast Days ultimately pointed.

Remember that the yearly ministry of the High Priest, entering the Kadosh ha Kadoshim once each year, was a continual prophetic rehearsal pointing forward to the Messiah. What was repeated year after year in symbol would ultimately be accomplished by Yahusha in reality. He alone, as our true High Priest, would enter on behalf of humble, confessing sinners and accomplish what no earthly priest could ever complete.

At His crucifixion, when the curtain of the Temple was torn from top to bottom, the barrier separating sinful humanity from the presence of the ETERNAL FATHER was opened. The pathway once guarded by the cherubim because of sin was now made accessible through the Messiah. Yahusha had borne our judgment and paid the price of redemption. At His ascension, He entered into the presence of the Father as our High Priest, making AT-ONE-MENT possible between fallen humanity and YAHUAH.

Yet this reconciliation can be received only through faith and faithfulness to YAHUSHA HAMASHIACH. He stood in our place and bore the judgment that belonged to us. Because He is RIGHTEOUS, those who abide in Him may also be accounted righteous before the Father.

The Messiah became the bridge across the great chasm created by sin, the separation of humankind from our Creator, the ETERNAL FATHER, YAHUAH ALAHIM, and from His eternal STANDARD OF RIGHTEOUSNESS. Through Yahusha alone, the WAY back to the Father was opened.

And just prior to the Second Coming, on the LAST YOM KIPPUR, the final work of AT-ONE-MENT will reach its appointed fulfillment for His faithful and obedient followers. The separation caused by sin will at last be brought to an end, and the breach between the redeemed and their Creator will be forever closed.

From the PROMISE OF HOPE first revealed in the Torah to the Messiah's ultimate PROVISION revealed in the Brit Hadasha, one continuous plan of redemption unfolds. Through the merits and RIGHTEOUSNESS OF YAHUSHA HAMASHIACH, every humble, repentant, confessing sinner may approach the ETERNAL FATHER.

HalleluYAH!

Therefore, let this day of Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement, be a solemn time of self-examination, confession, repentance, and restoration of the soul. Each observance is a rehearsal pointing toward that great and final judgment.

May we search our hearts while mercy remains available, surrendering every known sin and every cherished transgression, that nothing may remain between us and our Creator. And may we be found clothed, not in a righteousness of our own, but in the RIGHTEOUSNESS OF YAHUSHA HAMASHIACH, prepared to receive the eternal reward promised to His faithful.

BUT THERE IS MORE...

ALTAR OF THE HEAVENLIES

By Jonathan Cahn

He took me back into the chamber that housed the stone replica of the Temple. “That,” he said, pointing to his right, “is the brazen altar, the altar on which the sacrifices were offered up and by which the people were reconciled to God, [the Most High, Yahuah Alahim]. On the Day of Atonement [Yom Kippur], after the sacrifice was complete, the high priest would take the blood and enter through those two golden doors into the holy [kadosh] place. He would then go beyond the veil into the holy of holies where he would sprinkle the blood on the Ark of the Covenant in between the wings of the golden cherubim. Everything begins with the altar. What does it foretell, the altar of sacrifice?”

“The offering of the final sacrifice,” I said, “the sacrifice of Messiah.”

“On what altar? He asked.

“On the altar of the cross.”

“Yes,” he said. “The cross is the ultimate and cosmic altar of the ultimate and cosmic sacrifice, the Lamb of God [Yahuah Alahim]. But the altar of sacrifice was only one part of the Temple ceremony. What about the rest?”

“What do you mean?”

“People [Christians] view the cross as if it was the end of salvation. But the altar of sacrifice was never THE END, but THE BEGINNING. It is the altar of sacrifice that gives access, the ability to enter through the Temple doors, to walk beyond the veil, and to stand in the HOLY OF HOLIES [Kadosh of Kadoshim]. The altar of sacrifice begins the journey. So then, the cosmic altar must give you cosmic access ...that you might begin a cosmic journey.

The altar of Messiah’s sacrifice gives you access to go where you never could go before, to open doors you never before could open, to enter into that which you never before could enter, and to walk a path you never before could walk. This cosmic altar gives you the power to enter the realm of the HOLY [kadosh] and, in the Spirit [Ruach], to stand in the heavenly places, in the HOLY OF HOLIES [kadosh of Kadoshim], in the actual dwelling place of God [Yahuah Alahim we call heaven].

Learn the mystery and the magnitude of this altar and enter beyond the veil...For if the altar of sacrifice opened the WAY that one might dwell in the HOLY [kadosh] PLACE in the earthly Sanctuary/Temple, then the altar of our Messiah’s sacrifice has opened the WAY for you to dwell in [the Temple not made with hands] in the heavenlies ...the realms of ETERNAL GLORY.”

The Mission: Bring your life totally to the cross. It is the doorway. Use its access to go where you never could before. Exodus 40:6; Leviticus 16:12-14; Hebrews 4:14-16; 10:19-23

Prayer:

ETERNAL FATHER, YAHUAH ALAHIM, draw us into the secret place, away from the distractions of this world, that we may seek Your presence, hear

Your voice, and behold Your glory.
We humbly confess our sins and thank You for YAHUSHA
HAMASHIACH, our RIGHTEOUS High Priest, who bore our judgment and opened the WAY into Your presence through His sacrifice.
Search our hearts and lead us to true repentance, that no cherished sin or transgression may remain between You and us.
Clothe us in the RIGHTEOUSNESS OF YAHUSHA, and prepare us for that final AT-ONE-MENT when the door of separation caused by sin will be forever closed.
May we faithfully abide in You, entering beyond the veil through the WAY You have provided, until we dwell with You in ETERNAL GLORY, HalleluYAH!

Barak hashem Yahusha haMashiach!
(Bless the name of Yahusha the Messiah!)
