

Shabbat Shalom and Happy Feast of Tabernacles to all who worship Yahuah Alahim and Yahusha haMashiach on their Kadosh (set-apart) New/Renewed Moons, Lunar Sabbaths, and Feast Days according to the full moon as the start of His lunar months!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FUb6QjzvRXU>

Today is the 15th day of our Creator's Seventh Lunar Month count, in which the year begins in the spring. It is also the authentic second lunar Sabbath of the month. It looks like 07-15-5995. It coincides with the Roman Gregorian calendar planetary date of Sun, 10-11-2026.

Our Creator placed His full moon beacon as the original New Moon and the start of His months, high above for all to see. All praise to Yahuah Alahim for His steadfast love and compassion for His children and His patience in restoring His lost truths in preparation for the Second Coming of His Son, Yahusha haMashiach (the Messiah). Simply because the full moon as New Moon, with its count to Lunar Sabbaths and annual Feast Days, is not popular among the Rabbinical Pharisee Jews or the Romanized Christian churches today, does in no way diminish its LIGHT OF TRUTH shining from the pages of Scripture and His Eternal Throne. Only Yahuah's Ruach (power, presence, and provision) gives those who seek Him with all their hearts "eyes to see and ears to hear." Ask Him today to reveal His New Moon and lunar Sabbath to you, and see how your life will change as your soul temple is synchronized to His for all eternity.

Sukkot – Feast of Tabernacles

Some have believed that the Feasts are only for the Jews (Yahudim), both Rabbinical and Karaite, but Scripture identifies them as the Feasts of YAHUAH, the Most High (Leviticus 23:2, 4, 37, 44, 2 Chronicles 2:4; Ezra 3:5), and intended for all who are called by His name. So it is that you are invited to enter into the Joy of Yahuah either in a highly organized group, a small group, or even as one solitary person. Because when you celebrate, you are doing so in unison with all those scattered around the world who are also seeking harmony with the heavenly host. Yet, still greater, you are in harmony with the entire host of heaven.

The wilderness journey of Israel was far more than a passage from Egypt to the Promised Land. It was a forty-year school of restoration, through which Yahuah taught His chosen people to return to His divine standard of worship, obedience, and sacred time. The daily provision of manna established the rhythm of each lunar month, beginning with New Moon Day and continuing through the six working days to each seventh-day Sabbath. The Sanctuary revealed still greater dimensions of His divine calendar, demonstrating when the year, month, week, day, and annual Feasts were appointed to begin and end. Together, these lessons prepared Israel to synchronize their earthly lives and the temples of their souls with the heavenly pattern established by the Most High.

These experiences were preserved as examples for the faithful Covenant Bride in the last days, who, like ancient Israel, now stands within sight of the Promised Land. Consider the significance of this: Those who entered Canaan had passed through the wilderness school of restoration, where Yahuah was preparing a people to dwell in harmony with Him. The Feast of Tabernacles, with its joyful dwelling in sukkot, beautifully represents this covenant relationship and points forward to the day when Yahuah will dwell among His redeemed people forever. The earthly journey was a preparation for the heavenly reality.

Salvation is not earned by the keeping of appointed times, but genuine covenant faithfulness calls us to trust and obey the One who established them. Our hope rests in Yahusha haMashiach and His continuing ministerial work on our behalf, while our loving obedience reveals our willingness to be restored to the divine standard of His Kingdom. The same Yahuah who called Israel out of Egypt is calling His faithful Bride out of the confusion of this world and into harmony with His heavenly order.

The wilderness was the school, the Sanctuary was the pattern, and the Promised Land was the reward. The lessons remain for us today. Consider that not one person entered the Promised Land who had not accepted the Creator's original calendar and celebrated this Feast of Tabernacles. It is one of His signs that we are His, and that we seek an eternal home. HalleluYah!!!

