

Shabbat Shalom to all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New/Renewed Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days according to the full moon as the start of His lunar months!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FUb6QjzRXU>

Today is the 29th day of our Creator's Sixth Lunar Month count, in which the year begins in the spring. It is also the authentic fourth lunar Sabbath of the month. It looks like 06-29-5995. It coincides with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary date of Fri, 09-25-2026.

Our Creator placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and the start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to Yahuah Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths and annual Feast Days, is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only Yahuah's Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts “eyes to see and ears to hear.” Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you, and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

Please note that the Seventh Lunar Month will begin in two days; it will mark Yom Teruah, otherwise known as the Feast of Trumpets, as day one of the month. While it is called a Feast or festival, it is also a fast day.

THE FEAST OF TRUMPETS

By Jonathan Cahn

We stood on the ridge of a high mountain. The teacher had in one hand a tallit, the Hebrew prayer shawl, and in the other a shofar, the ram's horn. It was the Feast of Trumpets [the first day of the Seventh lunar month].

“Later on,” he said, “we’ll observe it with the rest. But I wanted to share of it now with you. It is written: ‘You shall have ...a reminder by the sounding of trumpets, a holy convocation ...’ the Feast of Trumpets.”

“I have a question about that,” I said. “Why is it that the holy days [Feast Days] of Israel appear, in one form or another, in the New Testament ... except for one, the Feast of Trumpets? Why is the Feast of Trumpets missing?”

“It’s not,” he said. “You just didn’t see it. When in the sacred Hebrew year does the Feast of Trumpets take place, at the beginning or the end? At the end. So, then its mystery doesn’t focus on the beginning of the age, but the end. The Feast of Trumpets announces the closing of the sacred cycle. So too it will announce the closing of the age. And what is it that you find in Scripture when you look at the prophecies concerning the end of the age? Trumpets. The trumpets of Israel announce the coming of kings and kingdoms, the approaching of armies. So it is prophesied that when the trumpet sounds, the kingdom of Yahuah Alahim (God) will come.

The trumpets called the people of Israel to gather before Alahim (God). So it is prophesied that at the sound of the trumpet, His people will be gathered up to His presence. The sound of the trumpet was a wake-up call. So, it is foretold that it was the sound of the trumpet that announced the beginning of a king's reign. So, it is foretold that when the trumpet sounds, the reign of the King will begin, and the kingdom of this world will become the kingdom of Yahuah Alahim. The Feast of Trumpets and the holy days [Feast Days] of autumn are just as much a part of the new covenant as are the holy days of spring. They tell us that our faith is not only in what was, but in what is yet to come...THE RETURN OF OUR MESSIAH. We live from salvation and yet to redemption, and we are, above all, a people of hope.”

At that, he covered his head with the tallit, lifted the shofar to his mouth, and blew. The sound echoed throughout the wilderness. He then turned to me.

“So, live confident and in hope of what is yet to come ... and ready for that day The Day of Trumpets.”

The Mission: Live this day in confidence and hope of the Messiah's RETURN as KING OF KINGS. Leviticus 23:24; Matthew 24:31; 1 Corinthians 15:52; 1 Thessalonians 4:16.

Disclaimer: “The Book of Mysteries” by Jonathan Cahn presents a series of lessons he attributes to “The Teacher” in the land of Yasharal (Israel). While we do not affirm all of Cahn's interpretations or theological positions, we welcome the insights that harmonize with Scripture.

Further Study: This week I spent some time updating a few articles, and the following article from the Prophecy of Amos is one of them. I was struck by how valuable this narrative is for identifying the original and authentic New Moon, as well as the authentic Messiah. It separates the fake Messiah from the true. I invite you to read:

Amos Prophesied a Solar Eclipse Would Occur at the Messiah's Death

Amos 8:9-11

Introduction

Written approximately 800 years before the crucifixion of the Messiah, the prophecy of Amos contains a remarkable declaration: the sun would be “stricken” at noon, and the earth would be darkened in the midst of the day. This interlinear Scripture study examines that prophecy and its connection to the precise day of the ONLY BEGOTTEN SON'S SACRIFICIAL DEATH.

Was the dramatic darkening of the sun fulfilled by a SOLAR ECLIPSE, providing a celestial SIGN identifying the true Messiah? And if so, what might that heavenly witness reveal about His identity, His Kingdom government, and the worship rhythm established by the Creator? Prayer:

Dear Heavenly Father, Yahuah, Awaken our hearts to hear Your call and prepare us for the glorious return of Yahusha haMashiach.

May the sound of the trumpet remind us to gather unto You with faith, obedience, and joyful expectation.

Keep our eyes fixed upon the promises yet to be fulfilled, that we may live each day with confidence and hope.

Prepare us for the day when the trumpet shall sound,
Your people shall be gathered, and the reign of our King shall be revealed in fullness.

May we be found faithful and ready to welcome Yahusha, our Messiah and King of Kings, and dwell in Your presence forevermore. Amen.

Barak hashem Yahusha haMashiach!
(Bless the name of Yahusha the Messiah!)
