

Shabbat Shalom to all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New/Renewed Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days according to the full moon as the start of His lunar months!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FUb6QjzvRXU>

Today is the 8th day of our Creator's Seventh Lunar Month count, in which the year begins in the spring. It is also the authentic first lunar Sabbath of the month. It looks like 07-08-5995. It coincides with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary date of Sun, 10-04-2026.

Our Creator placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and the start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to Yahuah Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths and annual Feast Days, is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only Yahuah's Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts "eyes to see and ears to hear." Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you, and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

“Blessed are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, Yahuah. They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation. They exult in your righteousness.”
 Psalms 89:15-16

Feast of Tabernacles (Sukkot)

How to Celebrate It

by Kerrie French

This article is offered as a practical and spiritual guide on how to prepare for Sukkot, the Feast of Tabernacles. You will find helpful instructions, images, and ideas. This Festival week is a time of joyful remembrance, a divine appointment echoing when the people of Yahuah were commanded to dwell in temporary shelters during their wilderness journey, and celebrating the Eternal's faithful provision as they journeyed to the Promised Land.

Today, as believers seek to honor this sacred festival, each sukkah (tabernacle or booth) built becomes a visible testimony of trust, humility, and anticipation of the coming Kingdom, the final Promised Land, when the Creator will again "tabernacle" with His people. Whether crafted from simple branches or more permanent materials, your sukkot serves not merely as a structure, but as a sacred space where heaven meets earth in joyful worship.

Kerrie's Korner

The Feast of Tabernacles is a time to rejoice, give thanks, and remember Yahuah's faithfulness as we look forward to our heavenly home.

“You shall dwell in booths for seven days... that your generations may know that I made the children of Israel dwell in booths when I brought them out of the land of Egypt.” Leviticus 23:42-43

As Yasharal once journeyed through the wilderness, dwelling in temporary shelters and depending upon Yahuah for their daily provision, Sukkot invites us to remember that we too are pilgrims on a journey. Our earthly dwellings are temporary, but the destination before us is eternal.

So now is the time to prepare, not only our booths and our homes, but our hearts. Let us make ready to gather in gratitude, fellowship, worship, and joy. Let us remember His deliverance in the past, recognize His provision in the present, and look with expectation toward the Kingdom yet to come.

Prepare your heart. Prepare your dwelling. Prepare to rejoice.

The Feast of Tabernacles is approaching, an appointed TIME to remember the wilderness journey while looking forward with hope to the completion of our own heavenly journey and the day when we shall dwell with our Bridegroom forevermore.

Prayer:

Yahuah our Alahim,
As we celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles, remind us that this world is not our home and that we are pilgrims journeying toward the Promised Land.

Thank You for Yahusha haMashiach, our faithful Bridegroom and Savior, who walks before us and leads us safely through the wilderness of this world.

Teach us to trust Your provision, follow Your WAY, and dwell beneath Your protection until our earthly journey is complete.

Keep our hearts fixed upon the heavenly inheritance
You have promised, where sorrow, suffering, and death will be no more.

May we follow Yahusha faithfully from this temporary dwelling into the eternal Kingdom, where we shall dwell in Your presence forevermore. Amen.

Barak hashem Yahusha haMashiach!
(Bless the name of Yahusha the Messiah!)

The Feast of Sukkot (Tabernacles)

"You shall dwell in booths for seven days... that your generations may know that I made the children of Israel dwell in booths
when I brought them out of the land of Egypt."
Leviticus 23:42-43

A Memorial

We are commanded to build booths and dwell in them for seven days as a remembrance of Yasharal's wilderness journey.
Leviticus 23:42-43

A Lesson of Dependence

Just as our ancestors lived in temporary dwellings and depended on Yahuah's provision in the wilderness, we too are reminded to trust and rely on Him in every season.

A Prophetic Symbol

The booth is also a symbol of our heavenly journey — that we are pilgrims and strangers in this world, looking forward to a better dwelling, a city whose Builder and Maker is Yahuah.
Hebrews 11:13-16

A Time of Rejoicing

Sukkot is a time of joy, thanksgiving, and fellowship, celebrating Yahuah's faithfulness in the past, His provision in the present, and the hope of His kingdom to come.
Leviticus 23:40-41