Kerrie's Korner

Because this Feast of Tabernacles is a week long, I want to challenge each of you to take your time, portion by portion, and read through the updated article Three Months in a Row Part 1-4. The evidence for our beliefs is so well demonstrated in this four-part story.

We need to be preparing our hearts for the wilderness journey we have begun and will continue through to the end. Our faith must be built on the solid rock of truth and not on the many man-made traditions passed down to us that seem to have a hold on so many. Yahuah and Yahusha are calling. Now is the time to fortify our minds that we may be prepared to rise up with our lights burning bright.

Introduction: A Three-Month Witness Written in Time

The chronological details recorded in the three consecutive months of the Exodus, the manna, and Israel's arrival at Mount Sinai reveal a divine pattern of profound importance. These familiar biblical accounts are remembered for their extraordinary events: the first Passover, deliverance from Egyptian bondage, manna from the shamayim, and Israel's arrival at the Mountain of Yahuah. Yet woven quietly through each narrative is another remarkable witness, one written in TIME.

Moses records not merely what happened, but when. Months are identified, dates are preserved, and events unfold in a deliberate sequence. When these details are brought together, they present what this study identifies as the restoration and confirmation of Yahuah's (YHUH) original and authentic appointed system of time-measuring.

In the First Month of Abib, while Israel was still in Egypt, Yahuah spoke directly to Moses and Aaron and established the beginning from which His people were to measure their months and years. Before Passover could be observed on the appointed 14th day, Israel first had to know where the count began. Sacred TIME was restored before they ever took their first steps out of bondage.

In the Second Month, Yahuah continued the lesson of TIME through the feeding schedule of the manna. For six working days Israel gathered bread from the shamayim; on the sixth day they gathered a double portion in preparation for the Sabbath, while on the seventh day none appeared. The manna became more than food. It was a living testimony to Yahuah's appointed TIME and a test of whether His people would trust His WORD and walk according to His order.

In the Third Month, Israel arrived at Mount Sinai. Within the chronology presented in this book, this third consecutive month provides another witness to the recurring lunar pattern already revealed in the Exodus and manna accounts. Here, Yahuah would continue preparing His people for covenant relationship and, in due process, establish the Sanctuary system through which the Plan of Salvation would be portrayed according to TIME and EVENT.

Then, Forty Years Later, the manna ceased after Israel entered the Promised Land. Within the calendrical framework examined in this book, its cessation provides a final witness that allows us to compare the calendar at the end of the wilderness journey with the pattern established at its beginning.

The First Month established the foundation. The Second Month confirmed it through the manna. The Third Month added another witness. And forty years later, the conclusion of the manna brought the wilderness testimony full circle.

But this story is about far more than determining dates on a calendar. Yahuah was calling a people out of bondage and into covenant relationship with Himself. They would learn not only whom they worshiped, but when He had appointed to meet with them. His New Moons, Sabbaths, and Feast Days would become sacred appointments between Yahuah and His people, ultimately revealing the prophetic work of Yahusha haMashiach and the unfolding Plan of Salvation.

Before Israel could leave Egypt physically, they first had to begin separating from Egypt's laws, traditions, and system of time. Before they could journey toward the Promised Land, they had to learn to order their lives according to the One who was leading them there.

TIME itself became Israel's first great test of faith and obedience.

Prayer

Heavenly Father Yahuah,
We rejoice in Your appointed Feast of Tabernacles and the promise of dwelling with You forever.
As You led Israel through the wilderness, restore our hearts and minds to Your divine standard of truth and sacred TIME.
Teach us to walk in loving obedience, trusting fully in Yahusha haMashiach and His heavenly ministry on our behalf.
Prepare us as Your faithful Covenant Bride, with lamps burning brightly as we journey toward the heavenly Promised Land.

May we soon rejoice with all Your redeemed, dwelling in Your glorious presence throughout eternity.
HalleluYah!

Barak hashem Yahusha haMashiach!
(Bless the name of Yahusha the Messiah!)
